comfortable Shoes.

People who are troubled with cold feet may take heart. In Germany there has been patented a contrivance described as a "heatable shoe."

The heel is hollowed out, and in this hollow is a receptacle for a glowing substance similar to that used in Japanese the wearer is walking, thus imparting a bedded in asbestos covers, is a rubber bag which is filled with water.

The heating substance in the heel keeps the water warm, and it circulates while the wearer is walking, thus imparting a pleasant warmth to the foot. A small safety-valve is provided, so that the bag cannot burst.

The warmth given by the sole never rises above seventy degrees Fahrenheit, and will last about eight hours. Popular Science News says that the sole is not unreasonably thick, being only slightly thicker than that of the wet weather shoe.—Greensboro Record.

A Woman Holds Her Tongue.

Jacobstown, N. J., boasts a woman who, although not dumb, has not spoken for ten years. Her name is Lucretia Hillman and her silence is due to her vow not to speak until women were granted the right to vote. In 1886 she refused to pay her tax assessment and did not hand over the money until threatened with incarceration. Then she swore to work for woman's suffrage and not utter a word until women were given the right of franchise. She has faithfully kept her oath, although she successfully conducts a farm and is an all-round business woman. She is unmarried and possessed of more than ordinary accomplishments. She plays both violin and piano and is given to literature. Miss Hillman has little to do with her neighbors, but presfers petting her animals to human society.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago says: I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physicians's prescriptions or other preparations.

Rev. John Burgus, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery. Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial Bottles free at Feszer's Drug Store.

Here is a bit of solid horse-sense from the Durham Sun: "There are many people who believe it the duty of an editor of a newspaper to try to punish and expose those who, in their opinion, do not conduct themselves properly. When they see the law violated, they are too cowardly, frequently, to themselves lodge the complaint before the proper legal authorities, but at once rush to the editor and demand that he shall become the judge, jury and executioner to punish misdeeds of which they complain. Then there are fellows who, when they have a grievance, or spite against anybody, try to use the editor to ventilate their ill humor and punish their enemy. What a poor idea they have of an editor, when they think he is anxious and willing to do their dirty work for them? It is the duty of the editor to publish the news, champion virtue and morality, and denouncing evil, immorality and wrong; but mistakes his calling if he undertakes to become the especial guardian and regulator of the conduct of every individual of the community."

Hill Have to Wait.

Senator Pritchard arrived in Washington Sunday from Canton, where he had an interview with President-elect McKinley, in the interest of Col. James E Boyd on Saturday last. He failed to secure a Cabinet appointment, but received assurances that Col. Boyd's services to the Republican party would be recognized in a way that would be satisfactory to him. Whether the appointment will be as one of the assistant secretaries or as istant postmasters-general, Senator Pritchard cannot say. He talked to Mr. McKinley about the policy of his administration, and got the distinct impression, he says, that everything will be subordinated to the speedy enactment of a new tariff law. Major McKinley also gave Senator Pritchard distinctly to understand that only the more important appointments, which are indispensable to the successful operation of his administration, will be considered until after the passage of a tariff bill and the adjournment of the extra session of Congress. There are more men out of work, he said, who need work than there are men out of office who need office, and they will receive the first consideration. This will be a great disappointment to hundreds of Virginia and North Carolina Republicans, who will go to Washington next month expecting to remain in anticipation of immediate relief. This is personal, direct information from the President-elect, and is a confirmation of the policy already indicated.—Greensboro Record.

If it were not for the fact that the job is about over these fellows might all be assigned the enrolling clerk's office in Raleigh at $5.00 per day while the president will be too busy to give them relief.
