STORES TO CLOSE.

No Business Will Be Done Here Next Thursday—We Will All Close.

As is the usual custom with our business men, all the stores, dry goods, groceries, etc., will close their places of business on Thursday next, Thanksgiving Day. No cotton will be bought on that day. A petition has been signed by all the merchants agreeing to close up on that day.

THE DAILY STANDARD will also take a holiday. Prepare yourself accordingly.

Forest Hill News.

Our sick are all improving today, so we are informed.

Mr. and Mrs. G P Ross, of Albemarle, spent several days with Mr. John Ballard this week. They returned home today.

Rabbit hunting and bird shooting seem to be the favorite sport with our boys now.

Mr. J S Burleyson, of Big Lick, Stanly county, was here Thursday and Friday. He says he will teach the Big Lick free school this year.

We were pleased to have a call from Mr. Henry Troutman, of New London, Friday.

Mr. G F Wilson, who came up from Montgomery county Thursday, went to Charlotte Friday on his bicycle.

The farmers say that mountain apples are more plentiful than they have been for several years past.

Quite a number of our citizens went to Charlotte last night, among whom we mention Messrs. Marshal Mabrey, R F Coble, J E Wilson, George Mills, and J A Mann.

Mr. Daniel Hatley returned home yesterday, after spending a day or two visiting relatives here.

On last Sunday evening about 7 o'clock a number of our citizens, including your correspondent, saw a beautiful aerolite. It descended from the heavens in an angling line, then sailed almost horizontally towards the North for about sixty degrees, then separated itself into thousands of small sparks resembling a sky rocket.

Mr. John Gray is suffering very severely with rheumatism.

Mr. Sam Carter returned from the mountains yesterday. He left this morning for Stanly and Montgomery counties.

There will be no preaching in the Methodist church here tomorrow morning or night, Rev. Smith being gone to conference.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate their bowels, and children will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, aiding strength and giving to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the function. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzer's Drug Store.

It Would Improve 'Tater and 'Possum, Both.

The sweet potato of our later epoch is a miserable substitute for the succulent, golden, sugar-sweating tuber that delighted our fathers and made 'possum worth preserving.—Augusta Chronicle.

You say well. The sweet potato has not kept up with the 'possum. It has degenerated. It has become, for the most part, a soggy fraud, nearly tasteless or flavored faintly with paint and saffron tea. It ought to be grafted on the 'possum. It needs new blood, and as for the flavor, the 'possum has a flavor almost too wealthy for the timid. A regular plutocratic flavor. Graft the 'possum on the sweet potato, and thereby not only rescue the latter, but provide for the growth of the two delicacies together, and save time in cooking and serving.—New York Sun.

The Drama Friday Night.

"Little Ruby," or "Home Jewels," the drama rendered by the dramatic club of Mt. Pleasant, Friday night, was a decided success. About twenty-five dollars was realized for the brass band of that place. A number of young gentlemen of the city were present, all of whom praise the participants very highly for the excellent manner in which they acquitted themselves. The cast was composed of the following young ladies and gentlemen:

Mr. Goldworth—Wilburn Tucker. Rupert Levick—Walter M Cook. Walter Armstrong—Ralph W Barrier.

Abel Swift (an hostler)—Horace Barrier.

Mr. Maxwell, (real estate broker)—Charles G Lentz.

Lilly Goldworth (Mr. Goldworth's wife) Miss Blanche McAllister.

Laura, Goldworth's daughter—Miss Mabel Barrier.

Little Ruby—Miss Maggie McAllister.

Mrs. Walton—Miss Winona Cook. Mrs. Sackett—Miss Ella Lentz.

Mary (servant)—Miss Effie Misenheimer.

Music for the occasion was furnished by the Mt. Pleasant Cornet Band.

Had Never "Rid" on the Train.

Messrs George F and Sidney Barnhardt, of No. 9 township, went over to Charlotte to Forepaugh and Sells Brothers circus and were accompanied by three men who had never "rid" on a train. They are all Cabarrus citizens and have been to Charlotte and other North Carolina towns frequently, but had always preferred the old mode of traveling by private conveyance. The parties referred to are Messrs. R V Barnhardt, John L McAnulty and Duke Vanderburg, all of whom are past the average age of man.

Rehabilitated in Time.

The equipments for the Cabarrus Light Infantry, the new military organization, has arrived and are in the hands of the company. The boys are quite proud of their outfit and there is every assurance that enthusiasm will never die out again.

The new company was organized and fitted up just in time to get in shape to scrap with Spain, now that war is imminent.

Most Excellent Treat For Monday Night.

Do not miss the Concert by the Charlotte Conservatory of Music Concert Company. It will assuredly be the greatest musical event in the history of our town. The vocal talent is of the highest order, Miss Bonnie E. Oates being prima donna. Professor O S Gaertner will be heard on his Cello, that most symphonious of all instruments. Mr. E Lewis Mansfield, of London, England, pianist and Mr. Far A Perre, Violinist, are both Artists of the highest order. The combination on the whole is the strongest which has ever been heard in Concord and their appearance here will be an event in the musical history of Concord no soon to be forgotten. The public should patronize the concert most liberally. The cost of reserved seats is fifty cents and seats are on sale at Gibson's Drug Store.

ASK the recovered dyspeptics, bilious sufferers, victims of fever and ague, the mercurial diseased patient, how they recovered health, cheerful spirits and good appetite; they will tell you by taking SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.

The Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the World!

For DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, Jaundice, Biliousness, SICK HEADACHE, Colic, Depression of Spirits, SOUR STOMACH, Heartburn, etc. This unrivaled remedy is warranted not to contain a single particle of Mercury, or any mineral substance, but is containing those Southern Roots and Herbs which an all-wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver Diseases most prevail. It will cure all Diseases caused by Derangement of the Liver and Bowels.

The SYMPTOMS of Liver Complaint are a bitter or bad taste in the mouth; Pain in the Back, Sides or Joints, often mistaken for Rheumatism; Sour Stomach; Loss of Appetite; Bowels alternately constive and lax; Headache; Loss of Memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; Debility; Low Spirits; a thick, yellow appearance of the Skin and Eyes; a dry Cough, often mistaken for Consumption.

Sometimes many of these symptoms attend the disease, at others very few; but the LIVER, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not Regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensue.

The following highly-esteemed persons attest to the virtues of SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR: Gen. W. S. Holt, Pres. Ga. S. W. R. R. Co.; Rev. J. R. Felder, Perry, Ga.; Col. E. K. Sparks, Albany, Ga.; C. Masterson, Esq., Sheriff Bibb Co., Ga.; J. A. Butts, Bainbridge, Ga.; Rev. J. W. Burke, Macon, Ga.; Virgil Powers, Supt. Ga. S. W. R. R.; Hon. Alexander H. Stephens. We have tested its virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. We have tried forty other remedies before Simmons' Liver Regulator, and none of them gave us more than temporary relief; the Regulator not only relieved, but cured us.—Ed.
