CONCORD, APRIL 26 1897.

LET THERE BE NO REVOLT.

We are affected with profound regret that there seems to be a real move on foot to get into the field a good and worthy man as an independent candidate for mayor.

Now the primaries and the convention were held at the call of the Democratic Executive Committee and, while we were led at first to believe that discord prevailed with reference to wards 1 and 2, we learn that such discord was not manifested to any unusual degree in the primaries but outside of them.

If there was dissatisfaction, surely in open primary or convention was the place for protest if not for contest.

We appeal to good men to consider well before further disorganizing our shattered ranks. The day may not be distant when we shall need the strength of union. Let it be remembered that the call was made regularly and the primaries and the convention were held without contention and the nomination was made thereby.

The irregularities of which loud complaint is made are as vehemently denied as asserted and cannot in future appear as just ground for revolt against the ticket.

We hope this matter will not be unduly weighed and that no action will be taken that will return to haunt and hinder us in the future.

Men Seen in the Airship.

A special to the Wilmington Messenger from Kenly, N. C., dated April 22nd, says: "The famous airship was seen here tonight at 7.30 o'clock very near the earth. The sails or webbing were plainly visible and resembled mosquito netting to the naked eye. Also the outlines of two persons were plainly visible among the netting. The airship was travelling very slowly in a southwesterly direction. It was seen by the mayor of the town, the chief of police, a prominent physician, the railroad agent and others.

Confederate Veterans Camps.

The Ex-Confederate Veterans are being more thoroughly organized than ever before. There are now 900 minor organizations called camps and there are about 150 more applications filled out for reception into the Confederate Veteran Association of which Gen. Gordon is the head or commander.

Following is the number of Camps by States:

Northeast Texas Division 81, West Texas Division 56; Southwest Texas Division 33; Southeast Texas Division 31, Northwest Texas Division 17; total Texas 217; Alabama 89; South Carolina 81; Missouri 71; Mississippi 63; Arkansas 59; Georgia 58; Louisiana 51; Kentucky 39; Tennessee 34; Virginia 34; Florida 30; North Carolina 29; Indian Territory 12; West Virginia 11; Oklahoma 6; Maryland 6; New Mexico 3; Illinois 2; Montana 2; Indiana 1; District of Columbia 1; California 1.

The War Goes On.

The prospects look rather depressing for Greece. Her troops have had to abandon Larissa and have retreated, though in good order, to a point about 20 miles south.

They sustained a rather severe loss Saturday. Of course the unfavorable results are due to overpowering numbers, but that be the situation that she cannot overcome save in superior position at some strategic point near the heart of the nation.

On the Turkish side Edhem Pasha has been superseded and disgraced. It is even rumored that he is dead from a wound received in the battle at Milouna pass.

Turkish troops are said to be moving from Crete to points not well known. Evidently Turkey expects to strike a knockout blow.
