IN ADAM'S CREEK.

ED Eudy Has a Trying Experience In a Famous Stream Saturday Afternoon.

Mr. E D Eudy, who lives two miles south of town, was on his way home from Mt. Pleasant Saturday afternoon and at Hayne's Ford on Adam's Creek, he had a very trying experience. The stream was swollen, but not beyond safety. Mr. Eudy was driving one horse to a wagon and when about the middle of the creek, the horse stepped on a rock and fell. The wagon turned over and began to float down stream, going several hundred yards before the horse could be rescued from the furious waters. Mr. Eudy had on his wagon a full set of new buggy wheels, which were washed entirely away, and had not been found this (Monday) morning at 11 o'clock. Mr. Eudy was accompanied by his brother, Jake Eudy, both of whom were thoroughly wet. Mr. Eudy followed his team down the stream and was ducked five times before the horse and wagon were safely landed.

The Runaway Horse Badly Injured.

A small boy was in charge of J M Loman's team Saturday afternoon as it came into town and when in front of the postoffice building the wagon became uncoupled, throwing the front end on the horse's hind legs. The horse became frightened and started to run, going at a break neck speed up Main street and when it reached Litcher's corner it took the side walk, turning in at Mrs. Black's lot. There it ran into a barbed-wire fence, cutting its legs and shoulders in many places, quite severely. Going up Main street the horse came near running over Tom Johnston and the piece of wagon barely missed him.

Stop drugging yourself with quick nostrums or "cures." Get a well-known pharmaceutical remedy that will do the work. Catarrh and Cold in the head will not cause suffering if Ely's Cream Balm is used. Druggist will supply 10c. trial size or 50c. full size. We mail it.

Rev. John Reid, Jr., of Great Falls, Mont., recommended Ely's Cream Balm to me. I can emphasize his statement. "It is a positive cure for catarrh if used as directed."—Rev. Francis W. Poole, Pastor Central Pres. Church, Helena, Mont.

Dr. Alderman's Engagement.

We notice that Dr. Alderman, who is to speak at the closing exercises of the Concord High School, is also going to deliver an address in Charlotte May 19. The newspapers speak in very high terms of the address just delivered before the Charleston Methodist College. Concord is fortunate in being able to hear this brilliant young educator.

Just try a 10c. box of Cascarets the finest liver and bowel regulator ever made.

Laura Josie, an inmate of the Rowan county home died last Friday. In her trunk was found $45, a part of which was used in purchasing her a nice coffin and burial robe.

An Earthquake Today.

About fifteen minutes past twelve today a number of our citizens felt the shock of an earthquake.

Among the number that perceived it are Mrs. M J Corl, Miss Annie Burkhead, Mr. Will Johnston, Dr. D D Johnson and we learn Mr. W L Belk.

We could not learn the exact moment in which it occurred. The shock was slight, of course, but was sufficient to rattle dishes, and Mr. Will Johnson says his house cracked and screamed.

Prof. Wright Will Come.

For several weeks negotiations have been on between parties in the city and Prof. F E Wright for the removal of his school from Newells to this place. The trade was closed today (Monday) and Mr. Wright will open his school here in the fall.

The school house will be located in the pretty oak grove at the old fair grounds. Plans for the buildings are now being drawn by a Concord contractor.

A Fight on "Rag Row."

The usual Sunday afternoon fight occurred on East D-spot street yesterday, when Dec Lindsey went to the home of his brother, Will Lindsey, and engaged in boisterous conduct unbecoming a "colled gemmen." He cursed and swore and raved like a maniac, finally chunking rocks through the windows and tearing a door down, doing considerable damage to the house, the property of Mr. A G Bost. "Old corn licker" was the cause of it all. Lindsey was tried this morning and sent to jail in default of $100 bond for his appearance at court.

Mrs. Ritchie Dead.

Mrs. Bettie Ritchie, of Faith, Rowan county, died Friday and was buried Saturday at St. Paul's. She was a very aged lady being over seventy five years of age. Her death was caused by consumption.

COLD IN HEAD
Representative Rogers introduced the following preamble and resolution the other day in the Texas legislature:
Whereas, the patient House is tired of the perpetual jaw which is so universally fired at each prospective law; and whereas, too, some are accused of assailing bills that pass with the very weapon Sampson used—The jawbone of an ass; and whereas, now the day has come when our per diem shrinks, To such a small and paltry sum It will not pay for drinks; Therefore, resolved, that we will hold Two sessions every day, and whether it be hot or cold, We will try to earn our pay

In the coming election, at King's Mountain, the question is "Hog" or "No Hog." In Shelby it will be "Wheel on" or "Wheel off" the streets.
