WITH THE CHURCHES.

Good Sermons Heard by Large Crowds Yesterday.

The bright sunshine and crisp, bracing air brought out large crowds to the different houses of worship yesterday.

At the First Presbyterian church Rev. A T Graham, of Davidson College, filled the pulpit, both morning and evening. Mr. Graham is a young man of much force, and his sermons were listened to with the closest attention.

Dr. Parker, at the Central M. E. church preached his last sermon before conference, which meets in Salisbury next Wednesday. Mr. Parker has endeared himself not only to his congregation, but to all with whom he has come in contact, during his two years pastorate here, and should he not be returned to his charge, it will be a disappointment to all who know him.

In the absence of the pastor at the Baptist State Convention, Rev. J R Moore, of Wake Forest, preached at the Baptist church morning and evening.

Rev. C B Miller preached in his usual impressive way to the great satisfaction of the St. James Lutheran congregation. His discourse at night was especially well spoken of. It threw much light on the vision of Ezekiel and attached new beauties to that mysterious scene. There was a sublimity in the elucidation rarely enjoyed and doubtless his hearers will go to their daily cares for the week with sweeter contemplations of matchless beauties beyond the confines of this transitory life.

Rev. M A Smith, of Forest Hill M. E. church ended his pastorate of four years Sunday. He has done a great work there, and the reports which were read shows a large increase in membership. His people regret that they will lose him, and wherever conference may send him, he will carry with him the best wishes of the people of Concord.

Bishop Hoop, of Fayetteville, one of the most able colored divines in the South, preached at Price Memorial Temple at 3 o'clock yesterday evening, to a large congregation of both white and colored people.

It Will Whip Around If It Suits It.

Senator Butler's paper has opened its batteries upon Senator Pritchard—which may or may not signify something. It will be recalled that a few months ago it was very denunciatory of gold-bugs, and yet before the cures died on its lips it was the chief instrument in effecting fusion with them and one of the most potential influences in electing a lot of gold-bugs, last week, to Congress, the Legislature, the State offices and the bench. Its abuse of Pritchard now affords no assurance that it will not, next week or next month, be supporting him with all of its might.—Statesville Landmark.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

Governor Carr Issues His Proclamation.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA.
THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR:

The observance of one day in the year as an occasion of "solemn and public thanksgiving to Almighty God for past blessings and of supplication for his continued kindness and care over us as a State and Nation" is a beautiful and time honored custom of a Christian people and should be perpetuated among us and observed in a dignified and religious manner.

The people of North Carolina have much for which to be thankful to the "Giver of every good and perfect gift." Although the past year has not brought so great prosperity or the land yielded so abundantly, still our people have enjoyed a proportionate measure of these blessings and have escaped the dire calamities which have befallen some less favored commonwealths.

Therefore, in accordance with the laws of this state, I, Elias Carr, governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby designate and appoint Thursday, the 26th day of November, 1896, as a day to be set apart by our people for public thanksgiving to God for the many blessings vouchsafed to us. To this end let our people assemble in their usual places of worship or around their fireplaces and give thanks in prayer and praise.

On that day let us remember in our prayers and with substantial offerings, the poor and needy, the widow and orphan, the noble charitable institutions of the state and the disabled soldier who more than ever needs, in his declining years, the strong arm of the state and the assistance of her patriotic citizens to protect him from want.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of North Carolina to be affixed. Done at the city of Raleigh, this 12th day of November, in the year of Our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and ninety-six, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundredth and twenty first.

ELIAS CARR,

By the Governor:
S. F. TELFAIR,
Private Sec'y.

The Season Opens.

The bird hunting season opened this morning with a whir-rr-r-r—bang! Johnny had his gun and dog at an early hour this morning and every lover of the sport who could possibly do so, went out today to take a pop at "Bob White." Birds, and in fact all kinds of game, is said to be more plentiful this season than for four years past, and the hunters expect some rare sport.

Beat an Old Man.

Deputy Collector Thompson tells us of a revolting affair which occurred near Tyro yesterday. Tom Ratts, an old man 65 years of age, was set upon by two men—Will Green and Jim Safely by name—and was severely beaten. It is thought that the old man was beaten on account of political differences as the two men who formed the attacking party are Republicans while the old gentleman is a Democrat. His injuries while not fatal are quite serious.—Saturday's Salisbury World.

The Concord Postoffice.

Now that the election is over and we are to have a Republican president, speculation is rife as to who will get the Concord postoffice. No decided steps will be taken by aspirants till after the inauguration, but it is understood that the bee has begun to buzz in the bonnets of several of our Republican friends.

Those most prominently mentioned in this connection are G W Patterson and T C Stricker. However, the present incumbent has almost two years yet to serve, unless removed, which is highly improbable, as he has given satisfaction in every particular, and no charges of partisanship can be made.

The Phrenological Journal says: "Many of the fools think they can beat the lawyer in expounding the law; one half think they can beat the doctor healing the sick; two thirds of them think they can beat the minister preaching the Gospel, and all of them know they can beat the editor in making a newspaper."
