Pierce Must Go to Texas.

Sheriff Hughes, of Sherman, Texas, arrived last night to take Geo. L. Pierce to where he is wanted at the bar of court. THE STANDARD of the 8th was showed to the sheriff who read Pierce's statement as given to THE STANDARD. The leading statements, the sheriff said were not true. Pierce is charged with collecting money while in the employ of Hibbard Bros., that he did not account for. Hence the discharge of Pierce from their employ. The sheriff is here at the service and expense of Pierce's bondsmen who would have had to pay the bill of forfeiture if Pierce could not have been found. Thus Pierce's statement, that his whereabouts was not a secret and that he offered to go back to Texas if money were sent him to go on, seems to fall to the ground. It will not be entirely comfortable to Pierce to be taken with his wound but it is considered practical and not cruel to do so. Sheriff Hughes will start for Texas with his prisoner tomorrow.

The photograph of Pierce is as fine a representation of a magnificent physique as we have seen in many a day. It favors its subject little today. A case of a fine salesman and a robust and popular manhood, gradually succumbing in mind and body to the dreadful evil of opiates.

Ex-Senator Voorhees Dead.

Ex-Senator David W. Voorhees, of Indiana, died at his home in Washington, Saturday the 10th, at 5 a. m. Mr. Voorhees, it will be remembered, was the recognized leader in the Senate in the contest to repeal the Sherman silver purchase law. He then and there labored beyond his physical endurance and took rheumatism of the heart and has suffered more or less severely ever since till the end came suddenly Saturday morning.

He was 76 years old and leaves two sons and a maiden daughter as family survivors.

Long to Be Remembered.

Thirty-two years ago today is still fresh in the minds of some of our citizens. On that day Stoneman marched into the town and took possession. The public buildings were burned and other property destroyed.

Citizens who became unruly were fired at and some of them were taken as prisoners when Stoneman left the city.

Thirty-six years ago today the first ball of the civil war was fired at Fort Sumpter.—Monday's Salisbury Sun.

Some of our overweening advocates of free coinage see in Democratic triumph in Chicago and other north western cities the growth of the free coinage sentiment. It does not seem to us to point that way. Last fall free coinage was a vital question. It has little to do with municipal elections. Mark difference in the way the ballots were cast. Is not Democracy stronger without the free silver adhesion and the fusion bent?

Regular Monthly Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of town commissioners will be held tonight at the city hall, and it is said that some very important matters will come before that honorable body for consideration.

A movement is on foot to give the city a mail-collecting service. A proposition will be submitted to the board that is worthy of consideration. It is this: The commissioners will be asked to furnish eight substantial posts, placed in various parts of the city. The United States government will furnish mail boxes for said posts, and Postmaster J. B. Sherrill will bear the expense of collecting mail from said boxes and convey same to the postoffice. The idea is a good one and it would be well for the board to sew a button on it. It has been suggested that these mail boxes be placed, one at the St. Cloud hotel, one at the corner of Main and Corbin streets, one on South Main street in Brown town, one at the Cabarrus Cotton Mills, one at Cannon's factory, one at Scotia Seminary on West Depot street, one at the corner of Mill and Main streets and one at Odell's mill. It is thought that the proposition will be accepted by the board.

Culhane's Comedians Draw a Large Audience at the Opera House.

A large audience was out last night to see Culhane's Comedians in the sensational comedy drama, "Bees, the Waif." The play was well presented and surpassed the expectations of every member of the audience.

During the performance many pleasing specialties were introduced, especially the singing and dancing of Miss St. Felix and Mr. Culhane, who were undoubtedly the features of the show.—Spartanburg Daily Times.

The company will present one of the best pieces of their repertoire Thursday night, April 15.

SANDIFER, N. C., March 15.—After an attack of the measles I was unable to do anything for a long time. I took two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, which entirely cured me, and I have kept Hood's Sarsaparilla in the house ever since.—Mary L. Fox.

The Woman's Suffrage Woman.

Oh, woman's suffrage woman,
Your views we love to quote—
But who will rock the cradle,
When e'er you go to vote?
—Washington Critic.

Oh, you naughty, horrid man,
Why such a question ask?
You'll be left to stay at home
And there perform that task.
—Orange (Va.) Observer

The up-to-date new woman,
She does the best she can
With bloomers, vests and shirts,
To be a self-made man.
—Davidson Dispatch.

Now upon her wheel she goes,
And cuts her chewing gum,
While he warms the babies toes,
She gains the official plum.

War Imminent.

Greece and Turkey are now about as close to a frontier warfare as it is possible to get. No formal declaration has been made, but some fighting has occurred. If no restraint from the powers were present to bear on the situation they would surely rush into deadly conflict.

PERSONAL POINTERS.

—Mr. Andrew Grier, of Harrisburg, spent today in the city.

—Miss Cora Perkins, of Bessemer City, is visiting relatives in the city.

—Dr. G. F. Arey and Mr. George C. Heglar, of New London, were in the city Monday.

—Mrs. O. C. Russell arrived in the city from Union, S. C., this morning and will spend several days here with relatives.

—Miss Wilson, of Charlotte, and Mrs. J. F. Murdoch, of Salisbury, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Gibson.

—Mrs. E. M. Andrews and little daughter, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Odell, returned to her home in Charlotte today.

—Mrs. Robinson, nee Miss Jennie Miller, of Charlotte, passed through the city today on her way to Mt. Pleasant to visit her parents.

—Mr. George F. Barnhardt was in the city today. A very interesting story is going the rounds about George. We wish him success and the usual attending happiness.

—Mrs. H. A. Kimball, of Salisbury, spent several days in the city with the family of her father, Mr. Alexander Sapp. She returned to her home last night.

—Sheriff Hughes, of Sherman Texas, arrived in the city last night and will probably leave on his return tomorrow with his prisoner, George Pierce.

—Mrs. Powell and niece, Miss Blackwelder, of Asheville, who have been spending some time at Mrs. Henderson's on West Depot street, left last night for Baltimore.

—Mr. J. B. Sherrill is spending today at China Grove and Salisbury. It has been intimated that Mr. Sherrill will soon begin the publication of a weekly newspaper at China Grove.

Going to Brooklyn.

Esq. H. C. McAllister is in the city and will tonight accompany and escort Harry Odell on his way to Brooklyn, New York, where Harry will go aboard the receiving or training Steamship Vermont. His only failure to secure the position, which he wants, is his ability to pass the rigid examination and that is reduced to the very minimum of doubt.

Dr. P. A. Barrier has given Harry a rigid physical examination and finds him what his external appearances indicate, a most perfect specimen of humanity—without a blemish.

Harry is mentally capable, too, of high culture and we hope his life may be one prominent in usefulness and honor.

THE RED Z.

The young men of this city who were in Salisbury Sunday on their wheels had a close shave while returning home. They were in a cut on the railroad when the wrecking train going to Harrisburg came upon them with but a moment's warning. All of them got clear of the track, however, and were not hurt, only frightened.
