CONCORD, N. C., WEDNESDAY APRIL 21, 1897.

WHOLE NO. 1,697

THE WARD MEETINGS.

Great Gathering of Citizens for the Nomination of Their Choice for the Mayor, Aldermen and School Commissioners.

Primaries were held in the four wards of the city Tuesday night for the nomination of Democratic candidates for the various city offices to be elected at the coming election in May and as a result the vote for mayor stood as follows:

Ward 1—Means 25, Hurley 20, Crowell 89, Kimmons 3.

Ward 2—Means 24, Hurley 26, and Crowell 95.

Ward 3—Means 4, Hurley 8, Crowell 5.

Ward 4—Means 6, Hurley 18, Crowell 10.

The board of school commissioners, W R Odell, D B Coltrane, J A Cline and D B Morrison were all renominated at the primaries to succeed themselves.

In Ward 1 the delegates to the township convention Thursday night were instructed to vote for L D Duval and L D Coltrane for commissioners.

In Ward 2 R F Coble and W A Wilkinson were brought out for commissioners.

R A Brown and John K Patterson received the unanimous vote of Ward 3 for commissioners.

The meeting at the town hall in Ward 4 instructed its delegates to vote for Giles T Crowell and A B Crowell for commissioners.

In Wards 3 and 4 the meetings passed off without the slightest break of harmony, but in the first and second wards there was general discord and everything was run through in a hurry. Many people turned away from the meetings in the first and second wards and would not or could not go into the convention.

The township convention will be held Thursday night at the court house and it will doubtless be of not so much interest as was the primaries Tuesday night.

A CARD.

I wish to say to my friends, and to the delegates to the convention tomorrow night, that I do not want my name presented in any shape or form.

Respectfully,

J. F. HURLEY.

Taken Back to Georgia.

Sheriff J M Monroe, of Rowan, passed through Concord last night on his way to Villaricka, Ga. He had with him Mr. Dick Sparnell, of Gold Hill, who is wanted in Georgia for shooting a negro last year. Sparnell was arrested Tuesday on requisition papers.

Last year Mr. Sparnell and his son Tom, who were gold-mining in Villaricka, became involved in a difficulty with a negro. The negro shot at Tom and then the old gentleman shot the negro. The negro was only wounded.

CONDUCTOR KILLED.

Freight Train Backing Into a Switch When Cars Were Derailed—Conductor Thomas Smiley Killed.

There was a disastrous wreck on the Florida Central and Peninsular road Tuesday morning at Cayce's, a small station just across the Congaree river from Columbia. The wrecked train was a through vegetable train.

Conductor Thomas Smiley was instantly killed and Flagman Wylie was badly injured.

The freight train was backing into a switch when several of the cars were derailed. Conductor Smiley was standing on one of the cars when it toppled over. He was caught beneath the wheels and his body was cut in two.

Flagman Wylie was also on top of the train and his injuries were caused by jumping.

The wrecked train was clearing the way for the Florida train that reaches Charlotte at 8:30 o'clock a. m.—Charlotte News.

The famous signature of Chas. H. Fletcher is on every wrapper.

A Novel and Interesting Entertainment.

One of the most entertaining, novel and instructive exhibitions ever given in Concord will be presented at Caton's hall, tomorrow night, April 23.

The Projectoscope, a picture machine, will display a series of lifelike and realistic representations of rare canvas reproductions. After each picture, while changing the apparatus to a new one, a splendid specimen of the phonograph, with trumpet arrangement, will furnish delightful music.

The public will find the entertainment well worthy of their patronage, especially at the moderate prices of admission, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

No More Nom De Plumes.

Charlotte has had no little sparring over the municipal contest and no little bad blood has been pulsating under nom de plumes. The Observer takes the benefit of a temporary lull to cease the insertion of such articles except over the real names of the authors. This ruling will doubtless have a tendency to take much of the bitterness out of the contest.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Cailloutte, Druggist, at Beaverville, Ill., says: To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it. Get a free trial at Fetzer's Drug Store.

Wreck on Main Street.

Tuesday evening about 7 o'clock Capt. J M Alexander was crossing Main street in front of the postoffice and was unaware that anyone was near until he suddenly found himself "flat as a beef" upon the ground, Miss Corrinne Harris having run into him with her bicycle. The accident was very much regretted, although no one was hurt. The most unfortunate part of the collision was the demolishing of several eggs in the arms of Capt. Alexander.

Gen. Hampton Recovering.

It is very gratifying to know that Gen. Wade Hampton is recovering from his serious illness. The general has passed his 80th year. His is a star that may be temporarily dimmed by the meteoric flash of modern blatherskites, but its pure light will shine down the ages as a hero to be emulated.

She had been a great sufferer for several years. Rev. H A McCullough conducted the funeral this afternoon, the burial taking place at Mt. Herman Lutheran church.

The Polymnian.

This is the name of a new literary journal, crisp, sprightly and charming as the deft touch of femininity always makes things, especially of a literary character, that emanates from the Gamma Sigma and Pierian literary societies of the Charlotte Presbyterian College for Women.

Miss Mary Helen Price is Editor in Chief and is assisted by a corps of six in their several capacities.

The Polymnian has a mission of pleasure and profit and we hail its presence with pleasure and extend our hearty congratulations.

Lost.

Singular Inadvertance.

With all our ready means of communication, lamentable inadvertances sometimes occur. Mr. R J Cook informs us that by some oversight (not from unkindly feeling) he was not made aware of the death of his step grandfather Joseph Cook, and therefore he and family did not get to participate in the funeral ceremonies of the deceased, though he lives on the highway near the church.
