DRUNK AND MAD.

A Georgian Wants to Fight—Succeeds in Having Several Affrays—Desperately Mad.

Mr. Charles Obery, a native Georgian, created a considerable amount of excitement on our streets Sunday evening. Mr. Obery has been in our city only about three weeks, and was holding a good position at Forest Hill, being a section boss.

Being full of whiskey and wanting to fight everyone that he came in contact with, he tackled Jesse Koonz, a peaceful colored man of our city. Jesse tried to reason with him and tried to get him to "pass on," but he seemed determined to have a fight, and soon the blows commenced to pass. After they were parted Mr. Obery did not seem to realize that he was hurt, though considerably bloody, but almost instantaneously went to some others standing by and wished to repeat the act.

The citizens of the town, who were standing on the streets, realizing the fact that he was too drunk to know what dangers he was exposing himself to, seized him and took him in Dr. Archey's office, where he and Dr. Jno. Reed dressed his wounds, though it took quite a number of men and a good amount of strength to keep him still long enough for the doctor to sew up his wounds.

It seems from his injuries, that he had been cut on the back of the head before he had his affray in front of the National Bank with Jesse Koonz.

This morning Mr. Obery was arraigned before Mayor Crowell, and fined seven dollars and a half for being drunk and disorderly, and was bound over to court on a bond of forty dollars.

In default of bond, he was taken back to jail to await the next term of court.

Mr. Obery seemed unusually nervous this morning and would have but little to say. He says that he has been in South Carolina most of his life and that he came from Danville to this place. He has a mother in Georgia, to whom, he says, he sends money very often.

From the expression on his face this morning one could realize that he was just now beginning to see the error he has made. One could not help but feel sorry for him, by his looks, and we are told that he is a mighty clever young man when not in the terrible condition he was yesterday.

Board of Education Meets.

The county board of education met in the court house on last Saturday and transacted quite an amount of business, the most interesting to our readers being the agreement of the price of the different school books for our schools, which agreement or price, holds for three years.

The resignation of Messrs. A M Cox and M E Herring, of No. 9, as school committeemen, was also considered, and Messrs. Monre Widenhouse and Caleb Smith appointed in their stead. It is not known whether the ones appointed will accept the position or not.

This is the third escape recently. All had chains on but were trusted to a limited extent for want of more trustworthy ones to do certain work that would have had to be hired otherwise.

Fire in Charlotte.

From a gentleman from Charlotte we learned this morning that that town was visited by a fire last night. The fire originated near the round-house of the Southern, and consumed a couple of dwellings and one store. The store was owned by Mr. R B Alexander. A Badly Cut Foot.

Saturday evening, Mr. E J Hinson, of Cannonville, who lives next to the new Presbyterian church happened to quite a painful accident. He was cutting wood and his axe caught in the clothes line and caused the blow to fall on his foot, inflicting an ugly gash. The wound bled very profusely before a physician could get to him, but Dr. Sam Caldwell succeeded in checking it. He is doing splendidly to-day.

Beggars in Town.

It seems that it is not generally known yet by the tramps that journey this way that our town does not allow beggars. The policemen are being bothered with them occasionally, though it is on the suburbs. They visit what is called New Town at Forest Hill. Saturday Policeman Bost gave one a chase from the home of Mr. Alfred Klutz, of Cannonville, and today (Monday) one ventured up town as far as Spring street, but only made a short visit and bade us adieu before the "cop" could get him.

The Fall Poet Says:

"The melancholy days have come,
The saddest of the year,
When it's a little too warm for whiskey,
And a little too cold for beer.

When it's a little too warm for a heavy overcoat and a lot too cold for none.

Come in and be inserted into a handsome, fit-some stylish fall overcoat.

You'd guess the price at $8 or $10 but it's really only $6.

Then we have a very stylish light casimer, nicely made, light-weight overcoat for $3.50.

To those of our friends who only want an all year round overcoat we want to say that we are ready right now to show some magnificent overcoats at even less than wholesale prices. You can only realize it by seeing them, but we assure you that seeing will convince you, that we can save you from $5 to $10 on fine overcoats. We can save you just as well, too, in the cheaper and medium grades. We have children's overcoats at $1, and men's overcoats at $2. Step in and see what we can show you.
