CONCORD, MARCH 17 1897.

GOING HOME TO FIGHT.

At the call of their country a squadron of about 700 Greeks will sail from New York Saturday for Greece, and on arriving will be enrolled and equipped for Greece's battles. J. D. Farmakos, a wealthy Greek merchant of Philadelphia, bears the expense of a considerable number from that city and in the event of a war will return to Greece himself.

THE CLOUD DEEPENS.

The prospects of war in Europe deepens. Greece seems to be determined to maintain her sense of right and the powers theirs, of policy. It would not be unlike precedents in history for steps to be taken that cannot be recalled from but that might not have been taken if the case had been well thought before taken.

WE ALL MEAN LET IT BE DR. MURPHY.

The Charlotte Observer fears that the declination of Dr. Munro to serve as Superintendent of the Johnston Insane Asylum may lead to filling the place with his inferior.

There is left a ray of hope that the new board may elect Dr. Murphy.

The Observer says: "If they are really regardful of the insane and have the interests of the State at heart, the new trustees will re-elect Dr. Murphy. He does not expect them to do so, nor care for them to do so, but if they should it would be the bravest and most patriotic and most booming act that has been done in North Carolina in twenty years."

We can scarcely hope for so noble an act and if we were more anxious for Democratic supremacy in the State than the prevalence of the wisest counsels we would wish that they would not, but we rise above party, we think, in conducting the instructions of the State.

We have been assured by Populists that this removal of Dr. Murphy was an act that would most surely hurt.

The unmerited alienation from the party that did conduct the State's interests well for so long is surprising, but it is hardly great enough to allow such outrages against the sense of propriety and right that still dwells in the hearts of all good men.

Dr. Murphy should be reinstated as the best and only way to undo a wrong against the State, the unfortunate inmates of the asylum and the better parts of every man who graces the roll of any political party. By all means keep Dr. Murphy if possible.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, Drug-gist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at Fetz-er's Dr. & store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Under Brighter Skies.

Joseph Herrin whom all our readers probably remember as con-nected with much that is to be re-gretted by all philanthropists and more than all by himself is now walking under brighter skies.

We deem it no evil to Mr. Herrin to recapitulate the story of his life in brief. Much room is open for reform and all honor to him if he makes it.

He neglected or did not get early education at last. He walked in forbidden paths. The hand of the law fell upon him. He served a term of punishment and being mar-ried to an unfaithful woman when free from the law he did not return to his wife and, in his ignorance of the gravity of the crime, married the widow of the late lamented Frank Pethel for which the law again seized him and inflicted a lenient punishment.

Mr. Herrin sued for a divorce from his wife who he informs us was leading a life of ill-fame. He promised the divorce, the certificate of which he showed to THE STAND-ARD. It is duly signed with the county seal of Stanly county, N. C. He has returned and he and Mrs. Pethel re-entered the matrimonial state by the marriage bonds that had been annulled when he was convicted of bigamy.

Mr. Herrin is to be hoped has entered life anew and we wish for him its highest joys.

In the... Rain Storm

The man got very wet. The wetting gave him a cold. The cold, neglected, developed to a cough. The cough sent him to a bed of sickness. A dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, taken at the start, would have nipped the cold in the bud, and saved the sickness, suffering, and expense. The household remedy for colds, coughs, and all lung troubles is

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.
