Vol. XV.—No. 17

CONCORD, N. C., WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1897.

WHOLE NO. 1,632

AT THE CAPITAL.

Proceedings of the General Assembly in Brief.

SENATE.

RALEIGH, Feb. 2.—By unanimous consent resolution No. 313 was placed on the calendar. This resolution is to elicit information for the better regulation of railroad charges in the State; gives the Governor the right to call on all railroad, express, steamboat and telegraph companies so as to ascertain all those officers who receive over $2,500 per annum as salary.

Mr. Grant introduced a bill for the purpose of stimulating the taxes in rural districts.

Mr. Hardison—Bill to prohibit the sale of immoral and obscene literature in the State, also a bill to protect the people of the State from fevers, etc., in second-hand clothing; also to prohibit the sale of liquor unless under police supervision.

Mr. Butler—Bill to amend chapter 498, laws of 1891, relating to Supreme Court records furnished railroad commission; also by same a bill to increase the duties of the railroad commission in relation to the inter-State commerce commission.

Mr. Hardison—Bill to increase the public school fund in the State.

Mr. Early—Bill to repeal chapter 50 private laws of 1893, relating to incorporated towns.

Mr. Person—Bill to increase the public school fund from fees in Secretary of State's office.

Mr. Alexander—Bill to incorporate the American Trust and Saving Company.

Mr. Clark—Bill to authorize mayors in towns and cities to solemnize the marriage ceremony.

Much discussion arose from the consideration of a bill to repeal the act in chapter 308 laws of '95 with regard to line between the counties of Alamance and Chatham.

HOUSE.

Mr. Lusk introduced a bill to allow graduates of the Asheville Normal and Collegiate Institute for Young Women to teach in the public schools of the State.

Mr. Sutton, to provide that the existence of a life estate in any land shall not be a bar to a sale or partition of such lands.

A bill passed amending the act creating the colored Normal school at Fayetteville and naming new trustees and managers.

A bill to amend the law as to registration of pharmacists caused much discussion, some ridicule and much laughter from the tilt between Mr. Lusk and Mr. Alexander.

Mr. Hauser asked leave to have the Senate's free silver instruction resolution placed on the calendar. There was instant protest. He made a motion to suspend the rules.

The Democrats voted aye and the Republicans no. The motion to suspend was lost.

Mr. Hauser asked consent to introduce a resolution that Rev. John C. Burroughs be allowed to preach in the hall of the House tomorrow evening. Mr. Hauser was asked if Burroughs was a Mormon and said he was a Universalist and asked the members to "come out tomorrow night and hear Brother Burroughs." An amendment was offered and accepted by Mr. Hauser that the latter should lead in the singing. The vote on Mr. Hauser's resolution was a tie and the Speaker voted against it, so Brother Burroughs will not preach.

Mr. McCrary tried very hard to re-enact virtually the fraudulent bill of '95, with regard to assignments, which he claimed was good but had been repealed because it had been fraudulently gotten through. His bill was reported unfavorably by the committee and in the house was tabled, though at a later moment he lodged a motion to reconsider.

The House held a night session at which a number of bills were passed of a private nature.

Karnival Kernals.

The funniest scene of all is the dentist's office when a tooth a yard long is extracted without pain, except to the audience and that is in the side—laughing. See? Then comes a barber shop in full operation—lady artists, fair customers, who are lathered and shaved in true tonsorial style. The porter will shine you while you wait for next.

The last tableaux is the artist's studio—living pictures and statuary with soft blending of calcium colors—reminds one of Fairyland. Following the mercantile representatives—songs, specialties, scenes and tableaux. The grand spectacular phantasmagorical kaleidoscopic march closes the evening's performance. Go to Armory Hall Thursday and Friday nights—Feb. 4 and 5—Presbyterian Ladies' Benevolent society. Adults 50 cents, Children 25 cents. Seats now on sale at Gibson's Drug store.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

To the Veterans.

The surviving members of the Confederate Veterans of Cabarrus county are urgently requested to report all deaths and causes of death of their comrades in their respective neighborhoods. With this report please state the regiment and company to which they belonged, their age, and the time of service.

Respectfully,
D. A. CALDWELL,
Commander in Chief.

J. R. ERVIN, Adjt.

GET READY, VETERANS!

Dates for the Reunion changed—A Meeting of Great Importance in June.

The reunion of Confederate veterans at Nashville will be one of the grandest events of the kind ever witnessed. The reunion was first fixed for May 5, 6 and 7, but General Gordon, commander in chief of the United Confederate Veterans, announces that the dates have been changed to June 22, 23 and 24.

There were several reasons for the change. It was believed that it would be more convenient for the veterans to attend in June than in May, and at the later date the Tennessee Centennial Exposition will be in a more advanced stage.

General Gordon refers with "pleasure and pride" to the fact that 875 Confederate veterans' organizations are already enrolled and that 150 more will be formed before the reunion. He urges all the camps to begin at once preparations to attend the great reunion. Very important business will be considered by the gathered veterans. The question of providing state or other aid for disabled or destitute veterans and the widows and orphans of veterans will be discussed.

General Gordon declares his faith that appeals for aid to the broken and needy veterans or those whom they left helpless will not be made in vain to any seat of the south, "as it would be ingratitude without parallel, and degradation without precedent, that any of these should turn their backs upon the old heroes and their ever glorious records in their old age and dire distress."

The Confederate reunion at Nashville will surely be a great and glorious occasion.

For your Protection: Catarrh "cures" in liquid form to be taken internally, usually contain Mercury or Iodide of Potassa, or both, which are injurious if too long taken. Catarrh is a local, not a blood disease, caused by cold and damp weather. It starts in the nasal passages. Cold in the head, if repeatedly neglected, results in catarrh. Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for these troubles and contains no mercury nor any injuries.

Just try a 10c. box of Cascarets, the finest liver and bowel regulator ever made.

Mrs. Eddins Dead.

Mrs. W. I. Eddins died at her home on East 8th St. this morning at 10 o'clock at the age of 73 years. Mrs. Eddins had only been sick a few days with pneumonia. She leaves a husband and six children, three sons, Messrs. Chas. W., Jno. R., and George, and three daughters, Mrs. K. L. Craven, of Concord, Mrs. W. F. Williams, of Portsmouth and Mrs. L. A. Deyareux of this city.—Charlotte News.

The funeral services were conducted from Tryon Street Baptist Church, of which Mrs. Eddins had long been a consistent member, this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, by the pastor, Dr. A. O. Barron.

Mrs. Craven went over to Charlotte Tuesday night to attend the funeral of her mother, whose death was quite a shock to her.
