TOMORROW'S GAME.

In Baseball Circles Interest is Great—Fats and Leans are Ready for the

OULD AT BAT.

Low Ball, Please!

Tomorrow's game between the "fats" and the "leans" is the talk of the town—everybody is eager to take a peep at the diamond when it will be decorated with the contrasted make-up.

ON DECK.

"I'm a sky scraper."

The game will be played at the Forest Hill baseball park, and will be called promptly at 4 o'clock. Dr. R S Young will umpire.

Run Jesse, Run!

Tickets for the game can be secured at J L Miller's and Johnson's drug store. Straight ticket 10 cents, reserved seat 20 cents. Everybody is going.

You're Safe.

The game will be intensely interesting throughout. Just think of Jesse Hamilton, G W Ould, J B Caldwell, M C Walter, Doc Corzine and that crowd of big fellows playing the set of thin men like George Murr, W L Bell, W G Boshamer, J D Barrier, and others—it will be the funniest thing that has amused the people for years.

If Huntersville will come, the Concord baseball club will entertain them at the park Wednesday afternoon. An invitation has been sent them, asking for a game on that day.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

The games in the National League, played Saturday, resulted as follows: Brooklyn 9, Washington 1. Cincinnati 5, Louisville 0. Philadelphia 1, New York 11. Pittsburg 12, St. Louis 3. Chicago 9, Cleveland 8. Boston 4, Baltimore 2.

ATLANTIC LEAGUE.

Norfolk 7, Athletics 10. Newark 9, Hartford 8. Paterson 4, Lancaster 8. Richmond 5, Reading 1. Richmond 18, Reading 1.

From Concord to Raleigh.

Mr. Vernon, travelling passenger agent of the Southern, went to Concord last evening to charter an excursion train from there to Raleigh. The date of the excursion is the 22d. It will be run by parties in Concord. —Charlotte Observer.

[There must be some mistake about this. There is no one in Concord that would attempt to run a Sunday excursion.]

One Dozen Make a Peck.

Mr. R V Caldwell certainly deserves a chromo for having the finest peaches in this section of the State. Saturday last he presented Mr. Charles J Harris with one dozen of the largest, prettiest peaches ever seen in this town. The dozen filled a peck measure.

Couldn't Make It.

A runaway couple arrived in the city this morning from Salisbury, on their way to South Carolina, where they will be married. It was their intention to obtain license from Register Weddington, but he was notified not to issue them, the female to the contract being not of marriageable age.

THE STANDARD was unable to get their names.

Notice.

I hereby forbid any and all persons to harbor my wife or her goods. The law will be put in full force against offenders and this is fair notice. H W BLACKWELDER. Aug. 5, 1896. 3tw.

PROF. E B. LEWIS.

That is the Superintendent Elected to Take Charge of City Schools.

At a meeting of the graded school board, which was held in the office of Dr. H C Herring this (Monday) morning, the matter of electing a superintendent was brought up, and there being only three members present, the names of Prof. E B Lewis, of Kinston, N. C., and Prof. Nathan E Aull, of Newberry, S. C., were presented for consideration. When put to a vote, Prof. Lewis received two votes and Prof. Aull one. Mr. D B Coltrane was the absent member, which resulted in breaking the deadlock of the commissioners.

Prof Lewis has been highly recommended to the board as an efficient educator with considerable experience in graded school work. Dr. E A Alderman, of the State University says of him:

"There are few men in the South who have had better educational experience and advantages than Prof. E B Lewis. In culture, scholarship and wide travel, he has had experiences and opportunities that are exceptional. He has good address, good manners and is a student of educational subjects. I believe he will make you a strong man."

Other men of prominence in educational circles, such as Dr. G A Grimsley, of the Clark University, Worcester, Mass., Prof. J Y Joyner, of the English department of the State Normal at Greensboro, and Charles J Parker, of the educational bureau of Raleigh, endorse and recommend him.

Prof. Lewis is expected to arrive in the city about the 1st of September and will meet with the school board at their regular meeting next month.

OLD VETERANS.

Long Tables to Be Built—Other Preparatory Arrangements.

The Committee of Arrangements for the reunion and picnic of the old veterans are the busiest people in town, arranging for the great day, Wednesday, the 11th.

Long tables on which the dinner will be served will be erected tomorrow. Everything preparatory will be done tomorrow, except the few attentions that will have to be looked after on Wednesday morning.

Large delegations will be here from Rowan and Mecklenburg counties.

Stores and houses are beginning to decorate and the city will take on its gala attire in full tomorrow. It will be a great day.

For the Young Ladies.

The committee of arrangements, knowing that all want to do something and the young ladies are always equal to the task of putting on the finishing touches, consign to them especially the floral decoration of the soldiers' monument on Wednesday morning before the opening of the exercises. Chords can be stretched about it and festoons can be attached in that deft and graceful style that the flowers of humanity can manipulate.
