CONCORD, N. C., FRIDAY APRIL 23, 1897.

WHOLE NO. 3, 639

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

A Full Municipal Ticket Nominated For No. 12 Township.

At the call of the Democratic Executive Committee the Democratic township convention assembled in the court house Thursday night, April 22nd.

D P Dayvault called the meeting to order and requested Dr. S L Montgomery to preside as chairman of the convention. J D Barrier was asked by the chairman to act as secretary.

The chairman explained the object of the meeting according to the call of the executive committee.

Wards No. 1, 2 and 3 responded to the call of the roll.

D P Dayvault by virtue of his office as member of the executive committee of Ward No. 4 was declared the proper representative of the 4th ward.

The returns from the primaries of the four wards were then presented and it was found that for mayor Mr. J P Hurley received from Ward 1 20 votes, Ward 2 29, ward 3 6, Ward 4 18. Total 73.

Mr. J L Crowell received from Ward 1 89, Ward 2 96, Ward 3 4, Ward 4 10. Total 199.

Mr. W G Means received from Ward 1 25, Ward 2 24, Ward 3 5, Ward 4 6. Total 60.

Mr. J A Kimmons received from Ward 1 3, Ward 3 2. Total 5.

Mr. J L Crowell was declared to be the nominee for mayor.

Further returns showed that Ward No. 1 had nominated L D Duval and L D Coltrane for town commissioners and W R Odell for school committeeman. Ward No. 2 W A Wilkinson and R F Coble for town commissioners and L B Coltrane for school committeeman.

Ward No. 3, R A Brown and J K Patterson for town commissioners and J A Cline for school committeeman, and Ward 4, A B Young and G T Crowell for town commissioners, and D B Morrison for school committeeman.

Ward No. 1 reported for member of township executive committee, Dr. S L Montgomery; No. 2, F L Rotins; No. 3 made no report for executive committeeman, whereupon P A Correll was considered as continued in that position and was by a vote of the house elected to be such.

Ward No. 4 reported J F Goodman for member of the executive committee. J M Fink was then elected as member at large of said executive committee.

The convention then by vote endorsed or confirmed the action of the several ward primaries.

There being no further business before the house the convention then adjourned.

The Discovery Saved His Life

Mr. G. Cailloutte, Druggist at Beaverville, Ill., says: To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it. Get a free trial at Fetzner's Drug Store.

When bilious or costive, eat a Cascaret, candy cathartic, cure guaranteed, 10c, 25c.

GREECE AND TURKEY.

The Cause of the War and the Possibilities of the Outcome as Affecting the Map of Europe.

More than 400 years ago Greece lost to Turkey the territory over part of which the two armies have just renewed the eternal conflict.

Then Constantinople fell, the last of the Greek emperors was slain, the "crescent," says a modern historian, "supplanted the cross in the city of Constantine; and an infidel barbarian monarch occupied the throne of the first Christian Roman Emperor." For over 300 years Greece submitted to the oppressive rule of the Turk. In 1821, a leader appeared, a native of Greece, Alexander Ypsilanti, then a general in the Russian army. He began a revolt that grew into a war as fierce and barbaric as perhaps the world ever saw. Neither old nor young, male or female, was spared on either side, but as the struggle of the Greeks was founded in a desire for freedom, and was conducted with unparalleled heroism against great odds, they won the sympathy of Europe; and England and Russia undertook to end the war.

In this they succeeded, and compelled the Turks to recognize as an independent nation, the Greece of today, an area of less than 25,000 square miles or about the size of West Virginia.

The present war started in Candia or Crete, a small island south of modern Greece, now ruled by Turkey, but once a part of Greece.

Grecian in most respects, it has been governed by the Turk, with the same cruelty and injustice that blights every land that comes under the dominion of the Sultan. The Cretans have revolted many times before now, and in this latest attempt to secure a measure of independence or annexation to Greece, had of course the sympathy of the Grecians. No people in the world are more aggressively patriotic than the Greeks and the news of an insurrection in Crete renewed the fires of hatred of Turkish rule in every home in the Hellenic peninsula. So far from being neutral, the people of Greece demanded that their government assist the Cretans; and so determined was this demand that King George was compelled to make at once a show of hostility, and accept the proffer of volunteers that sprang to arms on every side, clamoring to be led against their ancient enemy. Thousands of them went to Crete to fight the Turk and were backed by Greece.

Meantime the great powers, England, Russia, Italy, Germany and France—affecting to be concerned only with preserving the peace of Europe—threatened Greece with a blockade of her ports unless she preserved an aspect of neutrality as regards the revolution. But this was impossible; and no threat of the allied powers, nor blockade of the ports of Greece, has accomplished its purpose. Open aid was not only given the Cretans on the South, but bands of organized though irregular Greek troops have invaded Turkey on the North. These had apparently the full, if secret, approval of Greece and a week ago Turkey declared that if the powers were not able to put a stop to these invasions, she would regard them as a declaration of war on the part of Greece.

Polk Miller Coming!

With an evening of hearty enjoyment for all. Nothing we can say can add to the fame of this unique and inimitable Polk! But we wish to call attention to two facts in connection with the entertainment Monday night. The first is that the programme for that evening is entirely different from those of his other entertainments in this town. The second is that this is a most certainly his last visit to our community and it would indeed be a great pity for any one to miss this last opportunity to see and hear the man who stands unrivalled—alone—in this peculiar line.

Admission 35 cents, children 25. Reserved seats on sale now at Fetzner's drug store—50 cents.

To Southern Pines.

There will be a gathering of North Carolinians and Southerners in general at Southern Pines on Wednesday next, April 23rd, in attendance upon the meeting of citizens interested in the "Southern Inter-State Insurance Conference." The meeting will be held in response to the call of Secretary John T Patrick, of the Southern Inter-State Immigration and Industrial Association, the outcome of which may result in great benefits to the entire South.

Messrs. C W Swink, James F Hurley, J C Wadsworth and W G Boshamer have been requested to represent this city, all of whom will attend, leaving the city about Tuesday of next week.
