At North Carolina College.

By the concensus of opinion on the part of regular attendants of the commencement exercises of North Carolina College, this year's declaimers contest, by six sub-freshman, surpassed all former ones. The manner of delivery would have reflected no little credit upon students of higher classes.

The President, Rev. M G G Scherer, and his faithful corps of teachers, can, in my opinion, congratulate themselves on the fact that they have the plaudits of all who witnessed the exercises.

The declaimers and their subjects follow:

"Beyond the Alps lies Italy."—D Luther Goodman.

"Curfew Shall Not Ring Tonight."—D Luke Johnston.

"Profaneuess."—Hawley C Moebachern.

"The World for Sale."—Chas. R Pless.

"The Surrender of Gen. Lee."—Edward L Ritchie.

"An Old Man's Story."—T Marvin Wiley.

It was indeed a difficult thing to decide to whom the medal should be awarded but Mr. T Marvin Wiley, of Mt. Pleasant, son of Rev. Wiley, was the successful contestant. Mr. Edward Ritchie, of St. John's, received honorable mention, and deservedly so.

The Art display at Mt. Amœna Seminary was viewed by many visitors today, and the many beautiful pictures reflect much credit upon the pupils and the faithful and efficient teacher, Miss Leah Blackwelder.

"JUNIORS ANNUAL"

Last night a packed house greeted the representatives of the Junior class in their annual exhibition. The orations, marked by clearness, splendid English and originality were delivered with telling force and exhibited a very marked degree of oratorical ability. The subject matter of both addresses was not only unique but of present day interest.

The representatives and their subjects were as follows:

Pleasant E Monroe, Zeb, N. C. Subject: "Behind the Clouds is the Sun Still Shining."

Clarence E Moser, Mt. Pleasant. Subject: "Our Democracy."

NOTES.

After the junior orations the crowd repaired to the Seminary Chapel to see, played by local talent, the drama entitled, Ruby. Each character was well sustained and much interest was shown till the last scene. Little Maggie McAlister showed much dramatic talent and seemed perfectly at home on the stage. The play was given for the benefit of Mt. Pleasant Brass Band and from the immense crowd it is presumed that they realized a neat little sum.

Many of the citizens of Mt. Pleasant felt very perceptibly the earth quake shock yesterday about 2 o'clock. No damage was done with the exception of the excitement of the very nervous.

Mrs. Rev. Miller, of Concord, and little son, Bennet, arrived yesterday and is the guest of President M G G Scherer and wife.

Rev. Dr. Henderson N Miller, the newly elected Principal of Mt. Amœna Seminary, reached town last night and is making arrangements for the next term of school which opens in early fall. He succeeds Rev. Prof. Fisher, who is Vice-President of new Elizabeth College, Charlotte, N. C.

NORTH CAROLINA TROOPS.

Pre-eminent in Numbers Furnished and Killed and Wounded.

From the Seven Days' battles to the close at Appomattox, North Carolina troops made up more than half of Lee's army; the splendid victory of Ream's station was won by her troops alone. (Lane's, Cook's and MacRae's brigades); and three-fourths of the small arms surrendered at Appomattox were borne by her sons. At South Mountain, D H Hill's division, mostly North Carolinians, held the whole of McClellan's army in check until the rest of Lee's army could be gotten up, at Gettysburg dead bodies of North Carolinians were found further in the enemy's lines, according to the enemy's testimony, than those of any other State; and at Spottsylvania it was Lane's brigade which, on the right, stayed the victorious rush of Hancock after he had run over Ed. Johnson's division, and saved the right wing of Lee's army. Last, but not least in importance, the so called Rebellion Records, published by the United States government, admitted by all to be unimpeachable authority, reveal what old soldiers knew during the war, and what the files of the Observer show that it was demonstrating in its editorials, day by day—that North Carolina stood pre-eminent among all the States in the number of troops supplied, and in the number of killed and wounded in battle.—Fayetteville Observer.

Protect yourself against sickness and suffering by keeping your blood rich and pure with Hood's Sarsaparilla. Weak, thin, impure blood is sure to result in disease.

Hood's Pills are easy to take, easy to operate. Cure indigestion, biliousness. 25c.

Five Dollar Reward.

I will pay the above reward for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who rocked a young man (one of the delegates or visitors to the Methodist Conference) on his way from our home last Saturday night about half past 10 o'clock. Said young man (to me unknown) escorted from church one of the young lady visitors at our home.

WARNING.

We wish to caution all users of Simmons Liver Regulator on a subject of the deepest interest and importance to their health—perhaps their lives. The sole proprietors and makers of Simmons Liver Regulator learn that customers are often deceived by buying and taking some medicine of a similar appearance or taste, believing it to be Simmons Liver Regulator. We warn you that unless the word Regulator is on the package or bottle, that it is not Simmons Liver Regulator. No one else makes, or ever has made Simmons Liver Regulator, or anything called Simmons Liver Regulator, but J. H. Zeilin & Co., and no medicine made by anyone else is the same. We alone can put it up, and we cannot be responsible, if other medicines represented as the same do not help you as you are led to expect they will. Bear this fact well in mind, if you have been in the habit of using a medicine which you supposed to be Simmons Liver Regulator, because the name was somewhat like it, and the package did not have the word Regulator on it, you have been imposed upon and have not been taking Simmons Liver Regulator at all. The Regulator has been favorably known for many years, and all who use it know how necessary it is for Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Constipation, Headache, Dyspepsia, and all disorders arising from a Diseased Liver.

We ask you to look for yourselves, and see that Simmons Liver Regulator, which you can readily distinguish by the Red Z in wrapper, and by our name, is the only medicine called Simmons Liver Regulator.
