CONCORD, N. C., FRIDAY OCTOBER 8 1897

WHOLE No.—1,018

PROBABLY KILLED

Mr. J W Winecoff Falls and is Fatally Injured.

The Salisbury Sun of the 7th says:

"News reached the city this morning of a perhaps fatal accident which occurred in Cabarrus county yesterday.

"Mr. A J Winecoff, of this county, who owns property in Cabarrus county, was at his farm in that county, working on some houses, when he fell a considerable distance. His ribs were broken loose from his backbone and both lungs were cut in twain.

"The first news the Sun received was to the effect that the injuries would most probable prove fatal. The next we heard was that Mr. Winecoff was dead. His family went to Cabarrus today."

[The Mr. Winecoff referred to by the Sun is familiarly known to our people as "Dick" Winecoff, although his initials are A. J. He is in a very critical condition, and is at the home of Jim Ashby, in No. 4 township, who lives on his place].

ASHEVILLE BANKERS ARRESTED.

Embezzlement and Conspiracy the Charges—Released Under $30,000 Bond Each.

Raleigh Oct. 7.—A special to the News and Observer from Asheville says: William E Breeze, president, W H Penland, cashier, and J O Dickinson, a director of the defunct First National Bank of Asheville, were arrested here this morning on indictments from the United States Court, in session at Greensboro, charging them with embezzlement and conspiracy. Thirty thousand dollars bail was required in each case, which was given.

They have all been under $5,000 bonds since July 1, for violating the national banking act. Since then, National Bank Examiner Maxey has been in Asheville, and has made some startling discoveries. One of these discoveries is alleged to be the fact that $250,000 of "accommodation notes," signed by insolvent persons, and filled out by the officials, and some forged papers, are in the bank. Some of the insolvent notes had been re-discounted at other banks. C B Leonard, the man who is supposed to have secured the note signers, comprising janitors, street car motormen, plasterers, carpenters and others of no financial standing, has fled to Mexico.

Corn Shuckings.

Corn-shuckings are now in order. Mr. John L. Miller has returned from Rowan county, where he spent several days at his old home, during which time he took a prominent part in the old time corn-shucking. He reports a good time, and lost the nail off of only one finger.

Site Not Yet Located.

Many questions have been asked as to where the circus will put up on Monday next, but the desired information cannot at this time be furnished. An advance agent will be here tomorrow to decide on the location, and it is the belief of those who have desirable sites, that the circus will be put up at McDonald's or on Wagoner's lot near Cannonville.

TIRED MOTHERS find help in Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives them pure blood, a good appetite and new and needed STRENGTH.

MONEY SAVED IS MADE.

Mecklenburg Farmers Marketing Their Cotton Here.

Mr. H M Armstrong and Mr. Josiah Hunter, both of Mecklenburg, brought cotton to this market on Thursday, and they were well paid for the trip.

The first named gentleman sold ten bales, and the latter sold twelve. On the twenty-two bales the two gentlemen received about $41 more than they would have gotten had they sold their cotton in Charlotte at 6.20.

This is a big item to farmers who have large quantities of cotton to sell, and every one in this entire section should reap the benefits of our high priced market.

Farmers and merchants alike should spread this news.

Sharon's Cotton Procession.

Thursday's Charlotte News Says:

"There were about 35 bales of cotton brought to Charlotte this morning from Sharon township. After learning what the Concord market was, the entire crowd started for Concord. They drove up East Trade to Tryon and down Tryon they went with their banners flying "This cotton goes to Concord." Several of the farmers thought of the 22 miles ahead of them; the terribly dusty roads and losing their heart, they turned back and drove their wagons to College street, where they accepted the Charlotte merchants' price. Sixteen bales of the 35 kept on and will be sold on the Concord market.

"From the towns near Charlotte the following prices were telephoned the News this afternoon: Gastonia 6.25, Belmont 6.15, Rock Hill 6.10, Mt. Holly 6.25, Concord 6.45.

"As will be seen the Concord market was nearly 20 points in advance of any other market near Charlotte. In Charlotte today the best cotton brought 6.25 but there was little of this grade on the market. The ruling price was 6.20."

[Sharon township is in the southeastern corner of Mecklenburg county. Several bales of the cotton in the above lot was brought from the edge of the South Carolina line]

COTTON! COTTON!! COTTON!!!

The Number of Bales Increased, But the Price Fell Off.

Mecklenburg, Stanly, Union, Rowan, Iredell, Gaston, Lincoln and Cabarrus counties were represented in the cotton line-up in this city today. It was the biggest day yet, and Cotton Weigher Biggers was forced to call in more help. Up to 2 o'clock this afternoon 316 bales had been weighed at the platform, and more on the streets. Mecklenburg and Stanly counties furnished the most of the cotton.

The price paid today was a few points below that of yesterday, 6.30 being the ruling price.

We claim to Sell goods for less than they were offered by any house in Concord and back up our assertions by facts and figures which we place before the public. We do not know much about animals, but will ask John Robinson next Monday.

Anybody wishing to compare our prices with others we will take great pleasure in furnishing them. Intelligent purchasers do not want money refunded after purchase is made. We are here, however, to down all prices given, and do as we always have done—refund money if purchase is not entirely satisfactory.
