THE SUPERIOR COURT.

Judge Starbuck Presides With Dignity—The Session Organized and Grand Jurors Drawn.

January term of Cabarrus Superior Court convened this (Monday) morning with Judge H. R. Starbuck, of Winston, presiding. In appearance, Judge Starbuck is youthful looking, and sits with becoming dignity at the court's head. The usual Sunday fracas did not occur on East Depot street yesterday, but broke out in Coleburg. The family of Allen Freeman, including Allen himself, became involved in a row and raised quite a stir in that portion of the town sometime during the forenoon.

Allen's mental faculties are blighted and the fight was due to some misunderstanding. No one was seriously hurt. Allen was placed in jail and will be kept there until he is considered not dangerous and his mind is again balanced.

Robert Holshouser Dead.

It will be remembered that in November THE STANDARD published the substance of a telegram to relatives, stating that Robert Holshouser had happened to an accident at Forest City, Ark., in which his legs were lost and receiving bodily injuries.

Mr. R. A. Smith, of Mt. Pleasant, a brother-in-law to Mr. Holshouser, was in town today and informed us that Mr. Holshouser died within a few days after the accident. His remains were taken charge of by his Cabarrus friends there. His numerous acquaintances in Cabarrus will regret to hear of his death.

FLAGMAN BEAVER KILLED.

Run Over By Five Cars in the Train Yard at Greensboro.

Mr. H. A. Beaver, a flagman in the employ of the Southern Railroad Company, was killed yesterday at 12:30 o'clock, in the train yard at Greensboro. He fell from a freight car. Five cars ran over his body and mangled it terribly. The unfortunate man lived in Salisbury, and his body was sent there for interment.

Mr. Beaver had been with the Southern for a number of years past. Last summer he had his skull fractured at the Graham street bridge over the Southern track, in this city. Mr. Harvey Bryan, in passing along there on his bicycle, early one morning, saw a man lying in the railroad cut under the bridge. It proved to be Flagman Beaver. His skull was crushed and he was otherwise badly injured. He was taken to St. Peter's Hospital, and eventually recovered. He was a man of fine physique, weighing over 200 pounds. His wife died about a year ago. He was a hard working man and was held in high esteem by the railroad people.—Charlotte Observer.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yields to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzner's Drug Store.

Military Quarters.

Captain Caldwell and other members of the Cabarrus Light Infantry have decided that the room vacated by the New South Club, over Swink's, is not substantial enough for an Armory, hence they have changed quarters from rooms up stairs to the room in rear of Gibson's drug store, on East Depot street, where they have a good ground floor, plenty of room and altogether the best place in town for military headquarters.

CUBANS ON TOP.

Fierce Fighting Is Going on Very Near the City of Havana—Spanish Massacres Continued.

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—A special cable to the Sun from Havana, says: The war is going on so fiercely around the city of Havana that Gen. Arolas has established his headquarters at Guanabacoa with a force of over 5,000 men besides those already there.

The capital is in constant commotion over the bold attacks made on the suburbs by the insurgents. San Miguel del Padro, a town very near Guanabacoa, and San Francisco de Paula have been burned by the Cubans after severe engagements, in which the Spanish troops were compelled to retire.

Every one here is astounded at all this, and in fear of a raid upon the capital itself. General Weyler refuses to talk on the situation, and in the privacy of his palace refuses to receive any one except the members of his staff and a few personal friends.

Meanwhile, at the town of Guanabacoa, held by the Spaniards, the horrible massacres ordered by Fondeviella continue. Yesterday eight persons were killed in cold blood. With them was a son of the well-known American citizen, Mr. Hayatt, and he saved his life at the last moment only by asserting his nationality. The commander of the detachment which executed the eight Cubans appeared to hesitate about Hayatt. At last the commander said:

"Let him go to avoid complications. It would be a pity to have some diplomatic imbroglio that might stop this nice work."

Henry Yorke's Trial.

The trial of Henry Yorke for the killing of John Steele, at Wallace's store in No. 2, on Christmas, 1895, will come up about Thursday. A special venire of 50 men will be summoned tomorrow from which a jury will be selected.

It is not known at this time when Hood will be tried for killing his friend Honeycutt some time last month. It is thought, however, that his trial will be called immediately after that of Yorke.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamondale, Mich.: We are permitted to make this extract: I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results. Trial bottles free at Fetzner's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.
