Loose clothes and downy cushions bring only a negative sort of comfort to the woman who is suffering with some disease or derangement of the organs distinctly feminine. Some clothes and some positions make the pain and the discomfort seem less. Perhaps the nerves are most affected and this in turn disturbs the digestion. Nothing will ever completely relieve but a radical cure. The start of so-called "female complaints" may be a very slight thing indeed. It may be that in the beginning some small hygienic measures would stop the trouble. Certainly at this time, a little bit of the right medicine would stop it. When the trouble becomes worse, it is harder to cure, but still it can be cured. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will positively cure any trouble of this character. It may be absolutely relied upon. It affords lasting relief to a woman whose natural modesty has kept her from consulting a physician.

Send 21 cents in one cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

McClellan and Lee.
 Offenses of a certain kind may be so handsomely atoned for as to leave the offended almost glad to have been the victim of them. A good example of this is found in a story reported by General McClellan.

"It was near the City of Mexico during the Mexican war," said General McClellan, "that I first met my future great opposing commander. I was a lieutenant of engineers, and Lee was a major of engineers, and a favorite on the staff of General Winfield Scott. I was walking alone across a field one day, when I saw General Scott and his staff approaching on horse back. As the party drew near, Major Lee reined up his horse, and address me in an angry tone, said:

"Lieutenant, don't you know you are disobeying orders? What is your name?"

"I told him my name was McClellan, and that I did not know I was disobeying orders.

"All officers have been told to remain in their quarters and await orders!" he exclaimed, still appearing very angry.

"I replied that no such order had reached me, and he then peremptorily ordered me back to my quarters, and hastened away to join General Scott and the rest of the staff, who had not stopped.

"I returned across the field to my quarters, feeling much injured, for I had not knowingly committed any breach of discipline. I complained to my fellow-officers of Major Lee's treatment of me. Scarcely had I finished my story when I was told that there was an officer outside who wished to see me, and I was greatly surprised to find Major Lee seated there upon his horse. He saluted, and I returned the salute.

"Lieutenant McClellan," said he, "I fear that in our meeting just now I was discourteous in tone or manner, and I have come to express to you the regret which, under the circumstances, a gentleman should."

"I assured him that it was all right, and with a salute and a low bow, I feelingly returned, he rode away, leaving me lost in admiration of a superior officer who could so promptly and generously repair an error."

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her recovery, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery saved her life. Mr. Thomas Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else then bought a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful it is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Fetzler's Drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.
