SHORT LOCALS.

Usual prayer meeting services at the churches tonight.
The water Lou carried last night was not in her shoes as it was today.

Go to J F Dayvault's for fresh meats and oysters. All orders promptly filled.

Information from an unofficial but reliable source gives Bryan 226 electoral votes. 4.15 p. m.

Only one session was taught at the graded school today, the children being dismissed at 1 o'clock.

Next comes Thanksgiving day and the festive turkey. We will not need the gobbler this year as we have several roosters on the fence.

There is nothing like covering up things, especially during a rainy spell. Ould Mercantile Company have rubbers for everybody. See their ad.

Found—a bunch of keys near the colored Presbyterian church by Wilson Motley. Call at this office and get keys—expenses and remuneration 35 cents.

Don't forget the concert that is to be given by the ladies of the city Friday night at the home of Judge Montgomery. Be charitable in all things and give this entertainment your liberal support.

Several young boys have been gunning since the first of November and it is said that a number of quail were bagged. Boys, you had better let hunting alone until after the 15th.

Concord is to be congratulated on the quiet and peaceful way in which the election passed off. No drunkenness and rowdiness prevailed and no one's life was endangered. Those who were intoxicated were inoffensive.

Chief of Police Boger had quite a collection of sticks and clubs in his office taken from a number of boys Tuesday night. He feared trouble, but when the lights flickered out the streets cleared in a very few minutes.

Mr. Gus Blackwelder, miller at the Fenix Flour Mill, met with an accident Tuesday. He fell through a trap door and badly bruised his nose, arm and legs. No bones were broken, but the suddenness and force of the fall was not like jumping into a haystack.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla acts directly and promptly, purifying and enriching the blood, improving the appetite, strengthening the nerves, and invigorating the system. It is, therefore, in the truest sense, an alterative medicine. Every invalid should give it a trial.

There is strong talk by a number of our citizens of circulating a petition for the purpose of re-opening the bar rooms in this city. We hope the idea has not developed into anything like a reality, for truly the saloon is an abomination to civilization and morality.

Democratic Victory.

The Democracy of Cabarrus has something to be thankful for, inasmuch as one of the county officers was elected over the combined forces of the Populist and Republican fusion. The success of Mr. Swink, who has been elected by about 50 majority to the treasurer's place, is due to the diligence and good work of the Young Men's Democratic club. They worked untiring and their efforts were partially crowned with a small reward. Even though the Democracy was defeated, we have some sterling workers who will not falter in courage for the next four years to come.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Cailloutte, Druggist, at Beaverville, Ill., says: To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it. Get a free trial at Fetzer's Drug Store.

We hoped to furnish our readers with a tabulated report of the election, but owing to the inclemency of the weather we go to press without the delay that it would require. We will give the full report tomorrow.

Always ready—Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It needs no mixing, no shaking, no disguise—nothing but a spoon. At dead of night, your child startles you with a croupy cough. Immediately that you give this remedy, the little one is relieved, and the household is again at rest.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God in his wise providence to remove by death from our midst, our fellow-student, Albert L. Sawyer, therefore be it resolved by the Lycurgian Literary Society:

1. That while we bow in humble submission to the divine decree, yet we feel the loss of a humble, Christ-like life that always sets us an example worthy of emulation.
2. That Trinity High School has lost a conscientious, earnest student, and that our society realizes the loss of a true and loyal member.
3. That we tender to the bereaved members of his family our warm, Christian sympathy, with the prayer that God may comfort their sorrowing hearts and may sanctify this great affliction to their good and his glory.
4. That a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of the Lycurgian Literary Society, and that copies be sent to the North Carolina Christian Advocate and the Concord STANDARD for publication.

Her Presence of Mind.

"Yes, Harry and I went out riding on a tandem last evening, and he gave me such a fright I have hardly got over it even yet."

"How was that?"

"When we were going through an avenue of trees and there was nobody in sight he leaned forward on his handle bars and reached his head around and kissed me."

"Why, that was dangerous, wasn't it? If you had swerved ever so little the machine would have upset and thrown you both off."

"Yes, but I didn't swerve."—Chicago Tribune.

Concord in Charlotte—Vice Versa.

The Observer says: Miss Laura Wadsworth has a charming house party: Misses Cannon, of Concord; Hayden, of Atlanta, and Bradley, of Knoxville. She gives a handsome reception tomorrow evening in their honor. Hours 6 to 9.

Capt. and Mrs. J. M. Odell, of Concord, had a family reunion Sunday, the dinner being such as Mrs. Odell is famed for. Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Andrews, of this city, were present.

Sam Jones Not a Drawing Card.

Sam Jones' lecture was not a financial success Saturday night. Only about $145 was taken in while the expense was $250 or over. Otherwise it was a success.

Sam, however, is a good one; he donated $75 of his share to the ladies of the Centenary church, remained over and preached yesterday morning, when he "raised a collection" from a congregation of 1,500 or 1,800 people—how much we don't know, but probably enough to even up the loss on the lecture.

Sam is a whole team. While parts of his sermon were sublime, we see no reason for changing the opinion expressed when he was here before, to wit: that he is an entertaining and brilliant man, but that people who ask others to hear him should not object to circuses, minstrels or even high kickers.

If you can stand his "civid" jokes you can stand anything.

To use one of his expressions, if he don't make you "pake like a buzzard" you are in no danger at a show—even at a French comic opera.—Greensboro Record.

It certainly is beautiful, and My! What a fit.
I bought this from Gibson & Morrison. They always keep a full line of fashionable and cheap dress goods, and they have Butterick's Patterns, which you will find the most stylish and easiest to fit. I always use these patterns. Isn't my cape pretty, too? Look what splendid material, and the very latest style! They get new wraps every few days.

The Year Round
Some Medicines belong to one season and some to another.
DR. KING'S ROYAL GERMETUER
IS IN SEASON ALL THE YEAR ROUND.

IN THE SPRING
It purifies the blood, removes languor and depression, invigorates and exhilarates the whole system.

IN THE SUMMER
It overcomes the relaxation and debility caused by hot weather and corrects bowel troubles that are so prevalent then. Besides, it makes the most delightful and refreshing drink.

IN THE FALL
When malaria "rides on every passing breeze," it is the great preventive and the unfailing cure of troubles resulting from that cause.

IN THE WINTER
It is still needed for curing Colds, Grip, Catarrh, Rheumatism, and the ills that belong to cold seasons.

It does these things, not in a feeble and uncertain way, but with assured and triumphant power.
