There will be the usual services at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow morning.

We are sorry to learn that Rev. A. E. Wiley, of Mt. Pleasant, is quite sick, probably of grip of severe form.

The depot at Ruffin, nine miles from Reidsville, was struck by lightning and burned Tuesday night.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church will meet next Monday at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. R. S. Harris.

Rev. I. N. McLaughlin, the pastor, began the regular yearly meeting at Back Creek A. R. P. church Friday night. The meeting will continue through next week.

Arrangements are being made to secure one or more games with the Mountain Island and Concord clubs, to be played here next week, probably Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Concord High School hat is much in evidence nowadays. The colors of the school are crimson and navy blue, and the blue hat with the crimson band is seen everywhere.

Mr. Hint Hathcock killed two rattlesnakes near Wadeville that he says would have filled a half bushel. One had 14 rattles; the other was larger, but its rattles had been broken off.—Troy Trojan.

While the steeple at St. James' Lutheran church is undergoing repairs the bell cannot be rung. Attendants on the services will be governed by the town clock. See time of services in church directory column.

A young lady was seen to get a mouthful of chewing gum from the bark of a hickory-nut tree Friday, while in the country.

Mr. J. W. Gibbs, engineer at the Cabarrus Mills, and wife have gone to Charlotte, where he has accepted a position with the D. A. Tompkins Company. We regret to see them leave, as they have made many friends during their stay here since last March. His wife did not stop in Charlotte, but will go on to Asheville for a visit of a week or two.

The editor of the Stanly Enterprise, in writing up a good time at Mr. Monroe Dry's, adds: "By the way, we must not neglect to state that Stanly county has a genius in the person of Mr. Frank Osborne, who is an expert organ builder. While at Mr. Dry's we listened to the music of one of his build and we could not tell any difference had it been put up in Boston."

Picnic at Back Creek.

Several hundred people gathered in the large grove at Back Creek church in Mecklenburg county Friday, the occasion being the closing of Mr. R. J. Cochrane's school, a picnic and a baseball game.

At 11 o'clock a short programme of exercises was rendered in the church, Dr. Gray, of Huntersville, addressing the audience on education. Following the exercises came the dinner, which was spread upon a long table erected for the purpose. After dinner the Back Creek and Rocky River baseball nines crossed bats resulting in a victory for Rocky River.

The day was one full of events and greatly enjoyed by all those present, there being quite a number from this city.

Has Appendicitis.

His numerous friends will be sorry to learn that Mr. Williamson Morris is down with appendicitis. While in town Monday last he was taken to the home of Mr. W. A. Smith, in quite a feeble condition. He has been there since confined to his bed. He is reported as resting easier today.
