Some Suggestions

EDITOR STANDARD:

While it is the mission of the press to enlighten and do good, it is also the duty of its readers to throw in their mite in the good work. I desire space in THE STANDARD for a thought or two, which has often suggested itself to my mind.

Why is it that we do not have more stringent laws against two of the greatest crimes of our day—one against humanity by railway train wreckers, and the other against his person and property, by selling his vote and his birth-right. A railway train wrecker should suffer the extreme penalty of the law. Dead men don't wreck trains and crush, maim and kill innocent people by the score. A man that sells his vote, his birth-right, he sells his country and his freedom, as far as he is able, and he should be disfranchised forever, and sent to the penitentiary for a number of years—no matter what his standing is. Our liberty was dearly bought with the blood of our forefathers and it should be guarded with the most zealous care, and may our God, who controls the destinies of nations, check and roll back the tide of corruption that is sweeping over our country today and sapping the very life-blood out of the foundation of our beloved government. In my meandering of the last few years I have often asked intelligent people of both sexes what they thought of the tendencies of the times, and always with the same reply—"I believe we are rapidly approaching a great crisis."

Our ministers of the gospel, public speakers and writers should raise their voices and warn the people against this great crime of selling their birthright. Dr. Kilgo last Sunday warned the people against political corruption, which was dragging our great country to ruin.

Judge Montgomery, in a lecture recently, to the Sunday School children, very significantly referred to the downfall of Rome because of the wickedness of her people. He pleaded with the boys to do right and grow up to be good and useful men and citizens—be true to themselves and their country. The great statesman, Henry Clay, said he would rather be right than to be President. Our legislative hall is not blessed with but few of that sort nowadays. Nations that have lost favor with God by their wickedness and have fallen can well say as the Psalmist said: "Prostrate I lie before His throne, and there my guilt confess." Common sense teaches every intelligent man and woman that we cannot be passive and let our birthright be trifled with without a reckoning.

Toads in His Stomach.

Burlington, N. J., July 20.—John Cunningham is a farm hand in the employ of George Brock, near this city. For weeks he has been suffering from strange malady, and several physicians whom he consulted failed to give him relief.

On several occasions Cunningham grew so weak that he fell in the fields where he was at work. His weight dropped from 170 to 100 pounds, and he became a mere shadow. He said his sensation was as if something was crawling inside. He was treated in the German hospital, but was not benefited.

On Monday last Cunningham went under treatment at the hands of Randolph Stowell, who is not a graduate practitioner, but an "herb doctor," and since then has been at Stowell's house. Yesterday afternoon Cunningham felt "something give away" in his stomach.

He immediately reported the fact to Stowell, who administered an enema, and the result included 25 yards of tape worm and nearly a hundred small dead hoptoads.

The toads were less than a half inch in length, and looked as if they had just passed the period of incubation.

Cunningham thinks he swallowed the spawn of a toad while drinking water from a spring or brook in the country.

Cunningham at once began to regain strength and today went back to work on the farm.

A Just Complaint.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer writes:

"The Secretary of the State awards the contract for printing the 120th volume of the Supreme Court Reports to the James E. Goode Printing Company, of Richmond, at $914. Nash Bros., of Goldsboro, were the next lowest bidders, $979. In all there were seven bidders, four from Richmond. There is a good deal of complaint at this work going out of the State."

All State printing should be done in the State, and this act on the part of the men in authority is little less than an outrage on our people. There are hundreds of idle printers in the State who are deprived of work to earn an honest living by sending jobs like that out of the State, and the people are justified when they complain.

WARNING.

We wish to caution all users of Simmons Liver Regulator on a subject of the deepest interest and importance to their health—perhaps their lives. The sole proprietors and makers of Simmons Liver Regulator learn that customers are often deceived by buying and taking some medicine of a similar appearance or taste, believing it to be Simmons Liver Regulator. We warn you that unless the word Regulator is on the package or bottle, that it is not Simmons Liver Regulator. No one else makes, or ever has made Simmons Liver Regulator, or anything called Simmons Liver Regulator, but J. H. Zeilin & Co., and no medicine made by anyone else is the same. We alone can put it up, and we cannot be responsible, if other medicines represented as the same do not help you as you are led to expect they will. Bear this fact well in mind, if you have been in the habit of using a medicine which you supposed to be Simmons Liver Regulator, because the name was somewhat like it, and the package did not have the word Regulator on it, you have been imposed upon and have not been taking Simmons Liver Regulator at all. The Regulator has been favorably known for many years, and all who use it know how necessary it is for Fever and Ague, Bilious Fever, Constipation, Headache, Dyspepsia, and all disorders arising from a Diseased Liver.

We ask you to look for yourselves, and see that Simmons Liver Regulator, which you can readily distinguish by the Red Z on wrapper, and by our name, is the only medicine called Simmons Liver Regulator.

A Pitiful Discovery.

Fort Smith, Ark., July 21.—A shocking case of destitution came to light in this city yesterday. In an old shanty, within the shadow of the United States jail, lying on a pile of straw and covered with rags, was found Mrs. John Hauer, the widow of a once well-known German resident of Fort Smith, almost dead with malarial fever. In another corner lay two scantily clad corpses. They were the bodies of Mrs. Hauer's children, one six months, the other four years old. The children had died from disease, exposure and starvation. In the house were also found Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Hauser's mother, and three living children, all of whom were fast yielding to the pangs of hunger. Mrs. Hauer will die.
