He goes immediately to New Port News, where he will enter the regular course of training.

It was a treat to Harry who got to see many of the sights of New York and Brooklyn while waiting to be received.

Harry felt no little compliment at his acceptance and a measure of triumphant pride in him is quite natural.

"Down the Slope" and "Struck Gas."

The audience that greeted the Culhane Comedy Company at Canton's Hall last night were highly entertained in the three-act comedy entitled "Down the Slope." Miss Clementina St. Felix is one of the cleverest comedians ever in the South. Her dancing and singing was of a high order and very much enjoyed. Will Culhane representing a Jew, and Joe Deming, the faithful negro, elicited much applause by their good singing and comic sayings. Those out last night were highly pleased and will doubtless again laugh tonight when "Struck Gas" is rendered. This play is full of mirth and merriment. Popular prices, 35, 25 and 15 cents.
