WHOLE NO. 1.630

DON'T WANT ANY CHANGE.

Mill Operatives Satisfied With Present Number of Working Hours.

Since another attempt by the Legislature to change the system of the working hours of the mill operatives of North Carolina, making ten hours constitute a days labor the operatives employed in the mills of this city have discussed the matter pretty freely among themselves, and from what we could learn from various ones they are opposed to any change in the hours.

In conversation with a STANDARD reporter, an operative said: "In case the legislature gives us a ten hour system, it means a decrease in wages. The Odell mills work 11½ hours and more than two-thirds of all the immenses production is piece work, and naturally if the hours are lessened, wages will be less, thereby working no benefit financially to the operatives. I have canvassed our men on the subject and find that 90 per cent. of the employees are anxious for the mills to run on the present schedule. If the mills would run only five hours per day, it would not be the owners who would suffer so badly as the employees, for the stockholders would not run at all unless they made satisfactory dividends."

Mr. J. W. Cannon, president of the Cannon Manufacturing company and one the most thrifty mill men in the South says that if the Legislature makes a ten hour law for mill operatives, it will certainly cause a decrease in the already low wages.

Mr. W. R. Odell is of the same opinion as Mr. Cannon, and feels sure that the bill introduced into the legislature will not be carried through.

Already petitions have been circulated among the operatives of the different factories protesting against any changes and from the best available information we are told that the men would rather the hours constituting a day's labor would be left with them to determine, inasmuch as their work is done by the piece.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Cansoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at Fetzler's Drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

The Plans Here.

Mr. J. A. Dempwolf, architect for the Elizabeth College, yesterday sent the remodeled plans to Mr. Chas. Duls, and they are now in the hands of Mr. McAfee, of the new court house. There will be a meeting of the stockholders of the college here on the 11th to put the plans on exhibition and discuss the college affairs.—Charlotte Observer.

Glad to Have Him.

Mr. James F. Pharr and family will arrive here this week from Lawrenceville, Va., to make Concord their permanent home. They will occupy Mrs. Black's residence on North Main street. Mr. Pharr is a son of Mr. Sam Pharr, of this city, and has many relatives and friends here, all of whom are glad to have him with us again.

Karnival Kernals.

The opening Tableaux at the Karnival will be Liberty enlightning the world, representing Horsfords Bread preparations. Around Liberty are seated her four satellites contemplating the merits of Horsfords. Ten colors of calcium light. The next scene is the Druggists Laboratory scene. The fair Druggist mixes chemicals and acids that go off in a big red fire, making an exquisite picture. Then there are others.

See the big show at Gibsons Hill Thursday and Friday nights. Presbyterian Benevolent Society Benefit.

A Correction.

MR. EDITOR—I ask you to correct a statement published in the last issue of THE STANDARD in regard to school district No. 19. These are the facts:

Three boys had a difficulty after leaving school on the way home. The father of one of the boys, who also was one of the committee, reported that his boy had been abused and asked the committee to meet and investigate the matter. We called a meeting, also notifying the parents of the other two boys, to meet with us. During the investigation and before any decision had been arrived at the parents of the boys charged with the offenses ordered their children to go home, which, of course, ended the whole thing. S. W. WHITE.

[THE STANDARD stated this case just as it received it, and we gladly give space for the correction.]

The Convicts in Cabarrus.

The Cabarrus chain gang now has forty convicts wearing the shackles. Twenty were added to the enrollment Saturday. Superintendent Parish tells THE STANDARD that the work on the fill in the Dutch Buffalo bottom, on the Gold Hill road, is now finished and that the road is in excellent condition.

Owing to the large number now on the gang something must be done in the way of accommodating the men with quarters sufficient to keep the convicts under cover. The tent is said to be too small.

Two men were left in jail, being too unwell to go to the gang Saturday.

"BAITED WITH PIE."

That is the Way the Pops Induced Republicans to Labor for the People.

The Caucasian last week was a lively number. The paper says that it protested against "the crime" committed by republicans in the election of Senator and that it will protest two years from now. The paper says:

"Populists may use Republicans for the purpose of furthering the people's interests as was done in the last campaign. And Republican bosses will lend themselves even for a good purpose when they are baited with a little 'pie,' if they can get it in no other way. Yes, Populists will use Republicans for that purpose, but by all the gods of the people's hopes, that is all the use a Populist has for Republicans: and as for the amalgamation business, we have to say in the language of the famous sage and poet:

"We'll be——if Populists and niggers can ever amalgamate in this State and country. Do you hear?"

"If Democrats should ever profit by the conditions that will arise from the incidents of the past few weeks, it will not be by a return of any Populists to the Democratic ranks. Don't get gay, Democrats. Populists have tried you and left you."

"A man once went to a barren place in Texas. He struggled hard with adverse conditions. Finally he became disgusted and determined to leave. Just as he departed he nailed over his old cabin door a board on which was written:

Farewell to the State of Texas,
I bid you a long adieu;
I may emigrate to h——l some day,
But I'll never come back to you."

"Just as the old squatter tried Texas and left it, just so have populists tried the democratic party and left it. The lesson is easy. Same to the Republicans."

We copy the above from the Press Visitor and we simply say that if Mr. Butler is contemplating emigration h——wards he will not be coming this way.

We see also that Mr. Butler in the Caucasian calls Pritchard the "Bastard son of political rape."

Democrats can afford all the thrusts and unkind reflections from that set of "boneys." If they sling such nastiness at their wedded consorts they will say ugly things of us. It does not need to hurt. We remember the source.

There is a wonderful complication in the reports of Cuban affairs and we are tempted to believe nothing and yet we are constrained to believe there is something of an unfriendly nature going on in Queen of the Antilles.
