MEMORIAL DAY.

Programme of Exercises to Be Carried out by the Ladies Memorial Association Monday Afternoon.

The Ladies Memorial Association will observe Memorial Day Monday, having prepared the following programme to take place at the court house:

Mr. R. W. Allisop, Presiding Officer.

MUSIC.

Prayer—R. W. C. Alexander.
Address—Rev. O. B. Miller.

MUSIC.

Address—Mr. Holand Thompson.
Recitation—"Conquered Banner,"

Miss Cora Lentz.

We are a band of brothers, and native to the soil,
Fighting for our liberty, with treasure, blood and toil;

And when our rights were threatened the cry rose near and far,
Hurrah for the Bonnie Blue Flag that bears the single star!

CHORUS:—

Hurrah! Hurrah! for Southern rights,
Hurrah!
Hurrah for the Bonnie Blue Flag that bears a single star!

Then here's to our Confederacy, strong we are and brave,
Like patriots of old we'll fight our heritage to save;

And rather than submit to shame to die we would prefer,
So cheer for the Bonnie Blue Flag that bears a single star.

CHORUS:—

Hurrah! Hurrah! for Southern Rights,
Hurrah!
Hurrah for the Bonnie Blue Flag has gained the eleventh star.

Addresses by Messrs. Walter Thompson, L. T. Hartsell, John Cook, J. F. Smith and Dr. Herring of Jeannette club.

Address—Mr. John D. Barrier.
Music—"Old North State."

Carolina! Carolina! Heaven's blessings attend her!

While we live we will cherish, protect and defend her;
Though the scorners may sneer at and writings defame her,
Our hearts swell with gladness whenever we name her.

Hurrah! Hurrah! the Old North State forever!
Hurrah! Hurrah! The good old North State.

Though she envies not others their merited glory

Say, whose name stands foremost in Liberty's story?
Though too true to herself e'er to crouch to oppression,

Who can yield to just rule a more loyal submission?
Hurrah etc.

And her daughters the queen of the forest resembling,
So graceful, so constant, yet to gentlest breath trembling,

And true lightwood at heart; let the match be applied them,
How they kindle and flame; Oh, none know but who've tried them.

Hurrah etc.

Ushers—Misses Elizabeth Gibson, Lizzie Young, Kate Means, Lizzie Willeford, Kate Gibson, Lalla Hill, Agnes Moss, Mary Dale Craige, Mary Montgomery, Janie Richmond and Pearl Brown.

All the Ladies are requested to bring flowers or send them.

At 3.30 o'clock the court house bell will ring, and promptly at 4 the exercises will begin. Many of the stores have been asked to close, and probably all will do so.

Seats will be reserved for the Military Company, the Sons of Confederates and the veterans.

After the ceremonies at the court house, a procession will lead to the various cemeteries, where floral tributes will be placed upon the graves of the dead.

Everyone is requested to keep THE STANDARD, of to-day, and take it with them to the court house.

There will be no preaching at the Baptist church to-morrow, owing to the absence of the pastor, Rev. Payson, who is at the Baptist Convention at Wilmington.

WAR RELICS.

A Batch of Curious and Interesting Things for the Woman's Exposition at Charlotte.

The Woman's Exposition of the Carolinas, which will open its doors to the public in Charlotte Tuesday next, will present to the visitors an interest display of art and war relics from this city, sent over by Mrs. Paul B. Means. Mr. Lindsay Ross carried over a batch of curios this morning.

Among the many other things was a Bible by which Company A, 20th North Carolina Regiment, was sworn into the service of Radcliffe Battery, at Oak Island, Burnswick county, on June 21st, 1861. It is well preserved, and was the property of Fred O. Foard.

A furlough taken from the pocket of Hanson S. Field of the Main Cavalry Volunteers, who was killed at Ground Squirrel church, Va., on May 11, 1864, and a commission to Corporal Stephens A. Hicks, of Co. A, of the 136th Reg., New York, captured at the battle of Chancellorsville May 3rd, 1863, by Fred O. Foard, are interesting documents.

A number of Confederate stamps, envelops, orders, oaths of allegiance and President Abraham Lincoln's proclamation were also among the collection of papers. A biscuit baked by Capt. Nosh P. Foard on the battlefields of Virginia in 1862, which was sent to his mother at this place, is not petrified, but is as hard as stone.

Mrs. Means sent the silhouettes of her great grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Savage.

Mrs. Ann Fink furnished a lamp brought from the ruins of Pompeii in 1840.

An old pistol, brought over from Germany before the revolutionary war, by the great grandfather of Ambrose F. Hileman, of Cabarrus, is a curious piece of machaonism. The pistol is in a perfect state of preservation and is fired by the flint flashes. Dr. L. M. Archey owns it.

Quite a lot of other things were sent to the Exposition by Mrs. Means. Space forbids a detailed description.—Go to Charlotte and see them.

What Do You Say to It.

The salesmen are pleading that it would be very nice for them and equally as profitable to their employers if the dry goods, hardware and furniture stores would close at seven o'clock. This seems not an unusual custom or an unreasonable request and we hope the business men will be able to see their way clear to accede to this little request.

It is worth much in the busy ongoing world to create all the happiness we can and we think the broad smiles reaching from ear to ear on the faces of those who are pleased to call themselves poor clerks would repay the generous decision.

This is the day of anti this, and anti-that, but what people need most nowadays is, the anti-billions medicine, Simmons Liver Regulator, the King of Liver Medicines, and better than Pills. "I have used no other anti-billions remedy for six years and know from experience that for ladies of a constipated habit nothing equals it."—Laura V. Craig, Ellentury, Fla.

Be Meant Well.

A white minister, after conducting services at a colored church, asked an old deacon to lead in prayer. The brother in black offered a fervent appeal for the white brother and said: "O Lord, gib him de eye ob de eagle dat he may spy out sin a far off. Wax his hands to de gospel plow. Tie his tongue to de line ob truth. Bow his head 'way down beneath his kneeer, and his knees 'way down in some lonesome, dark and narrow valley where prayer is much wanted to be made. 'Noint him wid de kerosene ile of salvashun and sot him on fire."—Monroe Enquirer.

Mt. Nebo, N. C., April 21, 1897— I have been a great sufferer with sick headaches, but since taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills I am entirely cured, and I do not forget to recommend this medicine to my friends.—Lucinda Fleming.
