HOUSE.

At 11 o'clock the House met, Rev. Dr. Dixon, of Cleveland, offering prayer.

The following bills were introduced:

Mr. Reynolds—To give Montgomery another term of Superior Court.

Mr. Dixon of Cleveland—To establish the North Carolina Reform School.

Mr. Sutton of Cumberland—To require foreign corporations doing business in this State to take out license; to repeal the stock law for certain parts of Cumberland.

Mr. Petree—To make guardians, administrators and executors who misappropriate funds liable for embezzlement.

Mr. Hancock—To incorporate the mutual Aid Banking Company of Newbern; to incorporate grand lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias of North Carolina.

Mr. Doskery—To incorporate the town of Hamlet.

Dr. Dixon's bill in regard to the reform school provides for the discipline, training and education of youthful criminals, provides for a $10,000 appropriation for each race for the first two years; provides for the purchase of from 300 to 600 acres of land for farm purposes.

There was some discussion of the resolution of Mr. Sutton, of Cumberland, providing that each Monday should be the day for the enrollment of bills, but it was amended so as to permit the presiding officer of each branch of the Legislature to ratify any bill at any time. It also requires that the enrolling clerk shall keep completely up with his work.

A resolution to pay the expenses of the Arrington committee came up, with an unfavorable report, and was tabled by a unanimous vote. (It proposed to pay "Hoola Boom" Campbell and also T R Purnell, the committee's attorney). Resolution to pay Purnell $300 for attorney's and clerk's salary was also tabled.

A resolution was adopted raising a joint committee to consider the matter of reducing salaries to conform to the decline in the prices of farm products.

Bills passed incorporating the Cabarrus Savings Bank at Concord, with $50,000 capital stock; the directors to be personally responsible for all sums due depositors. The latter provision was an amendment offered by Mr. Lusk and adopted. Mr. McKenzie lodged a motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill as amended passed, remarking that the amendment was a "sweeper." The vote was later considered.

On leave a number of bills were introduced as follows:

Mr. Currie—To allow Robeson to levy a special tax to hire out the chain gang and to abolish the criminal court of Robeson.

Mr. Dixon of Greene—To repeal the law forbidding the re-marriage of divorced persons; actions for divorce under this act not to be brought later than March 31, 1897.

Mr. Sutton, of New Hanover, offered a resolution to print 10,000 copies of Governor Russell's inaugural. A lively debate ensued. The resolution was referred to the finance committee.

The House decided to adjourn at 10 o'clock Saturday morning until 4 p. m. Monday, in order to allow time for the thorough cleaning of the hall. It was stated that 20 members are sick and that the hall of the House is a "grippe laboratory."

CONCERNING A CHECK.

An Original Check Turns Up After Duplicate Had Been Cashied.

The Greensboro Record of Tuesday last has the following to say concerning a check that had become misplaced. Mr. R A Brown was the rightful owner, but had received a duplicate:

"Among the cases 'on tap' yesterday in the J. P. courts was one against 'Doc' Stinson, for passing a check which had been duplicated.

The facts as gathered were that some time ago a man named R A Brown, living at Concord, was in the habit of selling cotton seed to a firm in Charlotte and drawing at the time of each shipment for a portion of the money. On one of these occasions he drew about $100, there being a balance after the sale of about $14. Brown waited for this remittance for some time, but as it did not come, he wrote the house, when he received a reply to the effect that a check covering the amount had been sent some time previous. As Brown had never received it he wrote the house, when, in due course of time, a duplicate check was sent him, which he received and had cashed.

This was the last heard of the matter until quite recently, when the original check turned up here in Greensboro in the hands of Stinson, who passed it on Bloomfield, who runs a store on South Elm, in payment, or part payment, for a bill of goods.

Stinson, in his own behalf, said the check was given him by another man, whose name we do not remember, and this is no doubt true, but as he was not present in court and could not be found—in fact Stinson does not know where he lives—the defendant was in for it and was held for court.

Stinson lives near town and has been in several shady transactions—once "concerning of a cow" which he brought here and sold for beef, the allegation being that the animal had been found dead in a ditch. All the same some of us partook of a hunk of that cow, for it was sold on the market. Our recollection is that Stinson skipped and was away for some time, but was finally caught and jailed. The matter was fixed up in some way and Stinson was turned loose.

Mr. Brown told a STANDARD reporter that how the man got hold of the check was a mystery he can't understand. Mr. Brown will attend Guilford court when Stinson's trial comes up.
