An Elijah Was Fed.
 Last week something happened in a certain neighborhood here that has caused a great deal of talk. A lady who had been sick for several weeks had been constantly expressing a wish for a partridge. About 10 o'clock one morning a thump was heard against the front door, and on going out on the porch a partridge was found fluttering, having broken its neck as it flew against the door. The woman firmly believes that the Lord sent her the bird. And why not?—High Point Enterprise.

Seems as if all the things we like disagree with us, and all the things we don't like, agree with us. Dyspepsia lurks in most of the good we eat, and indigestion follows the gratification of appetite. Of course, it isn't Nature's fault. Nature does the best she can, and if a man will only help her a little bit at the right time, he may eat what he likes and as much as he likes. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are for people who are troubled with indigestion. Particularly for those in whom it manifests itself in the form of constipation. They effect a permanent cure. You need take them regularly only a little while. After that, use them occasionally when you need them—when you have eaten anything that disagrees with you. They may be taken just as freely as you would take water or any other necessity of life. Once used they are always in favor.

Now, Ain't You Talking!
 The Charlotte Observer puts it this way: "The Raleigh Caucasian, of which United States Senator Butler is president, and the Rev. Hallelujah Air, State Auditor-elect, editor and secretary, has fallen into the hands of the sheriff because it couldn't pay a judgment of $191 34, the amount it owed for the paper it has recently been printed on. The Caucasian is the paper which we recently heard about having such a phenomenally large and paying subscription list. If it ever does get started again, what a field lies before its editor in the way of attributing its present misfortune to the defeat of Bryan."

A STUPENDOUS COMBINE.

The Great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers Enormous Shows United.
 (From the New York World, November 26, 1895)

Mr. J. A. Bailey, sole owner of the 'Adam Forepaugh Shows,' has just arranged with Messrs. Eppraim, Lewis and Peter Sells, by which the show owned by the latter and known as 'Sells Brothers Enormous Railroad Shows' is consolidated with the Forepaugh Show, thus making the new show one of the largest and most powerful in the world. The combination thus effected will have great influence upon every other show in the country, except for the Barnum & Bailey 'Greatest Show on Earth,' owned solely by J. A. Bailey, and the Buffalo Bill Wild West Show, in which Mr. Bailey has a joint interest. Under the new arrangement all the cages, ears, and the menageries, material, and paraphernalia of the Forepaugh Show will now be added to the already big show of the Sells Brothers."

All the parties to the unprecedented and formidable amusement alliance—the absolute genuineness of which is conclusively established by the above extract and similar comments by the other great dailies—unite in declaring that its immediate and governing purpose is to give their patrons more for the money than has ever before been attempted in the show business, and this evidently will be done. Separately, as the great majority of our readers well know, the Adam Forepaugh show and that of the Sells Brothers has each for many years held an enviable position of first class and popular prominence and success. Either has, time and again demonstrated itself possessed of ample material to make a good deal more than a "Roman holiday," and if united they cannot establish a regular rouser and a world-beater, all the rare wild beasts combined have lost their attractiveness, the hypnotic and hilarious influence of all the greatest arena artists and clowns is an exploded farce, and the possibilities of unlimited capital a beggar's dream. Otherwise, the result must be a most extraordinary and sensational success from every standpoint, and such it will doubtless prove in Charlotte on Saturday, Nov. 21, when the new combination of America's greatest shows makes its first appearance in this vicinity. Each has always attracted and well deserved big patronage, and the pull of the two united should draw tremendously from both far and near.

Free Pills.
