Largest Sale of Land Ever Made in North Carolina—Sold By Order of Court.

RALPHIGH, Nov. 21.—Robert T. Gray, commissioner, under order of court, sold here today, 167,000 acres of land in Dare county.

A Mean and Dastardly Act.

One of the most debased acts of vandalism we ever heard of occurred Monday night at Guilford Battle Ground. Some miserable wretch who deserves hanging played havoc with the beautiful monuments out there, breaking the shaft erected over the grave of several unknown soldiers and badly mutilated the Daves, Sumner and other monuments, besides defacing the canopies over the springs and exhibiting other signs of general cussedness. We sincerely hope that the guilty party may be apprehended and punished. No motive is known for such an act.—Greensboro Patriot.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

That is good news that the great steel nail trust is about to go to pieces and let the price down to a normal. But who would have thought that the advance agent of prosperity was going to bring us such results. If the downfall of trusts and combinations is to come along with our business boom, it is glory enough for the triumphant and comfort to the defeated.
