Death of Harvey A. Deal.
 Dr Harvey A Deal, who was for a long time connected with the newspaper business in Charlotte, died last Friday night at his home in Greenville, S. C. His body was buried there yesterday. Mr. Deal was about 45 years of age and leaves a wife and five children. He was a brother-in-law of Mr. Chas. Robertson, of the police force.
 Mr. Deal was born near Enochville, in Rowan county, and came to Charlotte about 1880, taking a place in the business office of the Observer, then under the management of the late Col. Chas. R Jones. He continued with the Observer until it was merged into the Chronicle in 1888, and was with that paper for a few months, when he went to Columbia, S. C. There he was connected with the Columbia Register, and was appointed chairman of the Columbia board of control of the State dispensary. Two years ago Mr. Deal moved to Greenville, and was connected with the Baptist Courier, published at that place. He was a man of generous impulses and of genial disposition. He had many friends in Charlotte, who will regret to learn of his death, and whose sympathies will be extended to his bereaved wife and her children.—Charlotte Observer.
 [Mr. Deal was well known in Concord and Cabarrus, having a number of relatives in this county and in Rowan, who will be pained to hear of his death.]

When they put a man in jail, he cannot follow his natural inclinations. He cannot eat what he wants to—he is limited to a very frugal diet. Is it not equally true of a dyspeptic? For all of the real enjoyment he gets out of life, he might as well be in jail. He cannot eat what he likes, nor enough. He suffers much, gets little sympathy. At first, perhaps a little heaviness in the stomach, a little sourness, windy belchings and heartburn; headaches and biliousness and a foul taste in the mouth in the morning. Chronic constipation is almost inevitable, and means that the body is holding poisonous, impure matter that should be gotten rid of. The poison is being reabsorbed into the blood and the whole body. Impurity in the blood may lead to almost any disease. Constipation is the start of it all. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation, cure it so it stays cured. No other remedy in the world will do that.

NEW JERSEY EDITORS.
Two Hundred of Them Will Visit Raleigh in April Next.
 A party of 200 New Jersey editors will visit Raleigh about the first of April. The party will come here from Portsmouth by a special train known as the "Editors' Special." The editors will go to Southern Pines and Charlotte. The Seaboard Air Line has tendered the New Jersey editors a special train free of all charge and in other ways have arranged to convince their guests that Southern hospitality is what it is said to be.

The Charlotte News of yesterday says:
 Mr. Frank A Heywood, editor of Southern Progress, of Woodbury, N. J., the paper which has said so many kind things of Charlotte of late, arrived in Charlotte on the Seaboard train this afternoon for the purpose of making arrangements for a short visit to the city of some two hundred New Jersey editors, Wednesday, March 31. Mr Heywood took two parties of New England editors through Virginia in 1890 and it resulted in the investment of $2,000,000 in that section, and the making of Norfolk one of the best advertised cities in the South. Mr. Heywood also secured the enormous investments made in Virginia, Florida and Georgia recently made by Mr. D L Riaby, the New Jersey town builder, of Philadelphia.—Press Visitor.

Old and the New.
 Mr. W S Linder and family left Saturday for Gaffney, S. C., to spend a while there with relatives, from whence they move to Knoxville, Tenn., where Mr. Linder has secured a good paying position in a cotton factory. For the past eleven months Mr. Linder was boss weaver at the Cabarrus Cotton Mills in this city and was esteemed by employer and employees alike. Mr. W P Hornbuckle, who but recently returned from Lynchburg, Va., will succeed Mr. Linder at the Cabarrus Mills.
