

Daily Concord Standard.

Vol. XV.—No. 63

CONCORD, N. C., MONDAY, MARCH 29, 1897.

WHOLE NO. 1,678

N. C. B. & L. Dissolves.

The N. C. Building & Loan Association with headquarters at Charlotte has gone into the hands of receivers. It operated at various points in the State as branch departments of the business. Since the 6 per cent law it is found impossible to operate with a profit and the board of directors advised a closing up of business. There will be no losses probably. Indeed the Association would probably have continued in business if it had not been for the branch business.

Daye is Dead.

Daye, the pet horse of Mrs. J P Cook, could not survive his lamentable mishap on last Thursday. He died in Brown Bros. stable Sunday morning. The poor fellow was watched and cared for by skillful attendance and sympathizing attention to which he seemed sensible and appreciative. There is a measure of sadness and a deserved sympathy for all concerned that rarely attaches to an ordinary loss of even a good horse.

A School History for North Carolina.

Judge Walter Clark is said to be preparing a history of the State for North Carolina schools. "Ah there!" is that fact at the bottom of that strange act in the late Legislature to do away with Moore's history, though our fashion legislature of '95 had placed the choice of school books with the county boards? There seems to be a cause for everything.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

Take laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c.

Prof. Drummond Dead.

Prof. Henry Drummond died March 11 at Tunbridge, England.

He was the author of a number of religious books remarkable for their depth of thought. Notably is the little book entitled "Natural Law in the Spiritual World."

This book is unique and suggestive of realities rarely conceived of. His essay on "The Greatest of these is Charity" is very fine. It may well be said of this man, "Though dead he yet speaketh."

A Good Showing.

The Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance Association of Mecklenburg met last Saturday. R A Grier was re-elected president. The institution is in fine condition with policies amounting to $350,000. The losses last year were three-tenths of one per cent, or thirty cents for every $100 insured.

The Match and Cigarette.

There came near being a fire at the Odell Mills Sunday afternoon by the carelessness of some one. The fence in the front of No. 2 mill was discovered to be burning, but the fire was extinguished before any headway could be gained. It is claimed that a cigarette smoker had lighted one of the nefarious things and dropped the match there.

A Household Necessity.

Cascarets Candy Cathartic, the most wonderful medical discovery of the age, pleasant and refreshing to the taste, act gently and positively on the kidneys, liver and bowels; cleansing the entire system, dispel colds, cure headache, fever, habitual constipation and biliousness. Please buy and try a box of C. C. C. to-day, 10, 25, 50 cents. Sold and guaranteed to cure by all druggists.

Aaron Russell Doing Well.

Aaron Russell, whose terrible hurt THE STANDARD noted Friday from the running away of Mr. Patterson's team on Corbin street, had in addition to the crushing of his right eye two ribs fractured if not broken.

The patient suffers very much, of course, but bears up well and is fairly bright and cheerful, which will hasten his recovery. Aaron surely had a close call. To our mind there is little doubt that his eye was crushed by a direct blow from a mule's kick, while the injury in the side is due to the wagon's running over him.

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Death of Mr. Eagle.

Mr. Will Eagle, a notice of whose illness has been made in the columns of THE STANDARD from time to time, died Saturday night at 10 o'clock. He had been confined to his bed for several months with consumption and his death was not unexpected. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Eagle and was 19 years of age. His remains were interred at Rocky Ridge cemetery Sunday afternoon, Revs. McGee and Harley conducting the funeral services.

Just try a 10c. box of Cascarets, the finest liver and bowel regulator ever made.

They Come This Week.

A group of some thirty New Jersey editors are making a tour into North Carolina and will be in Charlotte this week. The object of the trip is to get an intelligent idea of the many good things said of the State as a place desirable for immigration and the investment of capital.

They would do well to take Concord in the line. They are welcome anywhere in the State, which loses nothing by being fully known as to natural and climatic resources.

Corn and Cotton Planted.

Mr. John Taylor is one of the earliest planters and best croppers in Cabarrus. He lives two miles west of the city on the old Hoyle place, owned by Mr. A B Young, and has planted about eighteen acres of corn, and several acres of cotton already. Mr. Taylor will doubtless make the bird and worm story a realization.

Independent of Weather.

The Root-Tea-Na group continue to draw crowds to hear their superb music, their side-splitting comic, and the bright stories of health and comfort through their medicines. If it is the good effects of Root-Tea-Na that gives them that good healthy appearance and makes their voices proof against all the Nor'easters that we have had since they have been among us it might be well for us to buy it by the ton. We did not know it was in the power of medicine to sing in such cold winds, but thought it would take a throat lined with boiler iron to stand it.

Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzler's Drug Store.

More and More Critical.

The insurgent Christians in Crete are pressing the Turks despite the powers and have much the advantage. The Crown Prince Constantine has gone to the frontier of Thesaly to take command of the Greek forces against the Turks, and disturbances are likely to burst forth at any time. The Greeks are extremely wrought up and clamorous for war. The situation grows more and more critical.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her recovery, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery saved her life. Mr. Thomas Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else then bought a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful it is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at Fetzler's Drug store.
