Marriage.

At the brides home three miles South of Concord, Wednesday, March 5th. at 2 o'clock, by Rev. J J Payseur, Mr. H G Faggart and Miss Laura A Talbert, were united in the bonds of matrimony in the presence of a large crowd of friends and relatives. Then to the table, fitted for the occasion, beautifully decorated and well loaded.

This is the third time within the last 6 months in this home. Father Talbert says it must stop, but the writer thinks not yet, there are three more marriageable.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

J. L. Graham Not Gone.

The Press Visitor found Mr. Graham in his office in Raleigh Tuesday and received some statements. He still charges the whole affair to political persecution. He says the two Hilderbrands, Republicans, who signed the rd against him have been read out of the party and the other two are worthless characters. As for the Democrats he did not expect anything better. He asks the public to suspend judgment and promises to pay his respects to the cord at the proper time.

A Runaway.

Mr. Press M Faggart's mule team took fright yesterday morning at the Fenix Flour Mill and ran on Corbon street in the direction of Main street and then up Bell Avenue but divided at the sycamore tree at Mr. Luther Saunder's where they came to a sudden halt.

Mr. Faggart and son were thrown from the wagon early in the run and the wagon wheels passed over Mr. Faggart's legs. No serious damage to anything else.

Wade Hampton Retained.

Prominent politicians of South Carolina passing through en route to Washington seem to think that one fat office in McKinley's gift will not be turned over to the Republicans. It is the office of United States railroad commissioner now held by Gen. Wade Hampton, of South Carolina. Gen. Hampton's resignation has been sent to president elect McKinley, and it is learned that Senator Sherman and others of the incoming cabinet will urge president McKinley to retain him in his position.

Gen. Hampton has been in feeble health for some time, but has improved greatly in the last few weeks.

It would be a compliment to the old warrior and statesman, to South Carolina and the entire South for Maj. McKinley to retain Gen. Hampton in his present position.—Charlotte News.

The He One of all.

The inauguration ball tonight will probably outstrip all former occasions of its kind as every congress outstrips its predecessor in reckless extravagance.

It is said that 10,000 tickets have been sold at $5 each and that only Messrs McKinley and Hobart have received complimentary tickets.

In point of grandeur it may be ranked as the old he one among balls.

Gen. Longstreet in Charlotte.

Gen. James Longstreet stopped over in Charlotte last night. He was en route to Washington where he goes to witness the inaugural ceremonies of President McKinley. Gen. Longstreet is quite feeble. He is compelled to use a speaking trumpet, as his sense of hearing has well nigh left him:

Notwithstanding this, he is the same genial clever gentleman that he has always been. Age has softened his heart, and one would hardly recognize in him the great fighting general of the Confederacy. Gen. Longstreet still resides in Ganesville, Ga. His home is a characteristic old southern mansion, and genuine southern hospitality greets you as you cross the threshold. General Longstreet stopped at the Central.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. W P McGhee at Bays' Chapel, where friends assembled to attest their sympathy with the afflicted family.

WARNING.

We wish to caution all users of Simmons Liver Regulator on a subject of the deepest interest and importance to their health—perhaps their lives. The sole proprietors and makers of Simmons Liver Regulator learn that customers are often deceived by buying and taking some medicine of a similar appearance or taste, believing it to be Simmons Liver Regulator. We warn you that unless the word Regulator is on the package or bottle, that it is not Simmons Liver Regulator. No one else makes, or ever has made Simmons Liver Regulator, or anything called Simmons Liver Regulator, but J. H. Zeilin & Co., and no medicine made by anyone else is the same. We alone can put it up, and we cannot be responsible, if other medicines represented as the same do not help you as you are led to expect they will. Bear this fact well in mind, if you have been in the habit of using a medicine which you supposed to be Simmons Liver Regulator, because the name was somewhat like it, and the package did not have the word Regulator on it, you have been imposed upon and have not been taking Simmons Liver Regulator at all. The Regulator has been favorably known for many years, and all who use it know how necessary it is for Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Constipation, Headache, Dyspepsia, and all disorders arising from a Diseased Liver.

We ask you to look for yourselves, and see that Simmons Liver Regulator, which you can readily distinguish by the Red Z on wrapper, and by our name, is the only medicine called Simmons Liver Regulator.
