TERRIBLE VENGEANCE FOR TERRIBLE CRIME.

The negro, Brackett, that so cruelly humiliated and outraged Miss Kittie Henderson in Buncombe county last Sunday, was taken from the officers in charge and hanged yesterday afternoon in the presence of the unfortunate victim of his passions.

It was a most determined crowd, and it is fortunate that only one life was taken, and that too a life unfit to exist among his fellow-men. Of course we would all feel prouder of the law-abidingness of North Carolinians if no mobs ever occurred within the State, yet there can be no tears to shed when no mercy is shown to him who has no mercy and no regard for that which is dearer than life.

No shadow of doubt exists as to the guilt of the victim. He was identified and confessed guilt.

ANOTHER OUTRAGE.

Still the most outrageous of all crimes continues. Miss Kittie Henderson, of Weaver ville, Buncombe county, was the victim of a brutal assault last Sunday on her way home from Sunday school.

In vain she plead her weakness and physical misfortune. The negro showed no mercy or consideration. Now, if caught by the incensed vindicators of her purity and gets about the same mercy he gave, it is needless to cry down the lynching. Let the crime stop and the lynchings will stop.

Secretary of the Interior Bliss sounds a warning against the effort to reach Klondyke any more this season.

The Salisbury World feels fairly sure that Spencer is to have large iron works soon.

Charlotte is to have a new Populist daily paper, says the Salisbury Sun.

Following the Excursion.

Mr. A. A. Almone, in coming from China Grove this morning, met a horse running with a wagon as if doing his very best to catch the excursion train that had just passed him. Coming on to Bethel siding, he found two women and three children that the horse had unloaded, without injury, by which to make better speed.

The horse and wagon were the property of George Johnston. He and his son were met on their way to induce his horse to give up the trip to Wilmington and return home.

Dry's Mill Items.

The farmers of this section are engaged in turning stubbles.

Mr. M. B. Ramage lost a horse last week.

Master Boyd Dry, who has been suffering with jawache for a few days, is better.

We are also glad to hear that Mrs. W. D. J. Moore is improving.

Mr. Jacob O. Moose left Monday morning for Newton, N. C., where he expects to enter Catawba College. His many friends wish him great success.

Mr. A. S. Lentz and family, also Mr. and Mrs. James E. Moose, of Albemarle, are visiting in and around our burgh.

Mr. DeDerry Misenheimer, of Copal Grove, is a citizen of Dry's Mill this week, as he is superintending putting in some machinery at the Honeycutt gold mine.

Miss Dora Ritchie of St. John's neighborhood, is at Mr. V. C. Lentz's being instructed in music.

The Official Vote.

The school tax proposition, which was submitted to a vote of the people on Tuesday last resulted in defeat—not a single township in the county carrying a majority for it. Below is the official vote by townships:
