HAD HYDROPHOBIA.

Pastor Physicians Say so After Expert Examination—Barrier Boys Receiving Last Treatment.

Dr. P. A. Barrier, of Mt. Pleasant, has received information from the officials of the Pasteur Institute at Baltimore, to the effect that after careful examination of the brains taken from the head of the dog sent from this place to that institution, it has developed that the canine had rabies. This intelligence confirms the belief of every one who saw the dog at the time or before it was killed.

The letter further states that the Barrier boys, Paul and Robert, who are there under treatment, are getting along nicely and that they are receiving the final treatment. They will be sent home within the next two weeks.

A Suspicious Dog Killed.

The large black dog belonging to Tommie Hopkins was killed Friday night, the owner and others claiming that it showed symptoms of hydrophobia, and they were afraid of it. Dog days are ended with him.

Forest Hill News.

Robt. Turner, of Anson county, is visiting the family of Mr. Klutz, the photographer, at this place.

Mr. E. D. McCollum, of Asheville, is visiting his brother, Mr. J. M. McCollum, of this city. The former has charge of the weaving department in the Asheville Cotton Mills. The Textile Excelsior, of Charlotte, says this is the first vacation Mr. McCollum has taken in twelve years.

Mr. W. A. Warner returned from Montgomery yesterday after a few days absence.

Mr. J. K. Deaton, who lives a few miles west of town, has invented a double cultivator, for which he has applied for a patent.

Notwithstanding the rain last night quite a crowd gathered at the home of Mr. Daniel Stiller and gave him and bride a noisy serenade with bells, old tin pans, horns etc. No one was hurt.

Robert Green Dead.

Robert J. Green, the 19 year old son of Jesse Green, of Cannonville, died Friday night, after a two weeks spell of typhoid fever. Deceased was a member of Mt. Carmel Methodist church, from which place the funeral will be conducted this afternoon at 4 o'clock by the Rev. G. G. Harney.

Deceased lived with his father, and had been a resident of this city for one year. He leaves a young wife to mourn his death.

Microbes Under Cover.

Since the attention of the authorities was called to the dangerous well in the lot in rear of the Morris and Coleman property by THE STANDARD Friday afternoon, the well has been covered by plank, which have been placed there temporarily to hold the fever germs and microbes under cover. The plank are nailed fast, or course, or the germs would carry the covering away.

Bent Us Badly.

Mr. G. W. Redfearn comes to the front with a cabbage which measures six feet and six inches across.—Monroe Enquirer.

We were exhibiting and boasting of a cabbage head 3 feet and 4 inches in circumference but this head lays us in the shade. There might be snakes in that cabbage head, it seems to us.

At the home of Mr. M. Boger, in No. 10 township, on Monday next, a picnic will be given by Miss Addie Boger complimentary to Miss Pattie Ross, of Albemarle. Hours, from 4 to 9 o'clock. Several of our young folks have received invitations to be present.

DIVORCES GRANTED.

Two Women and One Man Complain and are Released from the Sacred Bonds.

Attorneys Montgomery and Crowell had a considerable rush in divorce cases before his honor, Judge Coble and the jury Friday evening just before the jurors were discharged for the term.

The first application was that of Maggie S. Willis, who was granted a divorce from W. H. Willis, her husband, on the grounds of abandonment.

The second case was that of Emma Misenheimer, who was granted a divorce from her husband, O. W. Misenheimer, on good and sufficient grounds.

B. L. Scarborough was granted a divorce from Hattie Scarborough, his wife, on the grounds of unfaithfulness.

Although divorce proceedings are popular, it is very unusual in Cabarrus courts.

Without Gloves.

Two young white women had a lively fisticuff at Cannonville yesterday, in which the participants went at each other with the gloves off. There was neither time-keeper nor seconds present, but the fight is said to have lasted several rounds. Beyond a few scratches and the loss of a bunch of hair out of the head of each, no damage was done.

Assaulted a Blind Man.

One of the meanest acts we have noticed among the news of the day is an assault on a blind man in Sampson county by the name of Noah Royan, who was waylaid and beaten, supposedly to death, with probably not a single grievance save the guilt of scandal on the part of the one suspected as perpetrator.

STORES WILL CLOSE.

Wednesday Will Be a Gala Day and a Red Letter One for Concord.

