Vol. XV.—No. 25

CONCORD, N. C., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1897.

WHOLE NO. 1,640

IMPORTANT.

As the business interest of our town will be very much affected by the annulment of the North Carolina railroad lease, a meeting of the citizens, is hereby called to meet at the court house Saturday evening, February 13th at 4 o'clock.

A full attendance is desired, as this is a very important matter in which all good citizens are interested.

CITIZENS

Bonds or no Bonds?

The rental of the water works, amounting to about $2,000 annually would more than pay interest on $40,000 bonds. Make up your mind as to whether we need a good water works system or not?

The city should own the water works plant and enlarge it.

Notes From the Organ.

Our farmers say they are going to quit simply planting, and go to farming. In the first place they broke their land deep in the fall, turning under a big crop of grass, weed, &c., which will supply the much needed humus either in a dry or wet season, then most of them are risking a considerable amount of compost which they are going to spread broadcast on their land instead of dribbling it sparingly in the drill. But a few still spend the time between crop time hunting birds, thus not only not doing anything to benefit their farm, but actually destroying their best friends. If they were to get one dollar apiece for the birds they kill they would be losing by killing the faithful birds that destroy so many insects.

Mr. M J Barger is clearing a large new ground preparatory to raising a large crop of Irish potatoes. Most too far from market, brother Barger, for truck farming.

Mr. Lafayette Barger and four of his are down with typhoid fever.

Some of our neighbors lost their potatoes during the recent cold snap.

ROBBERS AT WORK.

A Sneak-Thief In Swink & White's Store—Left a Souvenir.

This morning when the clerks at Swink & White's store had gathered at their places for the business of the day, it was discovered that a thief had been at work and the cheese box robbed. Some one had been locked up in the store last night and after ransacking the money drawers and tumbling the clothing, made his exit through the cellar door. It is not known positively that anything but a coat and several pounds of cheese were stolen. There is no clue as to who the thief can be.

It will be remembered that several years ago there was a similar robbery at Swink's store, and it is believed that the same party is guilty of last night's visit.

N. B. The man that was locked in Swink & White's store last night left a hand-axe and can get same by calling at the store and leave 25 cents for this ad.

Should Understand.

Don't raise a howl at once against the movement on foot to ask the legislature to give the commissioners power to order an election on the $40,000 bond issue until the proposition is thoroughly understood. It is believed that the city could operate the water works at a significant profit and aside from the conveniences it affords, save money to people who carry insurance on their property, the rate of which is almost double where there is no protection against fire.

Dr. Lindsey Dead.

Dr. Stephen Lindsey passed away in death at the home of his son I Tom Lindsey, No. 617 South Main street, Nevada, Vernon county, Mo., on January 31, at the age of 85 years.

The subject was a citizen of Concord for some years before and during the late war. He was an accomplished mechanic in the profession of dentistry and at that stage of its development was well up to the front. He was spirited, though, genial and kind. His whole intense nature was in sympathy with the Confederate cause. He will be readily remembered by the older citizens of our town and community. His years of usefulness were greatly prolonged and will record many virtues of a noble life.

Fire at the Convict Camp.

On the morning of the 11th, about 1,15, a terrible fire broke out at Mr. W L Parish's private hotel on Gold Hill avenue. The alarm was turned in and the fire department responded promptly in full force with Chief Rufus Krimminger in the lead with a score or more of trusties at his heels. In his haste to put out the fire, Mr. Krimminger became excited and instead of putting out the fire he turned his hose on a meat box near at hand and completely ruined a dozen or more large, fine hams. About this time the proprietor of the hotel was awakened and found it impossible to get out of the hotel, as he was surrounded on all sides by fire, and he at once called for some of his guards, but they had all fled to save their lives or to direct Chief Krimminger as to the whereabouts of the fire. Shortly the guards came in the burning hotel with the brave fire department. The fire was soon under control. Mr. Parish was rescued from the burning building just as he was about to be burned to death. All the guests escaped uninjured. The fire done considerable damage to a pile of straw which some of the boarders had very carelessly thrown too near the stove.

[The above was sent to THE STANDARD with request to publish.
