Death Struck a Shining Mark.

Henry George died Friday morning at 4:45 o'clock.

He was making a strong contest for the mayoralty of Greater New York, and doubtless overdid his strength.

He had made three speeches the night before he died, and coming home at 1 o'clock retired, but soon became restless, then incoherent in his words, and next unconscious, and passed away calmly. The immediate cause of death was apoplexy. He was a man of great power in the advocacy of his views, some of which were considered peculiar and objectionable. He wrote several books on great economic questions, one of which set forth his novel idea of common ownership of the lands, or rather ownership by the government and the land to be held by a renter's title only, and from the renter's all taxes should be derived. He did not admit that he was a socialist in any degree, but his views met with much disfavor. He was not a victim of the charge of anything dishonorable in his conspicuous career, and his name is a shining star in the political sky that has set to leave its rays of purity glimmering down the ages.

He was about 58 years of age. His burial will be unostentatious, according to his wishes.

One Hundred Dogs and Ponies.

Prof. Gentry's famous dog and pony show will exhibit under canvas Wednesday afternoon and night next week. Prof. Gentry has over one hundred dogs and ponies in his company and they are said to be the best ever seen. Prof. Gentry's show is well known in the surrounding towns, but this is the first visit to this city. The dogs and ponies will all appear in the parade, which will be given Wednesday at noon. The acts performed by Prof. Gentry's animals are all new and are said to be entirely different from anything ever seen in this city. The prices of admission are children 15c, adults 25c.

The "Squire" and the Judge.

That is a case altogether unique in Asheville in which the Judge of the Superior Court is arraigned before the Judge of a magistrate's court.

It comes about this way: Esq. Deaver had Judge Ewart to appear before the grand jury as witness against the Southern railway on the charge of issuing passes to the said judge. Judge Ewart took occasion to use some very uncomplimentary terms for Esq. Deaver's special benefit, among which the following is probably the most offensive part:

"Perhaps I am traveling in the interest of the orphan asylums of the State and because I did not solicit alms of those generous and open-hearted philanthropists, Justice Deaver and Fee Raiser Goldsmith, his coadjutor in the suppression of crime and cruelty to animals, I have earned their animosity—but, continue to ride on my pass in the interests of 'sweet charity.'"

This was taken as an offense against the dignity of the magistrate's courts and he has cited Judge Ewart to appear before him on November 1st at 10 o'clock to show cause why he should not be punished for contempt of court.

Think of a judge in jail for using contemptuous language about a country "squire."

As to This Paper.

In view of the establishment of a new morning daily newspaper in Raleigh, and in view of inquiries being made to us as to the future of the Press Visitor in this connection the management of the Press Visitor desires to state that this paper will be continued as heretofore, without the slightest interruption, and in the same manner as heretofore. No change whatever in the management of the paper or its relation to any other journal will take place, and we take pleasure in assuring our patrons that this paper, which has been a success from the start, and which has given such universal satisfaction to its vast clientele of patrons from the day of its first appearance, will remain in the field in which it has found such a warm welcome and continues to greet its friends every afternoon as heretofore.—Press Visitor.

What It Means.

When we advertise that we will guarantee Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters, Buckle's Arnica Salve, or Dr. King's New Life Pills, it means that we are authorized by the proprietors to sell these remedies on a positive guarantee, that if purchaser is not satisfied with results, we will refund the purchase price. These medicines have been sold on this guarantee for many years and there could be no more conclusive evidence of their great merit. Ask about them and give them a trial. Sold at Fetzler's Drug Store.

Unanimous for a Straight Fight.

The Democratic press of the State is almost unanimous in the assertion that the campaign of next year will be fought on the line of good government and white supremacy. There are very few of the papers that even hint at such a thing as a fusion with any other party. What the Democracy wants is a straight fight with the above lines clearly drawn, and on this we believe the party can win. If there is a white man in North Carolina who is not disgusted with the present State administration, then he is influenced by something else than a desire for good government.—Greenville Reflector.

Briefs from Billville.

These autumn days are so still that you can hear a bill collector's footsteps a quarter of a mile away.

It seems that the yellow fever not only covers the ground, but fills the doctor's bill.

Only one suspicious case in Billville, and he was caught before he got away with the bank's funds.

Billville has quarantined against Montgomery. It's a godsend to our merchants, as they owe big bills there.

No trains stop at Billville now. Fact is, we've "held up" so many of them they know better.—Atlanta Constitution.
