THE PRECIOUS STUFF.

The Montgomery Mine at Work—A New Shaft to Be Opened.

The Montgomery gold mine, just beyond the city's corporate limits on the west, which has been idle for quite a while, resumed work Monday morning. The mine is owned by Senator Jones, of Nevada, and is said to be very rich. Capt. Stith, a northern capitalist and gentleman of considerable mining experience is expected in the city today in the interest of the mine.

Several hands are now at work and the water is being pumped out of the old shaft. A new shaft will be opened and quite a large force of hands will be put to work soon. Capt. Alf Shirley, of Randolph county, has charge of the underground work.

The Discovery Saved His Life

Mr. G. Cailloutte, Druggist, at Beaverville, Ill., says: To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it. Get a free trial at Fetzer's Drug Store.

Shot Twice.

The Observer says Ed Lucky, colored, was shot twice late Saturday night by Will Neely, also colored. One ball entered his side, the other his face, just below the eye. The wounds are not necessarily fatal. Neely, when informed that the police were after him, drew two pistols in a defiant manner but let prudence get the better of his valor and skipped.

IT SNOWED

At Old Fort and Other Points Up the Western Railroad Sunday Night.

From passengers coming down the Western railroad the Salisbury World learns that it snowed at Old Fort and other points up the Western Sunday night. Snow in August is something unusual in this climate but that snow fell thick and fast seems to be no doubt.

After all, this does not seem to be so very remarkable when it is remembered that there is a certain locality in this county where frost occurs each month in the year.

Good Times A-Coming.

In a group of Southern merchants at the Carrollton Hotel the other night was Mr. John B Norris, of Goldsboro, N. C. He was just as merry as a school boy over the advancing prosperity, and he was bubbling over with information when a representative of the American sounded him on the condition of trade. He said: 'I have just finished a tour of nearly all sections of North and South Carolina, and I can speak advisedly on the condition of affairs there. Everything is prospering there and I attribute it all to the fine crops of this year. The crops of this year have been wonderfully remunerative. Baltimore merchants have made a careful study of the wants of the Southern merchants and our people can do better here than elsewhere. Many people labor under the impression that this is the best season for the fall trade. The truth of the matter is that nearly all of the fall stock was sold by drummers during May and June. There are some things that the merchants want to buy in person, and that is the reason for their appearance here at this time. Then there is a general feeling of alarm among the Baltimore houses over the fact that a number of the Southern buyers do not stop here but go direct to New York. Every one of these people return to Baltimore, and the truth of the matter is that a better portion of their goods are bought here. The Southern trade is of a rural nature, and by careful study the Baltimore houses have secured the proper staples in supplying the wants of these people. Baltimore's trade is growing, and there is no need of cheap excursions in getting Southern buyers here. They would come anyhow.'—Baltimore American.

In a Bad Fix.

The Greensboro Record says: "A gentleman who has just returned from a trip in the eastern part of the State said yesterday:

"I feel sorry for the people of that section. The other day I was in the largest store in a good-sized town when a young lady came in and said to the proprietor of the store that she had $86 in county script in her hand, and wanted to know if she could buy goods at the store. The man told her that he would sell her anything he had at as long time as she desired, but that he could not take the script, for not a dollar was in the treasury and that he did not know when there would be. The lady said she was a teacher and had just been paid. She did not know what to do, for she said she had to live and look after her mother and she had no other means of support. I find in many of these eastern counties just such a state of affairs. Things are in control of the worst element of the politicians of the republican faith—negroes and illiterate whites—who have brought things to a pretty pass."
