Worms and its Hero.

The Famous Diet at Worms Enacted--Luther Before the Assembled Princes of Germany--The "Monk That Shook the World," Depicted by Local Talents.

There are few events in history to which the world looks back with awe and reverence. Luther facing the diet at Worms, alone and single handed, is one of these, and its remembrance thrills the heart of every lover of truth and right. The figure of that lone man standing unmoved and fearless before his judges, refusing to recant, every one has pictured. One can readily picture Luther as he stood there, his locks and form, but his surroundings, the closely packed assembly who gazed upon him must be seen in representation, at least to be appreciated.

The representation of this great event, of which Carlyle said, "It is the most important event in modern European history" will be the principal scene in the "Story of the Reformation" or Life of Luther to be presented at the court house on Monday and Tuesday evening, March 15 and 16. The very words which were used on this great occasion will be used, and the very incidents which the chronicles of church history record will be graphically portrayed. At this great trial Luther uttered the memorable words, "Here I stand, I cannot otherwise, God help me, amen."

The cast is as follows:
Emperor—L T Hartsell.
Elector—Dr. H C Herring.
Cardinal—Holland Thompson.
Luther—Louis D Duval.
Albert—W M Stuart.
Wildeneck—L D Shirey.
Melancthon—Walter R Thompson.
Erich—W Shinn.
Courtier—Ed. Hill.
Page—Robert Young.
Priests, princes, knights, courtiers, bishops, etc.—J L Hartsell, P B Parks, A S White, E W Freeze, M B Smoot.

The Guards of Honor will be details from North Carolina Guard, Co. G, 4th regiment, Capt. W A Caldwell commanding Emperor's Guard; First Lieutenant E T Goldston, Elector's Guard; Second Lieutenant Luther C Biles, Cardinals Guard.

The military pageant promises to be one of the finest features of the scene. The different roles are all well taken and a very superior rendition will surely follow. The soloist in this representation will be C A Cook. The "grand finale" of the trial is perhaps the most striking tableau which will be shown.

The representation of this one scene is well worth the admission fee, but besides there are two scenes represented and two grand allegorical processions at the opening and closing. This trial should be witnessed by old and young. The genius and inspiration of the monk of Wittenburg, Luther, furnished the germs or principle of all true reforms in church and State, in government and society, that makes up the civilization of the present day. Some of the participants in this scene in other cities have been Rev. B Pick, Ph. D. D., Albany, N. Y.; Hon. George Elliott, Brooklyn, N. Y.; Judge Wilson, of Cincinnati, O.; Dr. Winston, formerly president of North Carolina University, etc.

This scene is pronounced by James Anthony Froude, the historian, as one of the finest, if not the finest in human history.

In Baltimore this entertainment was pronounced by the city paper as one of the finest entertainments ever presented in the city.

Admission 50 cents. Children 25 cents.

Persons desiring reserved seats can secure them at Fetzer's Drug Store by paying 25 cents extra. In Columbia, S. C., the Legislature attended in full force.

Rev. Chas. A. Alden, Schenectady, N. Y., after taking the character of Luther in Albany, Buffalo and Schenectady, N. Y., wrote to a friend.

"I believe the part of Luther makes the strongest sermon it was ever my privilege to preach."

Collision at a Crossing.

A railroad collision occurred Sunday the 7th between Louisville and Nashville at a crossing of the Southern and North Birmingham crossing. Both trains arrived at the crossing at the same time and the engines struck each other. One engineer was killed and several other train men were more or less seriously bruised and scalded.

A Correction.

Our readers doubtless noticed a discrepancy in the two statements on the first page of yesterday's STANDARD. The statement at the end of the first double column is correct; that in the advertisement in the space donated by Dry & Wadsworth is incorrect with regard to reserved seats. Both are strictly according to copy furnished and it is a sample of things that happen in this busy on-going world.

WARNING.

We wish to caution all users of Simmons Liver Regulator on a subject of the deepest interest and importance to their health—perhaps their lives. The sole proprietors and makers of Simmons Liver Regulator learn that customers are often deceived by buying and taking some medicine of a similar appearance or taste, believing it to be Simmons Liver Regulator. We warn you that unless the word Regulator is on the package or bottle, that it is not Simmons Liver Regulator. No one else makes, or ever has made Simmons Liver Regulator, or anything called Simmons Liver Regulator, but J. H. Zeilin & Co., and no medicine made by anyone else is the same. We alone can put it up, and we cannot be responsible, if other medicines represented as the same do not help you as you are led to expect they will. Bear this fact well in mind, if you have been in the habit of using a medicine which you supposed to be Simmons Liver Regulator, because the name was somewhat like it, and the package did not have the word Regulator on it, you have been imposed upon and have not been taking Simmons Liver Regulator at all. The Regulator has been favorably known for many years, and all who use it know how necessary it is for Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Constipation, Headache, Dyspepsia, and all disorders arising from a Diseased Liver.

We ask you to look for yourselves, and see that Simmons Liver Regulator, which you can readily distinguish by the Red Z on wrapper, and by our name, is the only medicine called Simmons Liver Regulator.
