CONCORD, OCT. 13 1897.

NORTH CAROLINA AT LARGE.

It took two coaches to carry the moonshiners and witnesses from Wilkes to the Federal court at Greensboro.—Durham Sun.

Raleigh Press Visitor: As for joining forces with the Populists this paper believes that the Democrats of the State have been slapped in the face one time too many by Butler and his crowd. The Butler of today is the Butler of four years ago.

Forest City Vidette: We learn that the colored people of Rutherfordton township are organizing themselves against the Republican party as is new and has heretofore existed. We understand that they expect to put out a ticket of their own men and vote for them, not with the hope of electing them, but to defeat the Republican party.

Mr. Geo. Gray killed a large bear near Wheat Swamp last Thursday night. The bear was in poor condition but weighed 215 pounds. The bear had killed two hogs for one of Mr. Gray's neighbors the night before. One of the bear's paws was brought here and was in possession of Mr. Coles, one of the tobacco buyers. Coles says he will "hoodoo" the boys with it.—Kinston Free Press

The Burnsville (Yancy county) Eagle of last week says: Last Saturday night at the home of Tillman Fox, on Jack's creek, about eight miles north of town, where several people were gathered at a "bean stringing," Jonathan Bennett shot and instantly killed Nora Ray. Bennett was under the influence of liquor. He made his escape and so far has not been arrested. The Ray girl is a sister to Will Ray, who was killed on South Toe river some months ago.

The following from an exchange is every word true, and ought to be posted in every business house in the county: "The man who takes his job work out of town to have it printed is no friend to the town. He can prate about protection to home industries, but he is the rank-est kind of a free trader, and all because he can save a few pennies occasionally on a job of work. These same kind of fellows, when they come to die, should send their obituaries to the same foreign job office and have them printed on manilla cardboard and tack them up on the town pump. They hardly deserve a funeral notice in the home paper."

Place Located for the Church.

The committee recently appointed by Rev. S D Steffey, has found a suitable place to erect the new proposed Lutheran church. The location is on the property of Mr. Ephriam Bost, near the big road, three miles from Mt. Pleasant. Mr. Bost has very generously donated the land, and work will soon commence on the building of the new house of worship.

Rev. Steffey preached at the Plot school house Sunday afternoon to a large congregation. He has appointed trustees for the new church.

Notice of Dissolution.

The firm of M F Nesbit & Co., has been this day dissolved by mutual consent, T B Smith having withdrawn from said firm. The firm will hereafter be known as Nesbit & Pressly.

M F NESBIT & Co.

Coddle, N. C., Oct. 1st, '97.

All claims due the firm of M F Nesbit & Co., are payable to Nesbit & Pressly, I having conveyed to them my interest in the same together with my good will and wishes to the new firm.

F. B. SMITH.

For the Wiley-Bernhardt Wedding.

Mrs. R A Brown, accompanied by her children, Miss Grace and Masters Lewis and Leonard Brown, left this morning for Salisbury, to be present at the marriage of Mr. Sam Wiley and Miss Beulah Bernhardt, which will take place in the Lutheran church at that place tomorrow evening.

Prof. R L Keesler, who will have charge of the music, will go up this evening.

The Hesperides Lost.

Our Hatteras coast has scored another victim to her long list of wrecks. The steamer Hesperides from Cuba to Baltimore with a cargo of iron was stranded on Diamond shoals Saturday night.

The ship and cargo were entirely lost but the crew were all saved.

Difference Adjusted.

N P Cranford, who was arrested and placed in jail last week for selling mortgaged cotton, on which M Oglesby, of Harrisburg, held a claim, has been liberated from custody, the differences having been satisfactorily adjusted between the parties concerned.

A New Brokerage Firm.

Messrs. W A Porterfield & Co., bankers and commission stock brokers of Richmond, Va., co-sponders of Robt. Ludbeom & Co., members Chicago Board of Trade; S Munn, Sons & Co., members New York Cotton Exchange, and Knapp Bros., members of New York Consolidated Stock Exchange, have opened a branch office in this city, over Marsh's drug-store, where constant quotations will be received from the different exchanges. Mr. W R Stark, who will be in charge the local business here, has been connected with the firm for some time, and is thoroughly familiar with the business. Hereafter THE STANDARD will publish market quotations furnished by this firm.

Furniture.

"That is, that is simply for instance, by the goddins." I am still at the old stand, next door to Morris Hotel, selling furniture at racket prices and increasing my stock every day. It will pay you to see me before you buy. My line of undertakers' goods is first-class, and can furnish children's coffins and caskets from $1.00 to $20.00, and adults from $2.00 to $75.00. Thanking you for your past favors and continuance of your trade. I am,

Yours respectfully,
Jno. T. POUNDS.

FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY.

A Mass Meeting of Citizens Will Be Held at the Court House Friday Night to Organize—A Worthy Object and Much Needed Institution.

The public generally and lovers of popular education and books particularly, are requested to come to the court house on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock, to discuss the scheme of organizing a free public library for Concord. Remember that it is a free public meeting for a public library and anyone in sympathy with such an object has as much authority as any other. The meeting is for a worthy object and should be largely attended by the citizens generally. Friday night at 7:30 o'clock sharp, at the court house.
