THOSE FACTS AND FIGURES.

We are glad to present to our readers today some interesting facts and figures from the Baltimore Sun placing the first administration of President Cleveland and that of his successor, President Harrison, in the true statistical light, from which, the Hon. Ki Guder and his kind who manipulate and manufacture statistics to suit emergencies, as he did about his Cranberry mining town, had obscured them, with such bold assertions as to cause thoughtful men to stop and wonder if they had been political dupes.

Political tricksters may down facts in the minds of the uninformed but they won't stay down.

We were led to believe and do believe that statistics will prove the first administration of Cleveland to be a model of retrenchment, economy and wise financiering.

His second administration was envied, not by him but in spite of him, by such anomalies that, standing as we do, in the midst of the conflict instead of a more distant vantage ground our opinions clash. They show themselves rash, eccentric, incompetent judges who would have us believe that his second administration was a model of unwisdom, incongruity and perfidy.

Injudicious and absurd criticisms reflect more severely on the author than they do on the subj. ct.

THE GOVERNOR MAY FAIL.

Judge McIver rendered a decision recently that the abominable legislation that has caused so much trouble in Wilmington is unconstitutional.

The case is to be carried to the Supreme Court and is to be heard today. If the judgment of the lower court is sustained the Governor will fail to make pie out of Wilmington's mayoralty and the Democratic municipal government will stand.

The Governor seems to be destined to some bad luck anyhow. Many of his warmest friends are being alienated from him.

It would be rather bad on the Governor if he should fail to make any pie out of any of the railroads or cities. The fear of all the Russians might do all that the Governor has attempted to do but it reminds us of the fable of the hen that tried to lay an egg as large as that of a goose, with the result that she only injured herself and broke the egg.

She is a Live Wire.

Georgia has another electrical wonder in the person of Miss Fannie Hester, of Oconee county. She is a human dynamo of remarkable powers. By running her hands through her hair she can produce a shower of electric sparks, and in the dark the tracks of her shoes can be seen sparkling as if in flames. Miss Fannie is young and pretty, and is a splendid attraction for some young man who thinks he can handle a live wire without getting hurt.—Rome (Ga.) Tribune

Saved Two.

From the Sturdy Enterprise we learn that but for the prompt and gallant action of Mr. Cates, a druggist at Albemarle, Misses Daisy Presson and Florence Spinks, of Albemarle, would have been drowned in the Yadkin river at the Easter Monday picnic. One fell in, it seems, and in the excitement the other went in too and both were in great danger of being drifted into the deep water. Mr. Cates has the proud satisfaction of having rescued them both.

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Will Organize To-Night.

Bicycle and base-ball enthusiasts will meet to-night, not at the Court House as stated, but at the Firemen's hall in rear of the Mayor's office, when an association will be organized. An effort was made to secure the court house, but failing there and at the Mayor's office, the gallant firemen came to their rescue and kindly consented for the boys to occupy their neatly equipped room. It is hoped that every one interested in the cycle track and ball ground will be present. Meeting at 8 o'clock.

New York's Gala Day.

Today there is in New York one of the grandest gatherings ever held in the great metropolis. It is the occasion of the formal dedication of the new and massive tomb of General Grant. It was formally turned over to the city of New York and will be not only a charge but a feature of interest and attraction to the great city.

Probably every civilized nation with which we have diplomatic relations is represented in the gathering. A part of the programme is a review, by the President, of the naval parade and the firing of salutes in his honor. The ceremonies may last for most of the week.

THE ONLY True Blood Purifier prominently in the public eye today is Hood's Sarsaparilla. Therefore get Hood's and ONLY HOOD'S.

Beautiful eyes grow dull and dim
As the swift years steal away.
Beautiful, willowy forms so slim
Lose fairness with every day.
But she still is queen and hath charms to spare
Who wears youth's coronal—beautiful hair.

Preserve Your Hair

and you preserve your youth. "A woman is as old as she looks," says the world. No woman looks as old as she is if her hair has preserved its normal beauty. You can keep hair from falling out, restoring its normal color, or restore the normal color to gray or faded hair, by the use of
