CONCORD, N. C., TUESDAY OCTOBER 19 1897

WHOLE No.—1027

A QUIET WEDDING.

Mr. Jacob Dove and Mrs. Martha L. Robinson. A Happy Bride and a Happy Groom.

Although many of our citizens knew of the marriage some time ago, it was not known beyond a reasonable doubt until this afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Mr. Jacob Dove and Mrs. Martha L. Robinson were united in matrimony at the home of the bride, in No. 11 township, in the presence of quite a large circle of friends and relatives. Rev. H. A. McCullough, the bride's pastor, performed the ceremony that made the happy couple husband and wife.

Immediately after the marriage vows were taken, Mr. Dove and bride, accompanied by the wedding party, repaired to the elegant home of the groom, where a sumptuous supper is in progress.

Mr. Dove is one of the most prominent and wealthy citizens, while Mrs. Dove is a most amiable lady.

THE STANDARD extends its heartiest congratulations to this bride and groom, and wishes for them many years of unalloyed happiness.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate their bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, aiding strength and giving to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the function. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzler's Drug Store.

The Benevolent Fair.

The fair which the ladies of the Benevolent Society of the First Presbyterian church are preparing to open on October 28th, Thursday of next week, will be conducted on a basis of reasonable prices, giving full value for money received. It is intended to make every department as attractive as possible; specimens of art and curios, things to eat, articles ornamental or useful will be above the average in excellence and genuine worth.

The art gallery, the museum and the different booths will be worth going to see; the refreshment parlor will tempt the most fastidious, and the baby show will be an array of loveliness that cannot fail to charm and amuse. An admittance fee will pass any one who chooses to pay it into the baby show, but there will positively be no voting and no prizes. The society hopes by handsome displays, an abundance of good things to eat, popular prices and the most polite attention to make a financial success of the Benevolent Fair.

Sad Death in No. 6 Township.

Mollie, wife of John A. Ritchie, of No. 6 township, died Monday afternoon after an illness of ten days with typhoid fever. Mrs. Ritchie was a young wife and leaves a husband and three children. The remains of the deceased woman were interred this (Tuesday) afternoon at Prosperity Lutheran church by Rev. S. D. Steffey, of St. John's. Though her condition was considered quite serious, death was quite unexpected. Mrs. Ritchie was a daughter of Mr. Alexander Yost, of No. 6 township.

Relics from Indian Graves.

Some days ago Mr. D. W. Helms of No. 11 township, showed us two interesting specimens of rare coin. One is not gold, silver nor copper, but has a little the appearance of brass. The date on it is 1515. One contains the stamped name and image of George Washington on one side and letters on the other that were scarcely decipherable, but we made it out as "In Unitate Fortitudo." But the still more interesting part is the finding of the coins. Mr. Helms says that at his former home in Union county his garden occupied a place believed to contain Indian graves. He had sage planted and there was a vigorous growth on a spot about the size of a grave. He pulled up a bunch of the sage and with it came this rare coin.

Mr. Helms, in further conversation, told of one Mr. Willis Gardner, of Taraha, S. C., who, two years ago, found treasures of gold trinkets, pottery etc., in an Indian grave on which he realized in New York a fine sum, but was murdered and robbed on his return home.

The Salisbury Sun says Mr. A. I. Morgan and Geo. A. Cantp exhumed from an Indian burying ground thirty-five more relics to add to a former stock gotten from the same grounds.

They include an ax, tomahawk, battle hammer, two knives, etc.

Contract Let.

A Winston special to the News and Observer says: "T. B. Jones & Co. have been awarded the contract by the Southern Railway Company to build a railroad from Mocksville to Mooresville, a distance of 27 1/2 miles. Mr. Jones is in the city, and says he will begin work at once and will employ 1,000 or more hands. The work will be pushed as rapidly as possible. This road is an extension of the North Carolina Midland from Winston to Mocksville. It will connect at Mooresville with another line of the Southern. It is stated that when completed the company will run its through freight trains via the new road."

For Over Fifty Years

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Mr. Thomas Rorie, of Lancaster county, S. C., and Mr. Samuel Arant, of Buford township, this county, are closely related and as well as we can figure it out are father-in-law to each other and each is his own father-in-law. Some time ago Mr. Rorie's wife died and he married Mr. Arant's daughter. Mr. Arant was a widower and fell in love with and married Mr. Rorie's daughter a few weeks ago, hence the strange relationship.—Monroe Enquirer.

An Enraged Elephant.

One of the big elephants at the show at Greensboro attacked an employe and the keeper coming to the rescue was caught up within the coiled trunk of the monster and placed in his mouth. By the application of hot irons and acids he was subdued, but not until the keeper was badly hurt.

A Prominent Merchant in Chains.

At Dalton, Ga., a gang of robbers have been run down and one large and influential merchant, buyer of the goods, has been found guilty and given 12 months on the chain gang, and $750 fine. Others are implicated.

Honesty is the best policy but some think it is too slow a way to get rich.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discovery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with La Grippe, and her case grew so serious, that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into Hasty Consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from the first dose, and half a dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at Fetzler's Drug Store.

You can never tell what a man will do in a horse trade, by the length of his prayer on Sunday.—Ram's Horn.

John Kaylor leads the van in 'posoms. He has one which is one year old and weighs 18 pounds. The most remarkable feature is, it is as white as cotton. Its eyes, toes and tail are red.—Lenoir Topic.
