RAMBLER DELIGHTED.

Hears an able Lecture and a Captivating Recitation.

MR. EDITOR:—Rambling last evening, it was my pleasure to drop in at North Carolina College. I found the chapel crowded, and was told that Prof. Ludwig would lecture before the Athenaeum Club of the college. By the kindness of the students I got a seat and remained to hear the Professor. His subject was, "Books, When to Read, How to Read and What to Read." He surpassed himself, and if he did not inspire the boys with a desire to store their minds with useful knowledge by close attention reading, it was not his fault.

Dismissing his hearers with the remark, "read whenever you want to, but be sure that you want to" we all repaired to the Philanthropic Hall, where Miss Gertrude Sieber, the accomplished teacher of elocution in Mont Amonea Female Seminary, of Mt. Pleasant, N. C., recited "Franz' Song," to the delight and great satisfaction of us all. The breathless silence, which was almost painful because unusual, bespoke how well the rendition was enjoyed and appreciated. Being heartily applauded, she gave us something to laugh about in "That Old Sweet-heart of Mine." To be frank, the writer has heard quite a number of persons recite, but Miss Sieber surpasses them all. Dr. Miller is to be congratulated in securing so accomplished an instructor in elocution, and if she can but impart some of her gifts to her pupils, parents will have made no mistake in sending their daughters to Mont Amonea.

RAMBLER.

Mrs. Duval's Father Dead.

News was received this (Friday) morning announcing the death of Mr. J. E. Burch, father of Mrs. L. D. Duval, at his home in Augusta, Ga. Mr. Burch was 89 years of age and his death was due to old age. The news was a great shock to Mrs. Duval, who is in very feeble health.

A Rusty Needle in His Foot.

Master Lester Murr, the 10-year-old boy of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Murr, happened to a serious accident today. While playing on the graded school grounds, he stepped on a rusty needle, an inch long, which ran into his foot jam up to the eye.

The little fellow suffered excruciating pain for a little while, until Mr. R. L. Keesler arrived on the scene with a pair of tweezers with which the needle was drawn.

SITUATION IN THE SOUTH.

Farmers Quarantined and Cannot Sell their Cotton—Fever Believed to be Worse than Reported.

A gentleman arrived in the city this morning direct from New Orleans and other Southern cities and tells of the fever and its effect upon the people.

He said that the farmers with cotton and produce are quarantined from the town and city and could not offer anything for sale. The inhabitants of the towns infected with yellow fever are suffering in many instances for necessities usually furnished by the farmers.

He said that it is his belief that the fever scourge is a great deal worse than pictured to us in the telegraphic dispatches. The fever, he says, is spreading and the people are becoming more alarmed than ever before.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

An engaged girl may feel awfully sure of everything, but she doesn't eat many onions till after she gets married.

After a girl has once decided that she won't have a man if he asks her, she will never forgive him for not asking her.

No man ever respected a girl much till he made her lose her temper.

When a rich girl's hair looks like streaked molasses candy, it is said to be of the color of spun gold.

Down at the bottom of every woman's prayer is a reminder to the Lord that he knows she has to put up with so much from her husband. N. Y. Press.

The "Blind" Dodge.

They were a pair of "smooth articles" to use a slang expression. They had worked every town from Frisco to the Atlantic seaboard, and they knew their business thoroughly. One of them was blind—not blind in reality, but that's the game.

"Can't you give us a lift, partner?" was the way he came at me. Ordinarily that would have been good for the price of "two," but "partner" had been up against that game before, and, stranger than fiction, in another city "partner" had run up against this same pair.

Now, helping the blind is a weakness with me, but I do kick on a couple of husky individuals endeavoring to give me the "double cross."

Watch for them, citizens of Concord.

Moral: When you help the blind be sure the subject is out of sight.

Furniture and Horses.

Some horses can be bought for $5 others will cost $100, any difference. So with Furniture. Ours is the Standard. We get more for our goods. Why? It costs more to make them, they are better, they last, they give satisfaction, insuring comfort. Customers see these points and are willing to buy a good horse. We have just bought two car loads of furniture, each weighing from 12,000 to 15,000 pounds. Does this mean anything? Why of course, when freight rates on small shipments are as high as $2.49 per hundred pounds. We wish to please our customers, therefore we carry all grades of furniture. Hat racks from 10c. to 5.00, 7.00, 8.00 to 25.00. Rockers from 40c. 75c. 1.00, 1.25, 2.00, to 10.00. Parlor suits Silk and Plush from 15.00, 20.00, 25.00, 35.00 to 50.00. Ward Robes 5.00, 7.00, 8.00, 10.00 to 30.00. We have over 100 bed room suits from 8.50, 12.00, 18.00, 20.00, 25.00, 65.00 to 100. Over 2000 chairs from 40c. 50c. 75c. 1.00 to 10.00, 12.00. Extension tables 3.00, 5.00, 7.00, 8.00 to 25.00. We do not say we will sell you goods as cheap, but less. Why? Because we have the inside track, though we are not as swift as Star Pointer, who paces a mile in 1.59, but we mean business, i. e. to sell goods and a "heap of 'em." We do our own work, therefore we discount all bills. Store open from 6.30 a. m. to 8.30 p. m.

Yours respectfully,
Bell, Harris & Co.

P. S.—The Undertaking Department is under the care and management of Mr. W. L. Bell. Calls promptly attended to day or night.
