SHORT LOCALS.

Fish and oysters tomorrow at C Wagoners.

Remember the Mite Meeting tonight at Mrs. R A Brown's.

The forecast reads: "Fair and decidedly colder. Fair tonight and tomorrow."

There were 202 bales of cotton on the market today and the highest price paid was about 7 cents.

Salisbury and Guilford College football teams will play on Thanksgiving day at Salisbury.

Two hundred and eighty bushels of mountain apples, in wagons, were on the market this morning.

Mr. H McNamara came in from Mecklenburg late Thursday evening and spent the night with the family in this city.

The veranda in the front of the new club rooms is being built. It will add much to the already handsome appearance of the building.

Mr. M L Sherrill, who was married on the 13th of October, is conducting a successful writing school at Cannonville, having enrolled forty or more scholars.

The Mooresville Record met with an accident to its press and consequently had to print this week's issue of its paper on the job press, necessarily making it small in size but none the less newswy.

Cheap rates to Charlotte and a circus for attraction will take a large number from the city tomorrow. Some people cry "hard times" but never get too short to miss a circus or an excursion.

The new military commander of Madagascar began his regime by ordering the shooting of Rainandriampandry and Ratsimanaga. Shooting seems a mild penalty for two such names.

Our goods are on display. Look at them, examine them, price them. It will cost you nothing. We cordially invite you and shall be disappointed if you don't come.
 A. J. & J. F. YORKE.

Mr. Jefferson Crowell, of New London, father of Lawyer J L Crowell, spent Thursday night in the city at the latter's home. Mr. Crowell was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Minnie Crowell, grand-daughter, Miss Lizzie Crowell, and grandsons Willie Crowell and Carley Greely. Mr. Crowell brought his cotton to this market.

Don't forget C B Wagoner when you want oysters and fish. Leave an order with him tonight.

Mrs. E M Honeycutt and children, of Locust, Stanly county, spent Thursday night in the city with Mr. E M Honeycutt, husband and father, who clerks at the Bennett Hardware store.

Stanly Enterprise: The cotton mill is being finished and the machinery will be on the floor ere a few more weeks and when the first of the year comes business in Albemarle will move to the tune of a factory spindle.

Prof. Carl S Geartner, of the Charlotte conservatory of music was in the city Thursday arranging for a concert to be given by his excellent company. The exact time has not been decided upon, but their visit will be at an early date.

A special from Ashboro to the Charlotte Observer says: "Mr. Walter Davis who lives in West Ashboro is the father of twin boys, their feet being joined together. He gave them the names of McKinley and Hobart."

"Prepare for the worst, but hope for the best," says the old proverb. Hope for health, but be prepared for colds, coughs, croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, or any other throat or lung difficulty by having Ayer's Cherry Pectoral always at hand. It is prompt to act, sure to cure.

Obe Davis, the outlaw, whose depredations in Davidson and adjoining counties are familiar to the people of this section of the State, and who has been in hiding for two years or more, gave himself up to the authorities Thursday. Davis was a distiller, blockader and barn burner, and terrorized his entire neighborhood.

An English admiral, says: "It is true, the life-saving service of America is not equaled anywhere in the world." It is also true that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saves, annually, thousands of lives. Invaluable in sudden colds, throat and lung troubles.

Miss Anna Shaw asks women to assert their independence and complains that wives sometimes cannot get their legally designated shares of husbands' estates. Here enters the main question of woman's rights. Can woman assert and independence and maintain it? When she does, there can be no claim on husbands' estates. If she cannot, then men must go on fighting the battles and protecting the women and children.

 J. F. HURLEY.

Bad dreams distress the man whose digestion is out of order. Constipation creates more dreams than are in the infernal regions. People who are troubled with constipation sleep badly and restlessly. Sometimes they cannot sleep at all, and when they do sleep, the dreams come. It doesn't take so very long to wear a man out with that sort of thing. He gets up in the morning feeling worse than he did when he went to bed. He is listless and without energy. The chances are he is dizzy, has "heartburn," palpitation, sees black spots before his eyes, has headache and is bilious. What nonsense it is to let a condition of that sort continue. Nine-tenths of all the sickness in the world comes from constipation and neglect of it. It is a simple thing to cure if you go about it right. It's a bad thing and a serious thing if you don't take the right medicine. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are designed for the cure of constipation. The "Pellets" are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One is a laxative, two a mild cathartic. Everybody who has ever used them has a good word for them. They have prevented more serious illness than any other remedy ever sold. Druggists sell them, and an honest druggist will not try to sell you something else.

Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advice is the greatest family doctor book ever published. It explains human physiology and the laws of life and health in plain yet scientific language. It has had a tremendous sale, 600,000 copies at $1.50 each, bound in cloth. The present free edition is in strong manilla paper covers. A copy will be absolutely given away to anyone who sends 21 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, No. 667 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

A doctor in Jersey City, wishing to restore the personable appearance of a boy who had gotten one eye ruined and even part of the lid lost, succeeded in grafting on the necessary amount of skin, which he took from the boy's leg. It was a triumph of modern surgery, but the strange part of it is that when the boy is struck on the scar on the leg pain is felt on the grafted part of the eyelid.

Your attention is called to the announcement of Mr. Luther M Hartsell, who has come to this city to practice law and whose shingle will be found at the head of the stairs over the Morris hardware store, opposite the court house. Mr. Hartsell is a clever young Cabarrus gentleman and we bespeak for him a brilliant career. Concord is to be congratulated in securing him as an addition to her excellent list of legal advisers.

WHERE DID YOU GET That Pretty Dress?

It certainly is beautiful, and My! What a fit.

I bought this from Gibson & Morrison. They always keep a full line of fashionable and cheap dress goods, and they have Butterick's Patterns, which you will find the most stylish and easiest to fit. I always use these patterns. Isn't my cape pretty, too? Look what splendid material, and the very latest style! They get new wraps every few days.

And don't forget their shoes. Mine are so much admired and make my foot look so "swell" and as for cheapness and wear they are the best. Take my advice and get your children shoes there. They have them all sizes and they will last till you are tired of them. In fact you will find anything they sell you good and cheap. Go to see them and you will believe me. Fashion sheets free.
