Music Lovers Enjoy an Evening.

The concert by the Ladies' Aid Society of Central Methodist church which took place at the parsonage last evening, was largely attended, and each number of the splendid programme elicited great applause. Mr. Marshall Crowell's violin music was very much enjoyed, as was also the old-time tunes rendered by Mrs. H M Barrow. The singing of Miss Adah Craven was a special feature. The entertainment was quite a treat to the music lovers.

Items From Cold Springs.

Rev. J Homer Barnhardt preached an excellent sermon at Cold Springs last Sunday evening at 3 o'clock.

The little six-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. G D Bost fell from the porch Wednesday evening, breaking its leg. Dr. Barnhardt was sent for immediately.

Mrs. C W Earnhardt and children spent yesterday at Mr. D C Faggart's, Mrs. Earnhardt's father.

Miss Dora Faggart is spending a week in Concord.

There will be a ten days meeting held at Cold Springs some time in August.

Another marriage is booked in Cold Springs neighborhood, which will take place some time in the near future. GUESS WHO.

Want to Secure a Meet.

Bicyclists of this city who attended the races at Salisbury Friday say the races were decidedly tame. Several of our boys wanted to enter in competition for some of the prizes, but were not allowed to do so.

Some of the enthusiasts here want to secure a meet between the Salisbury bicyclists for a nice purse, divided, or as a whole. Can't the matter be arranged. Concord will be willing to run the races here, or at Salisbury, or just any old place.

Human Bones Dug Up.

P W Brown is having a cellar dug under his bar next to the opera house. An old pot, a shovel, four or five loads of rough stone, a quantity of ashes—probably an old fire place, quarter circular brick for building columns, and some bones have been taken out. As this place was, years ago, the private burying ground of the Yarborough family it is thought some were human bones.—Salisbury Truth.

Made Good Sales.

The woman who came to town last week and sold "jumping jacks" on the streets, worked the unsuspected town people for all they were worth. She canvassed the town from house to house and sold nearly every lady a box of insect powders—a quantity of powdered peas, put up in neat packages and labelled.

A Gloomy Epitaph.

A rude slab in an old Georgia cornfield bears the inscription: "On this spot Amos Wilkins was kicked by a mule. We hope he is in heaven, but so far his relatives have been unable to trace him."—Americus Herald.

Fever From a Spring.

The State board of health has searched for the cause of so much fever at Clemson College, S. C. The board finds the cause in a spring near the dairy. Its use is to be discontinued.

By the Pale Moonlight.

Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a delightful straw-ride last night, going from the city to the home of Mr. Cha. Sims, west of town.

We Are Getting Reform.

Statesville Landmark: The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer, writing of recent changes in the Agricultural Department, says:

The mailing clerk used to be a little boy. Now a well salaried man does that work. A clerk at $720 a year used to do what three men at an aggregate of some $3,000 are doing. At the museum the usher used to be an 18-year-old boy, at $15 per month. Now he is a kid in knickerbockers, at $30.

Oh, well, reform is what we voted for, isn't it? Well, we are getting it in large and frequent doses, and let us be content.

Four Women Sulfide.

A Paris sensation Thursday was the finding of four women and a dog all dead in a room from asphyxia, accomplished with burning charcoal. It was a deliberate suicide on the part of the women, who in a fit of despondency feasted, drank wine and smoked to the full, and all signed a message to relatives telling their deliberate purpose and fearless act.

The Ruiz Indemnity.

The Department of State has made out a claim against the government of Spain for $15,000 indemnity for treatment of Dr. Ruiz, and the claim is to be pressed at once.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results. Trial bottles free at Fetzler's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

Sharks Eat a Boat-Load of People.

LONDON, July 8.—Details which have just been received from the Indian Pilgrim steamer, Sultan, 100 miles east of the island of Socoter, the first news of which was brought to Colombo by the Peninsular & Oriental Company's steamer, Villetta, on June 15 last, showed that the first boat lowered from the Sultan was smashed to pieces and all its occupants eaten by sharks in sight of those remaining on board the steamer, and on board the Villetta. Twenty others who were rescued succumbed to their injuries while on the way to Colombo.

Appreciated.

A young man entered a fashionable church, and finding no ushers, took a seat. A pompous man presently came in and took the same pew. After fidgeting about nervously the pompous person took out a card, wrote on it and handed it to the young man, who read: "Do you know that I pay $500 for this pew?"

The young man handed back the card with this legend: "It is worth it."—From the Hartford Religious Herald.

An editor observing "that the census embraces 17,000,000 women," asks rapturously: "Who wouldn't be a census?"—Tit Bits.

Father Worth, who poses as the watch-dog of the State Treasury, refuses to pay any of the extra appropriations of the late fusion Legislature, and has read us many lectures against extravagance and wastefulness; he has also told us how the dear common people were oppressed by heavy taxes and ought not to be made to bear increased burdens. But what must we think of the Father when we know that he has just completed the refitting of his office, ("at enormous expense" as the circus man remarks) and that the floor is tiled, and the walls are tinted sky blue. How can a man who dwells in sky-blue walls retain his Democratic (or rather, Populist) simplicity.—Charlotte News.
