A GREAT HIT.

The Luther Allegory, in Rehearsal, Reveals Pleasures in Store—Pretty Ladies, Wearing Charming Costumes, Represent the States of the Union—Elaborate Musical Features.

All that is promised the public in the Story of the Reformation, or Life of Luther, to be presented at the court house on Monday and Tuesday evenings of next week will be fully realized, taking as a criterion one of the rehearsals. The Boston Herald stated concerning it—"Something good had been promised, but the entertainment far exceeded in beauty and interest every promise made for it." Religious entertainments are sufficiently numerous, but are not always of the highest order of merit nor of a very wide range of interest. It is therefore all the more creditable to St. James' Lutheran church that it should present an entertainment that is not only pleasing to the eye and ear, but at the same time instructive and ambitious to an extent calculated to satisfy the most fastidious. The program is full of pleasing variety and thrilling interest from beginning to end. The allegorical procession introduced at the opening and closing of the program are admirably brilliant. A dazzling array of young people, led by Miss Elida White and Chas. S. Barrett, will march forth upon a brilliantly illuminated stage decked in fancy costumes, resplendent with sparkling fiery, forming fantastic figures. At times, while forming the complicated figures, the stage is a solid mass of color and movement. These processions include the following ladies who represent the States of the Union:

North Carolina—Irma Kimmons.
South Carolina—Mrs. G. T. Crowell.
Georgia—Rose Willeford.
Florida—Annie Young.
Connecticut—Janie Erwin.
Massachusetts—Katharine Gibson.
New York—Rosa Mund.
New Jersey—Heater Wilkinson.
West Virginia—Grace Fisher.
California—Mrs. Ross McConnell.
Ohio—Emma L. White.
Indiana—Maude Brown.
Illinois—Hattie Mehaffey.
Pennsylvania—Corinne Harris.
Maryland—Kate Nicholson.
Delaware—Isabel M. Richmond.
Kentucky—Annie T. Burkhead.
Kansas—Estelle Blackwelder.
New Hampshire—Kate Morrison.
Vermont—Cora Len z.

Aside from the features of the entertainment previously made prominent through these columns, the musical features are very elaborate. The music is in charge of Prof. R. L. Keesler, pianist, accompanied by Mr. R. E. Ridenhour, cornetist. Luther's battle hymn, "Ein Feste Burg," will be sung by a chorus of one hundred voices. At the opening of the World's Fair in Chicago they could find no grander hymn than the Marseillaise of the Reformation. In this connection, the fact is brought to mind that Luther was the first person to introduce church music into a language the common people could understand. The singing of the choir men, led by Mr. H. M. Barrow, forms a leading feature. The soloists will be Miss Addie Patterson to sing "Over the Line" and Mr. Chas. A. Cook, "Dare to be a Luther." The program includes solos, duets, quartets, male, female and mixed choruses, etc. Luther's trial at Worms, in which figures the great court scene rendered famous in song, story and painting, will be the pre-eminent scene. It presents a beautiful picture, brilliant in color, picturesque in arrangement and nicely balanced as to light and shade. The costumes used are rich and beautiful and will do much to enhance the vivid production of the scenes of one of the "most famous epochs of the world's history." The Nuns' scene as witnessed at rehearsal is pronounced highly impressive. All indications for the entertainment point to the highest success. Two full houses are predicted to greet the production by our friends. Reserved seats are now on sale at Fetzer's drug store for both nights and can be secured by paying 25 cents extra. Admission 50 cents. Children 25 cents. The entertainment is well worthy of patronage for its own value, to any individual from any educational standpoint.

BICYCLE RACE TRACK.

Wheelmen and Pleasure Seekers to Have a Place of Resort.

Messrs. Charles A. Dry and John O. Wadsworth are moving in the right direction in an earnest way, which is calculated to interest the entire population.

On their property in South Concord (the old fair grounds) they will build a bicycle race track and a park. The track is to be one-half mile and when complete will be leased by the Cycle Club. The necessary funds for the lease have been raised and the track is a certainty. Work will begin on its construction just as soon as the weather breaks. They will convert the property into a park, build a large grandstand, and pavilion and illuminate the grounds and buildings with electricity.

Now if some of the moss-backs would turn their money over and build a car line on the four principle streets of the city we would be strictly in behind the band wagon leading the procession of progress.

WARNING.

We wish to caution all users of Simmons Liver Regulator on a subject of the deepest interest and importance to their health—perhaps their lives. The sole proprietors and makers of Simmons Liver Regulator learn that customers are often deceived by buying and taking some medicine of a similar appearance or taste, believing it to be Simmons Liver Regulator. We warn you that unless the word Regulator is on the package or bottle, that it is not Simmons Liver Regulator. No one else makes, or ever has made Simmons Liver Regulator, or anything called Simmons Liver Regulator, but J. H. Zeilin & Co., and no medicine made by anyone else is the same. We alone can put it up, and we cannot be responsible, if other medicines represented as the same do not help you as you are led to expect they will. Bear this fact well in mind, if you have been in the habit of using a medicine which you supposed to be Simmons Liver Regulator, because the name was somewhat like it, and the package did not have the word Regulator on it, you have been imposed upon and have not been taking Simmons Liver Regulator at all. The Regulator has been favorably known for many years, and all who use it know how necessary it is for Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Constipation, Headache, Dyspepsia, and all disorders arising from a Diseased Liver.

We ask you to look for yourselves, and see that Simmons Liver Regulator, which you can readily distinguish by the Red Z on wrapper, and by our name, is the only medicine called Simmons Liver Regulator.
