Luther and His Times.

A Gorgeous Production at the Court House on Monday and Tuesday Evenings--Of Historic and Social Interest--One Hundred Well-Known People of Concord Will Take Part in the Grand Pageant.

The admiration which the civilized world has accorded the character of Martin Luther for centuries will be re-awakened by the unique entertainment to be given at the court house on Monday and Tuesday evenings, March 15 and 16th, with all the accessories to beautify the scene which skill and genius can devise. The production is given under the auspices of St. James Lutheran church and the management of Mrs. H E Monroe, the originator of the production. The story of Luther's life will be told in song, speech and pictorial.

Every movement of the story, whether expressed in the words of the lectures, the beautiful photographic views, the music or the allegorical representations enlists the closest attention. The narrative is elucidated by Mrs. Monroe; with the aid of 85 superb stereoscopic views, which present pictures of renown and events of historical interest. The representations will be Luther's famous trial at Worms, nuns leaving a convent, Erfurth Monk and Choir men, two allegorical processions, etc.

The chief figure is the famous Diet at Worms. The representations are connected by lectures and views. The orchestra members, dialogue, tableaux, choruses, are all in accord with the religious character of the theme. From beginning to end the entertainment moves in a well-conceived and perfectly executed line of purpose. This entertainment has been given repeatedly with such great success in the other cities, and present prospects indicate a magnificent success here, also. It has attracted thousands in New York City, Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Richmond, Pittsburg, Chicago, etc. It is very highly endorsed by such persons as Hon. John Waramaker, Rev. Russell Conwell, Wm. M. Singler and Ex-Governor Pattison, of Philadelphia; Governor O Vincent Coffin, Charles Dudley Warner, of Hartford, Conn.; Ex-Governor D R Brown and Professor Clark, Brown University, of Providence, R. I.; Judge B. Stanton, Chicago; etc.

Special reference is also made to the following:
Rev. J G Morris, D. D., LL. D., Baltimore, Md., lately deceased;
Rev. A L Conrad, Ed. Lutheran Ob-

A fine cast has been secured and a charming rendition is promised. These entertainments are always largely attended. In Columbia, S. C., and Wilmington, N. C., when this entertainment was presented not a reserved seat remained to be taken on the days of the entertainment. The admission here will be 50 cents, children 25 cents. Reserved seats can now be secured at Fetzer's drug store by paying 25 cents extra. The same entertainments will be presented in Greensboro March 25 and 26th, Salisbury April 5th and 6th. One of the most magnificent entertainments of the season was presented in Richmond March 24th and 25th. The Richmond Dispatch contains the following in their report of the affair:

"The production, considered as a whole, was a triumphant success. It possesses literary and dramatic merit. The arrangement of the story is novel, complete, and engrossing. The audience was not only a large one, but a distinguished one to boot, and included those prominent in all walks of life."

An Inventory Taken.

THE STANDARD erred Monday by saying the amount of tobacco in the sheriff's office seized from J A Rimmer was 1,500 pounds. An inventory was taken and the sheriff gave us the following:

Thirty-nine boxes of tobacco, an aggregate of 951 pounds; nineteen cases of soap, one sixty pound case of soda, one keg of soda, 112 pounds; two cases of coffee, 100 pounds each. Casper shipped to this city about 1700 pounds of tobacco only a little more than half of which has been spotted.

WARNING.

We wish to caution all users of Simmons Liver Regulator on a subject of the deepest interest and importance to their health—perhaps their lives. The sole proprietors and makers of Simmons Liver Regulator learn that customers are often deceived by buying and taking some medicine of a similar appearance or taste, believing it to be Simmons Liver Regulator. We warn you that unless the word Regulator is on the package or bottle, that it is not Simmons Liver Regulator. No one else makes, or ever has made Simmons Liver Regulator, or anything called Simmons Liver Regulator, but J. H. Zeilin & Co., and no medicine made by anyone else is the same. We alone can put it up, and we cannot be responsible, if other medicines represented as the same do not help you as you are led to expect they will. Bear this fact well in mind, if you have been in the habit of using a medicine which you supposed to be Simmons Liver Regulator, because the name was somewhat like it, and the package did not have the word Regulator on it, you have been imposed upon and have not been taking Simmons Liver Regulator at all. The Regulator has been favorably known for many years, and all who use it know how necessary it is for Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Constipation, Headache, Dyspepsia, and all disorders arising from a Diseased Liver.

We ask you to look for yourselves, and see that Simmons Liver Regulator, which you can readily distinguish by the Red Z on wrapper, and by our name, is the only medicine called Simmons Liver Regulator. J. H. ZEILIN & CO.

Take Simmons Liver Regulator.

Wanted—An Idea Who can think of some simple plan to assist in the sale of the Simmons Liver Regulator? The only way to do this is to get a list of names of all the druggists in the city, and send them a copy of this advertisement, and a box of the medicine. The name of the druggist who sends the most names will receive a box of the medicine. The name of the druggist who sends the most names will receive a box of the medicine.
