MARSHALS ELECTED.

Public Recital—Mother Building Torn Down—A Lecture—A String Band—Other Items.

MT. PLEASANT, March 22.—Mr. T E Funderburk is spending a few days at his home in Dudley, S. C.

We are glad to note that Mr. Chas. Phillips is recovering from the pneumonia as rapidly as could be expected.

The Junior class of Mont Arcona Seminary will give a public recital next Friday evening at 7 o'clock, followed by a reception. Members of the college literary societies say that adjournment is in order.

Rev. A E Wiley lectured before the College Athenaeum last Thursday night on "Brain Power." Rev. Wiley is a fluent speaker as well as a deep thinker, and never fails to interest his audience.

The societies have elected the marshalls for commencement as follows: Pi Sigma Phi, Messrs. P E Monroe, chief, Henry Furr, Clifford Fisher and Chas. Pless; Philalaethian, Messrs. V C Ridenhour, Edward Long and Chas. Phillips. Needless to say that these young gentlemen will perform their duties with credit to themselves, to their societies and to their institution.

The old building adjoining Mr. A W Moore's drug store is being pulled down to make room for Cook & Foil's new store building. In this house is where North Carolina College had its beginning.

Three convicts were set at liberty Saturday morning. Two of them were the "bum" musicians convicted for stealing coal. They treated the town to some excellent music Saturday night and were right liberally rewarded.

A string band is being organized, and before long will be ready to dispense some fine music. It is composed of some of Mt. Pleasant's finest musical talent and 'tis safe to say that its equals will be few and superiors none.

Rev. Paul Barringer was installed Sunday as pastor of the Reformed Church at this place. Revs. Shullenbarger, of China Grove, and B Frank Davis, of Concord, conducted the installation services. A very large congregation was present, the church being packed.

INCOGNITO.

An Obedient Boy.

On last Sunday the parents of George Kinderer, of Williamsburg, N. Y., complained that George did not do his share of the work, emphasizing the charge with "you had better go out and hang yourself." George, the obedient, on Monday took a rope ten feet long and hung himself to the transom of the door. Unfortunately his brother came along in time to cut him down before life was extinct. George is 24 years old, but the teaching of obedience in childhood still lingers.

Returned to Cincinnati.

Mr. Thomas Klutz, the young brother of Mr. D A Klutz, of No. 10 township, who has been visiting relatives in the county for some time, has returned to his home at Cincinnati. Mr. Klutz is a lieutenant in the Salvation Army.

RAY RECOGNIZES HIM.

He Positively Asserts That the Prisoner Brought Over from Greensboro Last Night is His Assailant.

There was a dramatic scene in the sick room of Albert Ray, the wounded guard who was so murderously assaulted at the convict camp last Tuesday, when Ray faced the man charged with assaulting him this morning.

Johnson (the darkey gives his name as Clayborn Whitfield Johnson) was taken from the jail early this morning by Deputies Roo Monroe and Cyrus Smith. He was taken to Ray's house and led into the room. Ray was lying on the bed with his wounded eye covered with cotton. He slowly, and with pain, removed the cotton from his eye and, looking straight at Johnson, said, "Yes, d—n you, you are the man that cut me."

The negro turned ashy and with a look of fright upon his face said, "For God's sake, boss, I never saw you before."

The wounded man replaced the cotton over his eyes and the deputies departed with their prisoner.

Deputy Bob Monroe returned last night from Greensboro with the darkey in custody. Johnson strictly denies his guilt and there is doubt in the minds of many as to his being the man wanted. He tells his tale in a straightforward manner.—Salisbury World.

Healing and Crescent News.

Mr. Gordin Fisher and family were visiting at Mr. Wm. Misenheimer's Saturday night.

Rev. Stubblebine delivered a very interesting address on "Greenland" at Lower Stone Saturday to a very large audience, and preached a very forcible sermon Sunday. Mr. Stubblebine is always welcomed in our midst.

Miss Mattie Fisher, of Maider, was telegraphed for last Thursday to the bedside of her brother.

Mr. George A M Fisher died Monday morning. He had been hovering between life and death for more than a week. The remains were laid to rest in Lower Stone cemetery today (Tuesday) to await the glorious resurrection at the last day. Rev. Paul Barringer, his former pastor, conducted the funeral. Mr. Fisher was certainly a good and respected gentleman. May the Lord comfort and console the bereaved family.

Master Jacob Palmer entered Crescent Academy this week.

Mr. Dorsett McCombs came very near being killed last Tuesday by a falling tree.

Mr. John D Brown and Miss Laura Lingle were married last Sunday at the home of the bride's father. SOLOMON.

The British tramp steamer Yenera has picked up 16 of the survivors of the French steamer St. Nazaire. This makes a total of twenty known to be saved of the 82 persons who were on the wrecked steamer.

AN ELKIN PHENOMENON.

A Terrific Explosion at 6 A. M. That Was Heard for 16 Miles.

ELKIN, N. C., March 22.—Yesterday morning about 6 o'clock a terrific explosion in the elements was heard here. It shook the earth and rattled the houses. Some thought it was an earthquake, but parties who were up saw a flash across the sky, so it was supposed to be a meteor. The noise was heard at Dobson, eighteen miles distant. The course of the flash was from North to South.

WHAT WAS IT?

A strange rumbling noise was heard yesterday morning about 6 o'clock by a number of our citizens. Mr. M C Ruffy observed a flash similar to that of lightning, in the North. Houses were shaken and many persons were awakened by the noise and quiver. It is not known what caused this strange noise.—Salisbury World.

Killed at High Point.

Frank Haskins, a young white man about twenty years of age, was killed at High Point Saturday night by a freight train. He was on the track, asleep or unconscious. The engineer of the train says he saw something on the track ahead of but could not tell what it was, but even if he had known that it was a man he could not have stopped his engine.

The accident happened at what is known in High Point as the Asheboro cut. An inquest was held by the coroner and a jury yesterday, but the official verdict has not been received here.—Greensboro Record.
