CONCORD, N. C., MONDAY JUNE 28, 1897

WHOLE NO. 1,760

A ROMANTIC MARRIAGE

Of a Salisbury Couple—Not a Runaway But Came Here Just for Fun—Rev. J. E. Thompson Performed the Ceremony.

Mr. John A. Sloop, who lives 3 miles south of Salisbury, and Miss Addie Odell, daughter of Mr. John L. Odell, of Salisbury, were married at the Methodist parsonage this (Monday) morning at 9.30 o'clock by Rev. J. E. Thompson.

The young couple claimed that it was not a runaway, and that there was no objection on either side to the union. They were out driving Sunday afternoon and decided to come to this city and get married "just for fun," which decision was carried into reality. The bride and groom were of marriageable age, and the groom had no trouble in securing license.

THE STANDARD reporter, Messrs. Aubrey Hoover, Whit Sloop, W. A. Sells and D. B. Castor accompanied the couple to the parsonage and witnessed the ceremony, immediately after which the young couple went their way rejoicing, returning to the home of the groom.

Thus Salisbury furnishes our city with another page of romantic history. Harmony forever abides in Concord, hence the runaways come within our bounds.

Tramps and Beggars Must Go.

The movement to rid the country of the professional tramp, of which Mayor Linn, of Salisbury, seems to have led off and Mayor Crowell is well up, we hope will be contagious and the vagrant laws will be strictly enforced. The city of Atlanta goes a step further in the right direction and is ridding the city of all beggars. The day is past for the afflicted to suffer great privations, as asylums, hospitals, county homes, etc., make provisions for all.

These afflictions are made an excuse to beg and the proceeds often go to help able bodied people to live without work as managers of charity impositions.

Honest, frugal citizens feel hard-hearted if they do not respond to signs of distress and persistent begging, when common sense dictates a more judicious and profitable bestowal of all their earnings that can be spared.

It is none too soon to check these evils.

A Merry Throng.

The house party of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lowe, which will be on during the week, is destined to be quite an event in the social world. The young ladies who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lowe are Miss Georgia Lowe, of Lowesville; Miss Catherine Jordan, of Mountain Island; Miss Daisy McDonald, of Charlotte; Miss Lois McDowell, of Steel Creek; Miss Nell Sparrow, of Davidson and Miss Agnes Moss, of this city.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago says: I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physicians' prescriptions or other preparations. Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church for 30 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery. Try this Deal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at Feszer's Drug Store.

BURNED TO DEATH.

A 4-Year-Old Child With an Oil Can and a Match Cause a Terrible Scene—Its Mother Badly Burned.

Mary May, the 4-year-old twin child of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bannhardt, who live at Cannonville, experienced a terrible torture and a horrible death Saturday afternoon. The child was playing in the kitchen, and among its play-things were an oil can and a match. The child attempted to start a fire and struck the match on the oil can, and at the instant an explosion occurred, scattering burning oil over the child, and before it could be rescued, its clothing was burned off and the flesh was scorched. Its eyes were burned out and the dingy form of the little child presented a most heart-rending and ghastly sight. The hands, neck and breast of the mother were severely burned while attempting to rescue her child from the terrible death that was seen to be inevitable. The explosion occurred at 3 o'clock and at 6.05 p. m., the child died. Its remains were interred at the cemetery Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. H. A. McCullough conducting the funeral service.

Horner Military School.

The best commencement exercises of this school we have attended in several years took place at the Opera House Thursday evening. An immense audience was present. It is a well known fact that the Horner Military School ranks as one of the best classical schools in this country, as its fine records show. The boys always take high stands at the colleges and universities. We are pleased to express our opinion that the commencement just closed surpassed any we have heretofore attended.—Oxford Ledger.

The Horner School, of Oxford, N. C., points with pride to the standing maintained by her students in our Colleges. The two students who led the Freshman class of more than 100 students, which graduated in '97 at the University were both prepared at the Horner School. Five of the base-ball team were also from this school.

The Horner School asks for the continued patronage of North Carolina and promises the very best instruction and most systematic discipline, moral, mental and physical to be obtained.

Could Not Finish the Sentence.

Senator Pettigrew, of North Dakota, was suddenly stricken dumb in the midst of a spirited speech last Saturday. It was a slight stroke of paralysis about the vocal organs that rendered him unable to finish his sentence.

He left the Senate chamber and went to his home where he rapidly rallied and conversed freely. Nothing very serious is anticipated.