As was announced in THE STANDARD several days ago, that in would be done, the ladies have visited the merchants, with a petition, which has been left at this office. It reads: We, the undersigned merchants of Concord, agree to close our stores on Wednesday, the 11th, inst. (Reunion Day) from 10 o'clock a. m. to 4 o'clock p. m.:

Gibson & Morrison, Erwin & Smith, Swluk & White, Littles & Cornelius, Stricker & Sons, Lowe & Dick, D. J. Boston, Ould Mercantile Co., G. W. Peterson, W. J. Hill, W. C. Coleman, P. H. Morris & Sons, J. C. A. Brown, W. F. S. Siders, G. W. Brown, H. G. Ritz, D. P. Daynard, A. L. Sappenfield, J. L. Miller, Bell, Harris & Co., Cannon & Patzer Co., Lippards & Barrier, J. C. Smith, Dove & Best, Solomon Einstein, J. T. Pounds, A. J. & J. F. Yorks, Yorke Wadsworth & Co., Lee's Commercial College, Miss Mary Brarben, Miss Nannie Alexander.

VERY HANDSOME THING.

The Fourth Regiment Drum Corps is largely composed of sons of veterans, and will not only furnish music on next Wednesday, the 11th, but they will throw open their large rooms over the Times office, where the veterans, their wives and daughters can rest from the dust and bustle of the street.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago says: I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physicians' prescriptions or other preparations.

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: I have been a minister of the Methodist Episcopal church for 50 years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery. Try this deal Cough Remedy now. Trial Bottles free at Feszer's Drug Store.

NO GAME

At Forest Hill Yesterday on Account of Rain.

The game which was to have been played Friday between Rocky River and Concord teams was declared off on account of the rain. The fans were disappointed, but it is thought that a game may be arranged for some day week after next.

Aubrey Hoover's nine has arranged for a game with the second nine of Flowe's, to be played on the Forest Hill diamond next Friday afternoon.

In reference to the proposed game between Reidsville and Concord, will say the former nine cannot give us a date before the 18th of August. National League games played yesterday resulted as follows:

St. Louis 4; Pittsburg 5.
Boston 6; Baltimore 5.
Philadelphia 2; New York 9.
Chicago 7; Cleveland 5.
Brooklyn 15; Washington 5.

ATLANTIC LEAGUE.

Hartford 8, Newark 1.
Patterson 2, Lancaster 6.
Norfolk 5, Athletics 8.
Norfolk 9, Athletics 1.
Richmond 12, Reading 3.
Richmond 12, Reading 5.

HARTSELL WINS.

Decision of the Jury in the Case of Hartsell Against Coleman is a Verdict for the Plaintiff.

In the case of J. L. Hartsell, plaintiff, against W. C. Coleman and others, defendants, which occupied three whole days of the court, the jury returned a verdict this (Saturday) at noon, in favor of Mr. Hartsell, the plaintiff.

The first consideration for the jury was: "Is the plaintiff owner of the land described in the complaint?" Which was answered in the affirmative, excepting the land contained in the Coleman deed, beginning at the intersection of Mill and Spring streets, running with the lines called for in his (Coleman's) deed.

The jury also found that plaintiff was entitled to $66 per annum, which, from the time Mr. Hartsell became possessed of the land, makes a total of $265.83.

Much interest was manifested in this suit, which is now famous for its record.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon Attorney W. G. Means, who appeared for the defendant, made a motion to set aside the verdict of the jury. He did this on the grounds that one Peter Barnhardt had been seen in conversation with L. C. Earnhardt, a juror, after the trial had begun, charging that said Peter Barnhardt might have influenced juror L. C. Earnhardt, by discussing the case upon its merits etc.

It was accompanied by affidavits of C. A. Pitts, W. C. Coleman and W. G. Means.

The result will be announced in this paper Monday.

Frank Eggart Had the Big Head.

Mr. Walker, of No. 6 township, brought THE STANDARD a cabbage head weighing 11½ pounds, which was the largest we had ever seen.

Today, however, Mr. Frank Eggart, of No. 11 township, sets him in the shade, having brought to our optical vision a cabbage-head measuring 3 feet 6 inches in circumference, weighing 16½ pounds. This, of course, does not compare with the Union county man, that raised a head that measured "six feet across," but surpasses anything yet brought to the Concord market.
