WHOLE NO. 1,7

PLAY BALL.

Concord "Fans" Enthusiastic and Anxious for Good Ball.

Concord has not had a stronger ball team since the days of the old "Lone Nine" than at present. Our boys are in excellent form, and are ready to meet any and all comers. The national game has many enthusiastic admirers here, and whenever a game is played on the home grounds the "fans" turn out in force.

Rocky River team has expressed a desire to cross bats again with our boys, and they will probably be accommodated in the near future.

It is more than likely that the Salisbury team will be given a chance on their own grounds to retrieve themselves of the most inglorious defeat they suffered at the hands of our boys last week. The Salisbury World of Monday says:

"Mr. Frank Rogers, of Concord, was in the city this morning for a short while. We learn that the object of Mr. Rogers' visit here was to arrange a game of baseball between the Salisbury and Concord teams. We believe that Spencer would be glad to tackle Concord on Salisbury grounds next Saturday."

FATS VS. LEANS.

Here is an event that promises to furnish abundant amusement to all who witness it. The "Fats" have thrown down the glove to the "Leans," the challenge has been accepted, and Tuesday, July 10, has been decided upon as the date for the game. Time will be called at 4 o'clock. The players have not yet been assigned their positions, but the following are the names of the gentlemen who will participate in the game:

Fats—Jesse Hamilton, C E Cornelius, A L Sappenfield, J B Caldwell, Lewis Klutz, Geo. Ould, Dock Corzine, M C Walter, Jno. Wadsworth.

Leans—W L Bell, S J Lowe, Luther Hartzell, William Propst, D J Bostian, W G Boshamer, Caleb Swink, Jno. D Barrier, Dr. Herring.

Each side will have a few extra men on the bench to take the places of any who may become disabled in the game.

The "Fats" feel confident of an easy victory over their light-weight opponents. The combined weight of the big team is 1,900 pounds.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Games in the National League Monday resulted as follows:

Brooklyn 8; New York 9.
Baltimore 4; Philadelphia 2.
Louisville 5; Cleveland 3.
Washington 9; Boston 7.
Cincinnati 9; Pittsburg 2.
Chicago and St Louis played two games, the former club winning both.

They're Off.

J L Brown and H G Ritz, representing the Concord hose and reel company, left this morning for the Fayetteville tournament. Mr. Eli Goldston could not get away from his business and Mr. Ritz goes in his stead. The boys will be joined at Salisbury, Greensboro, and many other places along the route with other delegations to the tournament, and it will be a jolly crowd of laddies that will reach Fayetteville this evening. The business meeting takes place today and the contests will begin tomorrow.
