BASBALL GALORE.

The Game Tuesday Afternoon One of the Most Amusing Contests Ever Seen on a Concord Diamond—Interest Great—Large Attendance and Receipts.

When Concord becomes stirred up on anything she goes with all her might and main to make whatever it may be a success.

The baseball game Tuesday afternoon between the "Fats" and the "Leans" was a great attraction at baseball park and the entire city turned out en masse. There were six or seven hundred persons who witnessed the game throughout, and interest was as manifest at the close as it was at the beginning.

The "Fats" were composed of nine of the largest men in the city, those playing on that side having got in seven men over the home plate in the first inning, the "Fats" were somewhat rattled. They did their best playing at the close of the game and the opinion of the entire crowd was that if another inning had been played the "Fat" would have waxed it on them.

Mr. W D Shoemaker acted as substitute and took the place of Mr. Walter in the third inning. Messrs. Ould, Klutz and Shoemaker did the pitching and Messrs. J C Wadsworth and Will Parnell did the catching on their side.

A LEAN MAN LAST NIGHT.

Dreamed he was catching flies—but he couldn't

The "Leans" fought the battle well and deserved the victory, being the thinnest set of men that could be brought to face the terrors of a giant team like their antagonists. The following men comprised the team: Messrs. S J Lowe, James K Deaton, George M Murr, L D Coltrane, W L Bell, Gus Hartsell, John R Patterson, W G Boshamer and J D Barrier. Messrs Deaton, Patterson and Coltrane twirled the ball and Messrs. Murr and Coltrane worked behind the bat.

Mr. Y C Caldwell did the most trying work of the game, having been called in as umpire. Under the circumstances he was placed at a terrible disadvantage, but his decisions gave satisfaction to all concerned.

Miss Corrinne Harris acted as official scorer, assisted by Mr. Q E Smith.

The rotors occupied the field just east of third base and pulled hard for the "Fats" but the "Leans"

Hoover, Alex Boyd, Geo Richmond Edgar Caldwell, John Alexander and Joe Hill, were there in colors, red and tan, representing the "Fats" and added no little to the amusing features of the game.

Mr. J B Willeford was the only man to make three bases on any one one knocked ball. Mr. J B Caldwell and Dr. Jesse Hamilton succeeded in tapping up several long flies.

Mr. Boshamer made a reputation to be proud of as a shortstop. In fact all the players did exceedingly well for the practice they have had.

The entire afternoon was pleasantly spent by the players and the spectators, and at the close of the game the score was announced, 18 to 16 in favor of the "Leans."

Score by innings were marked up as follows:
Leans—6 6 3 0 3—18.
Fats—3 4 2 2 5—16.

Some of the "Fats" are dissatisfied with the result of the game and have challenged the "Leans" for another fray at some future time.
