WHOLE NO. 1,806

THE INEVITABLE BEGUN.

Miners Growing Violent—Property Being Destroyed.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Aug. 17.—According to reports coming in here trouble is likely to occur among the miners at Corinth, West Virginia. The trouble was precipitated by the release of three Italians who had been under arrest charged with threatening to blow up the mine and brick plant of the Oakland Coal Company.

Other strikers armed with guns went to the homes of six miners who had returned to work and destroyed their property. They fired at a Deputy United States Marshal who interfered. Great alarm is felt at the mines as to the outcome.

Items From Faith.

A vein of minerals half a mile long has been discovered on T C Wyatt's farm, near Pool, Rowan county. A shaft has been sunk 62 feet deep on the vein, which proves to be good, and is 6 to 7 feet wide at the bottom. We secured some of the ore for the department at the North Carolina State Fair this fall.

Miss Joanna Cline, of near Concord, is visiting her sister, Mrs. S Charles Moore.

Mr. Will Dry contemplates moving to Faith soon. He lives near Concord.

Cephus Parks, of near Pool, was up at Faith and picked out a building lot on which he will build.

Frank Williams bought a Chillian mill from J T Wyatt to grind up his rich gold ore. He sends the gold to Charlotte, where he gets the cash for it. His mine is known as the "Gold Knob" mine, and there is a large lot of ore there in sight. When a mine is worked for the gold that is in it, then the old-time gold-grinder, or Chillian mill, is the surest thing to save the gold.

Making grape wine, and kraut and drying fruit, is the order of the day here, now.

CORRESPONDENT.

The State Fair.

We have the premium list of the 37th annual State fair before us. This fair will embrace the 18th to 23rd of October, being formally opened by Governor Russell, at 12 m., on the 19th.

$5,000 are offered in premiums, embracing all the departments in which there is a desire to excel.

The arrangements of the list seem very complete and promising of a most attractive fair.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, constipation, dizziness yields to Electric Bitters. 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzler's Drug Store.

Andree Heard From.

Stockholm, August 17.—The sealing ship Alken Spoken, in latitude 8 degrees 47 minutes, reports that one of the sailors shot an exhausted pigeon. Tied between the bird's legs was the message: "To Aftonblate, 83 degrees; passed good journey northward. Andree." The message was brought to Advent Bay August 11th by the steamship's express, which was conveying Lerner to the polar expedition. Lerner spoke at Alken July 20th.

VICTORIOUS CONCORD.

Reidsville Took Her Defeat Hard Because Her Players Were Outclassed—Good Playing on Both Sides—A Thousand Spectators—An Old Song—Score 8 to 3.

At the lowest estimation one thousand spectators witnessed the game of baseball played by Concord and Reidsville teams at the Forest Hill Park Tuesday afternoon. It was indeed a splendid game, and clean, throughout. Reidsville had a good team, and the battery, Tucker and Keatts, did some excellent work, but their support in the field was not up to the ordinary. The visitors played good ball, but were simply outclassed by the crack home team.

Weddington and Reed, Concord's excellent battery, did a good evening's work and sustained their reputation as being first-class baseballists. They were supported by a field of as good players as can be found on any amateur nine. Misheimer covered himself all over with glory and carried the grand stand wild by his excellent playing on second base. He was among the stars and plays good ball. Ed put out eight men.

Tucker gave four men bases on balls, made four wild pitches and struck out eight men, while Weddington gave no bases, made three wild pitches and struck out eight men.

Mr. Y C Caldwell umpired the game, and deserves great praise and was highly complimented for his impartiality and unbiased decisions, notwithstanding the curses of the visiting team, who accused him of being unfair. Caldwell's alright and his work was greatly appreciated.

The umpire was hardly responsible for the wild pitch of Tucker, which let two of the home boys score, nor was he unbiased or impartial when Reed knocked a two-bagger over in the corn field, when Fisher and Caldwell scored in the seventh inning. Fisher knocked a two-bagger which brought in two men also.

That old song about the "umpire cheated us out of it" don't go any more. The ball and runners do, however, when our boys get a chance.

The score by inning resulted as follows:

Reidsville 0 1 0 0 2 0 0 0—3
Concord 3 1 0 0 0 4 0 —8

Messrs. J A Fetzler, of Reidsville, and W W Morris, of this city scored.

The Reidsville nine was composed of a gentlemanly set of young men, whose conduct on the play grounds and elsewhere was such as ought to be associated with every club. They enjoyed their visit, despite their defeat, but could not be induced to stay over for another game.

They left an invitation for our boys to visit Reidsville and give them a game, which will very likely take place in two weeks.

Players and positions of Tuesday's game were:

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamonddale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results. Trial bottles free at Fetzler's Drug Store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.
