CONCORD, N. C., WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 15, 1897

WHOLE NO. 197

AT THE SCHOOLS.

Nearly Five Hundred Pupils—Room for Thirty-Six More.

From the enormous attendance at the beginning, the graded schools of the city will have about as many as they can accommodate during the present term.

The aggregate number of all the white school children attending the graded schools is four hundred and ninety-two.

Superintendent Lewis informs THE STANDARD that there is room for thirty six more children, and that in case there are more than that number added to the enrollment, special arrangements will necessarily have to be made for their accommodation.

The work has started off under the most pleasing auspices.

The Subscription Carried.

A special to the Charlotte Observer from Norwood concerning the proposed Concord and Aberdeen railroad, says:

"The election held in Centre township for a subscription of $10,000 to the proposed railroad from Aberdeen via Norwood, to Concord, carried by a good majority."

A Family Crushed in Spirits.

Charlotte has a painful episode in the case of Mrs. W C Traywick, who, probably laboring under the terrible malady of kleptomania, robbed her joint occupant of a rented house, Mrs. Guss Orr, of the sum of $48. Mrs. Traywick confessed the deed to Chief Orr, and gave way in a faint. She has been a prominent member of her Sunday school, and her family and friends are crushed with mortification and grief.

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

A Macon county correspondent of the Asheville Citizen says: "With an abundant wheat crop, corn above the average and an average day cash market for cattle, Macon county bids fair to receive her share of the good things of earth, and will join in a hearty thanksgiving for the return of better days. There is an active interest in cattle raising, lively demand for calves and more stock is being fed in the valley than for a number of years past. This shows that our farmers are alive to their best interests. We shall soon see more advanced methods of sowing and feeding the corn and small grain and the grass crops."

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate their bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alternative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, aiding strength and giving to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the function. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzer's Drug Store.

—Rev. H N Miller, of Mt. Pleasant, returned from a trip to Charlotte last night.

NOT FATALLY HURT.

A Boy Fell Thirty Feet From a Tree, But Held to His Opossum.

Calvin Beaver, the 18-year-old son of Mrs. Calvin Beaver, at Cannonville, is suffering from the effects of a great fall.

Several hours before day Monday morning a number of young boys started out for a 'possum hunt. When reaching the large grove just beyond Rocky Ridge, the dogs struck a trail and one of the grinning animals was seen perched upon a limb at the top of a tall oak tree.

Calvin Beaver was the first to offer to scale the tree, and up he went, the others watching his ascent. The boy was successful in catching the 'possum and had started down the tree, when an old farmer appeared on the scene and hollered at him. The boy was so badly frightened that he turned loose from the tree instead of the 'possum and fell a distance of about thirty feet. He held to the 'possum, however, and the animal, with the boy, was carried to town.

Had not his companions grouped themselves together and let him fall on their shoulders, Beaver would have very likely, been dashed to death upon the ground. He was severely, though not fatally injured. No bones were broken, but the boy is terribly bruised.

Sent to the Chaugang.

Dick Morse, the traveling minister, whose home is in Charlotte, is now conducting religious services at our State Capital. It seems that one in his audience could not stand some of his pointed remarks and so replied to the minister, using some oaths in connection with his reply. The police took the gentleman in at once, and arraigned him before Maury Russ. When asked for an explanation of his disorderly conduct, he answered:

"You see," that man was running down our people here. He said the preachers were only preaching for their salaries; the town officers weren't doing their duties. He 'lowed that he wan't preaching the old Bible, but a new one. I heard enough of this and then I asked him — what he'd take for his old one."

That was Josephus' explanation, but the mayor didn't think his way, so he sent him to the roads for thirty days.

A Shattered Ideal.

One of the greatest sorrows of famous personages is that it is impossible to live up to the ideal opinion which the people whom they meet in the ordinary affairs of life have formed of them.

It is recorded that a certain literary man of high reputation had occasion to remark to a waiter in the restaurant where he sometimes lunches:

"Waiter, this beestack is very tough."

The waiter looked at him with a sorrowful expression, and sighed deeply.

"Perhaps you will tell me," said the literary man, "why you sigh in that fashion."

"Ah, sir," said the waiter, "I took you for a man who always said original things; and here you come and say just the same thing that all the rest of them do."—Church paper.

THE CONCORD ABERDEEN.

Bonds Being Voted in all the Counties Along the Line.

Ninety miles of railroad will be built at some future time from Aberdeen to Concord, covering a territory of the finest country on the Atlantic coast.

Already $130,000 has been voted for the construction of the road, $55,000 of which is divided between Moore, Richmond and Stanly counties.

At an election held at Norwood Tuesday, $10,000 was voted for the road, and Mr. W J Black, a merchant of that town, wrote the following to Mr. John C Wadsworth, of this city, who is secretary and treasurer of the road:

"One hour by run we lacked twenty votes to carry, but by sundown we had run in forty. Get ready to shovel dirt."

A Big Yield of Lint.

Mr. D H Wilkinson, of Mill Hill, called today, renewed for THE STANDARD and showed us his bill of weight from the weigher.

His bale cotton weighed 592 pounds, and he said his seed cotton only weighed only 1,480 pounds.

All ginners will know that this is a most extraordinary turn out. Mr. Wilkinson says it is due to the particular variety of cotton. He says it has been yielding at this rate ever since he has been cultivating it. "I could easily have been ahead for the first bale," said he, "if I could have picked my cotton promptly."

PERSONAL POINTERS.

—Mr. C T Moore has gone to Salisbury on a brief trip.

Furniture and Horses.

Some horses can be bought for $5 others will cost $100, any difference. So with Furniture. Ours is the Standard. We get more for our goods. Why? It costs more to make them, they are better, they last, they give satisfaction, insuring comfort. Customers see these points and are willing to buy a good horse. We have just bought two car loads of furniture, each weighing from 12,000 to 15,000 pounds. Does this mean anything? Why of course, when freight rates on small shipments are as high as $2.49 per hundred pounds. We wish to please our customers, therefore we carry all grades of furniture. Hat racks from 10c. to 5 00, 7 00, 8 00 to 25 00. Rockers from 40c. 75c. 1 00, 1 25, 2 00, to 10 00. Parlor suits Silk and Plush from 15 00, 20 00, 25 00, 35 00 to 50 00. Ward Robes 5 00, 7 00, 8 00, 10 00 to 30 00. We have over 100 bed room suits from 8 50, 12 00, 18 00, 20 00, 25 00, 35 00 to 100. Over 2000 chairs from 40c. 50c. 75c. 1 00 to 10 00, 12 00. Extension tables 3 00, 5 00, 7 00, 8 00 to 25 00. We do not say we will sell you goods as cheap, but less. Why? Because we have the inside track, though we are not as swift as Star Pointer, who paces a mile in 1.59 1/2, but we mean business, i. e. to sell goods and a "heap of 'em." We do our own work, therefore we discount all bills. Store open from 6.30 a. m. to 8.30 p. m.

Yours respectfully,

Bell, Harris & Co.

P. S. :—The Undertaking Department is under the care and management of Mr. W L Bell. Calls promptly attended to day or night.

Yours respectfully,
Bell, Harris & Company.
