SWORN IN.

THE NEW COUNTY OFFICERS
TAKE THE OATH TODAY.

W. H. Blume Elected Chairman of the Board of Commissioners—M. H.
H. Caldwell Attorney—The Bonds
Being Aced Upon.

At 10 o'clock this morning the recently elected county commissioners appeared before Clerk of the Court J C Gibson and took the oath of office.

The members of the new board are W H Blume, E P Deal and J L Stafford. Organization was effected by electing W H Blume, chairman of the board. M H H Caldwell was made attorney for the ensuing year.

The examination of bonds was the first business before the board, and they went to work at once.

Bond of J C Gibson, clerk of the court, was the first one presented. It was simply a renewal of the old one, and was accepted by the commissioners.

The bond of W M Weddington, Register of Deeds, is all O. K., and will be accepted this evening.

The sheriff is required to give three separate bonds—amounting in all to $36,000, the same having been reduced by the last Legislature from $60,000. Sheriff Buchanan's bondsmen are: G W Patterson, W R Kindly, Lawrence Klutz, S S McWhirter, J R White, Geo. Moose, J H W Eady, I J Ury, A W Moose, G C Goodman, M J Corl, A D Misenheimer and W C Coleman.

This list includes some of Cabarrus county's most substantial business men, and there is no question but that it will be accepted.

Mr. C W Swink, the new treasurer, is required to give a bond for $32,000, several thousand less than formerly. The names of some of the wealthiest men in the county appear on this paper. They are: D F Cannon, J W Cannon, John C Wadeworth, W J Swink and B F Rogers.

The two latter bonds had not been acted on up to the hour of adjournment for dinner, but there is no question but that they will be accepted.

After the county officers are sworn in the board will proceed to elect superintendents for the county home and the chain-gang. There are a number of applicants for these places, and it cannot be said who will be the fortunate one.

The commissioners have considerable business before them, and will probably be in session again tomorrow.

The Facts That Doctors frequently advise change of air and climate to those suffering from catarrh is proof that catarrh is a local and climatic disease. Therefore, unless you can leave home and business, you should use Ely's Cream Balm. Applied directly to the seat of the disease, it effects instant relief and a satisfactory cure after short continuance. No mercury nor injurious drug is contained in the Balm.

THE SHOW.

Buckler Played to a Small House Saturday Night.

Only a small crowd greeted the Buckler Company Saturday night. This company seems to have struck a hard run of luck. It is stated that in Salisbury they did not make expenses, and they did little more here. At the popular prices for which they show, they really deserved better patronage than they got. The play Saturday night, "Still Waters Run Deep," was very light, and Mr. Buckler would do well to drop it from his repertoire. Though the parts were very well taken, with one or two exceptions, there was no plot to the play.

Messrs. Buckler and Morrison were good in their characters. Morrison is the better actor of the two, however, and seems to be out of his class.

DAVENPORT WILL NOT COME.

The May Davenport Company, which was billed to show here next Friday night, will not come to this city. The manager of Armory Hall stated to a STANDARD man yesterday that before he knew the true character of the show he had let the hall to them, but that the contract would be abrogated, and he wrote to the manager of the company yesterday to that effect. The Davenport aggregation were in Greensboro Friday night, and the Record has this to say of the performance:

"The show is not only of an extremely low caste and vulgar, but with no merit in it whatever, with not an actor or actress, even of ordinary ability, in the company. Numbers of the audience left all during the performance and a more disgusted crowd had never been seen in Greensboro. Manager Bogart says he wrote to all the near-by towns, telling of the character of the show, and if the opera house managers want to play them, all right. Very little about the company was known here until it came, otherwise the crowd would have been smaller than it was."

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yields to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzer's Drug Store.

THAT DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

The Particulars as Learned at High Point.

THE STANDARD published Saturday an account of the double killing in Randolph county, but the full details could not be obtained at that time. The High Point correspondent of the Charlotte Observer gives the particulars as follows, in Sunday's paper:

News was received here Saturday of the killing of ex-Sheriff Moffit, of Randolph county, a special deputy revenue collector, by a moonshiner by the name of Lee Turner, who was killed also.

Friday morning Sheriff Moffitt left Asheboro in company with two assistants, Messrs. T J Hoover and Lee Freeman. They went in the direction of Troy. Thirty-five miles below Asheboro they encountered Turner's illicit distillery. They cut the still to pieces and then went to Turner's house to search for the whiskey. Moffit was met at the door by Turner, who refused him admission. Moffit told Turner that he must search the house. Turner told him that he would not allow it. Moffit advanced, both he and Turner drawing their pistols, and firing simultaneously, killing each other.

Another account is that Moffitt and his assistants, after cutting up the still, arrested Turner, and he (Turner) asked permission to go into the house after his overcoat. Permission was given, and when he returned he brought his gun, shooting Sheriff Moffit down without warning. Then, in the promiscuous firing Turner was killed.

Sheriff Moffit was one of the best citizens of Randolph county and his death is greatly deplored by all.
