DRY & WADSWORTH.

Dry & Wadsworth, the leading furniture men of this section of the State, are successors to the firm of Cannons, Fetzler & Bell, and have, for the past fourteen months, accommodated an immense trade in this city, county and neighboring counties. They have received orders from the most remote regions of the State for furniture, so well is their business known and advertised. They carry a $12,000 stock, and do business to the tune of $35,000 per annum. They also handle undertakers' supplies in large quantities, from the cheapest plain coffin to the most elaborate steel and metallic caskets. Messrs. A. E. Lentz and W. L. Bell are up-to-date in the embalming department and are known to an appreciative public for their promptness and efficiency when called upon. The firm is enjoying a specially favored custom, which is due to the manner in which the business of the concern is conducted. They are obliging to their installment patrons also, who would be deprived of many servicable pieces of furniture were it not for the easy terms which this firm allows them. Their business is of great proportions and is one of the most necessary establishments Concord has.

BALTIMORE CLOTHING HOUSE.

J. Shapperio opened up a year ago, and has done a good business all alone. He carries in stock a full line of clothing, shoes, hats, gents furnishings, sporting goods, and musical instruments to the amount of $5,000. The firm employs three salesmen. Mr. Shapperio is closing out his stock at a very low figure in order to go exclusively into the wholesale business. He reports increased receipts every month, having built up a good and reliable trade on a strictly cash basis.

PATTERSON'S.

This is the large wholesale and retail grocery and commission house of Concord, with G. W. Patterson as proprietor, Geo. L. Patterson as manager and a corps of efficient salesmen. This is one of our city's oldest established houses, and its patronage has grown to immense proportions, having kept pace with the growing demands of our city.

DOVE & BOST.

J. Dove and D. Luther Bost are the members of this firm. They handle dry goods, shoes, hats, glassware, crockery and groceries. Their specialty however, is fancy groceries, fruits, etc. Everything here is kept neat as a parlor. They have a large and constantly increasing patronage, in both town and county, employing three salesmen and running a free delivery to all parts of the city, and the jingle of the bells of their delivery wagon can be heard at any time during the day.

A. L. SAPPENFIELD

If there is anybody in town who don't know and like "Doc" Sappenfield he must have come in on the last train, for he has been doing business at the "same old stand" for fourteen years, and a thriving business, too. You never hear "Doc" croaking about trade being dull, for he keeps his three salesmen hustling night and day filling orders. He has in stock some general merchandise, but his strong point is groceries, staple and fancy. Sappenfield has probably shipped more "molly cotton tails" this season than all the other dealers combined.

LITTLE & CORNELIUS.

This is another of the many new firms established here during the past year, and one of the most successful of the whole lot. They have only been with us half a year, but they haven't let any flies light on them in that time, and they have succeeded in building up a first-rate custom in staple and fancy groceries. Mr. Cornelius came from Mooresville, Mr. Little from Biltmore. Both are young men, steady, energetic and progressive, and by close attention to their patrons' wants, they continue to make new friends and customers every day.

STRICKER & SON.

T. O. Stricker and son, Louis R., do a strictly cash business in plain and fancy groceries. They are very modest and don't attempt to put on any frills. They have a satisfactory trade, and by paying cash for their goods, they can and do sell at rock-bottom figures. Mr. Stricker is an old-timer here and his friends are legion.

C. B. WAGONER

Carries a $1,200 stock of staple and fancy groceries, and has no reason to complain of lack of custom. His sales will aggregate $5,000 a year, and are increasing daily. Mr. Wagoner is up to date in everything, and is one of Concord's most popular young business men and counts his friends by the number of his acquaintances.

H. G. RITZ.

"Henry," as every one calls him, is one of the boys. He has a neat little store and a large stock—in fact he has goods to burn, and enough of them to supply the town, as long as the good city fathers will allow the boys to shoot fireworks. But this is not all he's got, for he carries a full line of groceries, canned goods and confections. He also runs a first class bakery, and has always on hand the best of bread, cakes, pies, etc.

JOHN C. SMITH.

John has been here just one year, and has done a good business from the opening day. He started with a small stock, but has been steadily adding to it until he now has his shelves full to overflowing and increased custom has necessitated the employment recently of a delivery clerk. John has all the qualities of a successful merchant in his make-up.

ED. HILL.

Mr. Hill carries a nice line of plain and fancy groceries, which has been supplemented during the holidays with a large stock of fireworks and Christmas novelties. He is a popular young man with all classes, and has a thriving patronage.

LIPPARD & BARRIER.

These gentlemen are well known to the trade and need no encomiums from us. They carry a full line of dry goods, shoes, hats, and heavy groceries. Both are popular and command the confidence of all who know them. This firm has been in business a number of years and has a well established and reliable trade.

WARREN C. COLEMAN.

Warren has been in business here for many years, and has accumulated an independent fortune by his close attention to business, and is classed among the wealthiest colored men of the South. He carries a complete stock of groceries, and has a custom which can always be depended on.

BOLD ROBBERY.

Negro Holds Up Zeke Brown in Salisbury and Takes His Purse.

The Salisbury World contains the following account of a bold robbery in that place Thursday evening:

One of the boldest robberies that has ever occurred here, happened yesterday evening about 6:30 o'clock.

Old man Zeke Brown, who runs a restaurant on Council street, went to Moyle's bar at about the hour mentioned and got a drink. He took the money in payment for it from a purse and placed the purse in his upper coat pocket.

Tom Shedreck, one of the most dangerous negroes in the community, watched him and followed him out of the bar. When Brown had reached the corner of Main and Council streets, in front of G. W. Scott's, Shedreck stepped up behind him, and catching him in the throat, brought him to his knees. In an instant Shedreck had run his hands in Brown's pocket and taken the purse. Shedreck was captured, and is now in jail.

ASK the recovered dyspeptics, bilious sufferers, victims of fever and ague, the mercurial diseased patient, how they recovered health, cheerful spirits and good appetite; they will tell you by taking SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR.

The Cheapest, Purest and Best Family Medicine in the World!

For DYSPEPSIA, CONSTIPATION, Jaundice, Bilious attacks, SICK HEADACHE, Colic, Depression of Spirits, SOUR STOMACH, Heartburn, etc. This unrivaled remedy is warranted not to contain a single particle of MERCURY, or any mineral substance, but is containing those Southern Roots and Herbs which an all-wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver Diseases most prevail. It will cure all Diseases caused by Derangement of the Liver and Bowels.

The SYMPTOMS of Liver Complaint are a bitter or bad taste in the mouth; Pain in the Back, Sides or Joints, often mistaken for Rheumatism; Sour Stomach; Loss of Appetite; Bowels alternately constive and lax; Headache; Loss of Memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; Debility; Low Spirits; a thick, yellow appearance of the Skin and Eyes; a dry Cough, often mistaken for Consumption.

Sometimes many of these symptoms attend the disease, at others very few; but the LIVER, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time, great suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensue.

The following highly-esteemed persons attest to the virtues of SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR: Gen. W. S. Holt, Pres. Ga. S. W. R. R. Co.; Rev. J. R. Felder, Perry, Ga.; Col. E. K. Sparks, Albany, Ga.; C. Masterson, Esq. Sheriff Bibb Co., Ga.; J. A. Butts, Bainbridge, Ga.; Rev. J. W. Burke, Macon, Ga.; Virgil Powers, Supt. Ga. S. W. R. R.; Hon. Alexander H. Stephens.

We have tested its virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. We have tried forty other remedies before Simmons' Liver Regulator, and none of them gave us more than temporary relief; the Regulator not only relieved, but cured us.—Ed.
